Pond Lovers:

The Pond Lovers Gene Logsdon, 2007-05-01 To his legions of readers Gene Logsdon is best known as the Contrary Farmer This is Logsdon's ode to the watery microcosms all around from the half acre farm pond to the suburban garden pool Readers looking for hands on experience will find plenty of pond keeping do's and don'ts Chikamatsu C. Andrew Gerstle, Chikamatsu, 2002-09-04 Chikamatsu Monzaemon 1653-1725 often referred to as Japan's Shakespeare and a god of writers was arguably the most famous playwright in Japanese history and wrote more than 100 plays for the kabuki and bunraku theaters Today the plays of this major literary figure are performed on kabuki and bunraku stages as well as in the modern theater and forty nine films of his plays have been made thirty one of them from the silent era Translations of Chikamatsu's plays are available but we have few examples of his late work in which he increasingly incorporated stylistic elements of his shorter contemporary dramas into his longer period pieces Translator C. Andrew Gerstle argues that in these mature history plays Chikamatsu depicted the tension between the private and public spheres of society by combining the rich character development of his contemporary pieces with the larger political themes of his period pieces In this volume Gerstle translates five plays four histories and one contemporary piece never before available in English that complement other collections of Chikamatsu's work revealing new dimensions to the work of this great Japanese playwright and artist

Loving Stones David L. Haberman, 2020-03-18 Loving Stones is a study of devotees' conceptions of and worshipful interactions with Mount Govardhan a sacred mountain located in the Braj region of north central India that has for centuries been considered an embodied form of Krishna It is often said that worship of Mount Govardhan makes the impossible possible In this book David L. Haberman examines the perplexing paradox of an infinite god embodied in finite form wherein each particular form is non different from the unlimited He takes on the task of interpreting the worship of a mountain and its stones for a culture in which this practice is quite alien This challenge involves exploring the interpretive strategies that may explain what seems un-understandable and calls for theoretical considerations of incongruity inconceivability and other realms of the impossible This aspect of the book includes critical consideration of the place and history of the pejorative concept of idolatry and its twin anthropomorphism in the comparative study of religions Loving Stones uses the worship of Mount Govardhan as a site to explore ways in which scholars engaged in the difficult work of representing other cultures struggle to make the impossible possible
