John, Jesus, and History, Volume 1 Paul N. Anderson, Felix Just, Tom Thatcher, 2007 Over the last two centuries many scholars have considered the Gospel of John off limits for all quests for the historical Jesus That stance however creates a new set of problems that need to be addressed thoughtfully The essays in this book reflecting the ongoing deliberations of an international group of Johannine and Jesus scholars critically assess two primary assumptions of the prevalent view the dehistoricization of John and the de Johannification of Jesus The approaches taken here are diverse including cognitive critical developments of Johannine memory distinctive characteristics of the Johannine witness new historicism Johannine Synoptic relations and fresh analyses of Johannine traditional development In addition to offering state of the art reviews of Johannine studies and Jesus studies this volume draws together an emerging consensus that sees the Gospel of John as an autonomous tradition with its own perspective in dialogue with other traditions Through this challenging of critical and traditional assumptions alike new approaches to John's age-old riddles emerge and the ground is cleared for new and creative ways forward

Unmasking the Pagan Christ Stanley E. Porter, Stephen J. Bedard, 2006 Rabbi or Messiah Prophet or the Son of God People have debated the identity of Jesus of Nazareth since the first century But what if there was no Jesus What if there was no Mary or Joseph no twelve apostles What if the story of Jesus was no more than a myth to convey spiritual truth These claims have been around for hundreds of years and have become more prominent with well-known religion columnist Tom Harpur's recent book The Pagan Christ Harpur claims that Jesus was not a historical figure but was one version of an ancient myth that can be traced from ancient Egyptian religion to the Roman mystery cults Stanley Porter and Stephen Bedard tackle this radical claim by looking at the roots of the pagan Christ idea examining the supposed pagan parallels and presenting the evidence for the historical Jesus The authors demonstrate that the suggestion of pagan origins for the Gospel story is not based on historical or textual evidence but rather on a desire to create a universalistic spirituality revolving around a Cosmic Christ within each person A fair examination of both the mythological and biblical texts reveal that the traditional understanding of an actual historical figure known as Jesus of Nazareth appearing two thousand years ago is indeed the only logical conclusion Stanley E. Porter is President and Dean and Professor of New Testament at McMaster Divinity College Hamilton Ontario Canada Porter has M.A. degrees from Claremont Graduate School and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and the Ph.D. from the University of Sheffield He has written widely on issues of concern in study of the New Testament such as Jesus Paul the book of Acts and John He has a passion for education in the church and preaches and teaches regularly Stephen J. Bedard is the pastor of Woodford Baptist Church and First Baptist Church Meaford Ontario Canada He holds the M.Div. and M.Th. degrees from McMaster Divinity College and is actively engaged in further graduate study Bedard is an advocate of informed preaching and teaching and is devoted to the ministry of the local church

What John Knew and What John Wrote Wendy E.S. North, 2020-07-22 In this book Wendy E.S. North investigates whether or not the author of John could have crafted his Gospel with knowledge of the Synoptics Unlike previous approaches which have usually treated the Gospel according to John purely as a piece of literature this book undertakes a fresh approach by examining how John's author reworks material that can be identified within his own text and also in the Jewish Scriptures An assessment of these techniques allows North then to compare the Gospel of John with its Synoptic equivalents and to conclude at last that John indeed worked with the knowledge of the Synoptic texts at certain points

John, Jesus, and History, Volume 2 Paul N. Anderson, Felix Just, Tom Thatcher, 2015-07-07 This groundbreaking volume draws together an international group of leading biblical scholars to consider one of the most controversial religious topics in the modern era Is the Gospel of John the most theological and distinctive among the four canonical Gospels historical or not If not why does John alone among the Gospels claim eyewitness connections to Jesus If so why is so much of John s material unique to John Using various methodologies and addressing key historical issues in John these essays advance the critical inquiry into Gospel historiography and John s place within it leading to an impressive consensus and convergences along the way The contributors are Paul N Anderson Mark Appold Richard Bauckham Helen K Bond Richard A Burridge James H Charlesworth Jaime Clark Soles Mary Coloe R Alan Culpepper Craig A Evans Sean Freyne Jeffrey Paul Garcia Brian D Johnson Peter J Judge Felix Just S J Craig S Keener Edward W Klink III Craig R Koester Michael Labahn Mark A Matson James F McGrath Susan Miller Gail R O Day Bas van Os Tom Thatcher Derek M H Tovey Urban C von Wahlde and Ben Witherington III

Matthew and the Margins Warren Carter, 2005-02-15 This detailed commentary presents the gospel of matthew as a counter narrative showing that it is a work of resistance written from and for a minority community of disciples committed to Jesus the agent of God s saving presence It was written and functions to shape the identity and lifestyle of the early community of jesus followers as an alternative community that can resist the dominant authorities both in rome and in the synagogue The Gospel anticipates the time when Jesus will return and establish God s reign over all including the powers in Rome
