was the leading painter in mid sixteenth century Florence and one of the most original and extraordinary Mannerist artists His extremely personal style was much influenced by Michelangelo though he also drew from northern art especially the work of Albrecht D rer This catalogue brings together a small but important group of preparatory drawings and finished paintings that center on Pontormo s great masterpiece The Visitation one of the most moving and mesmerizing works by the artist The Visitation represents the intense moment of encounter between the Virgin Mary and her cousin Elizabeth who reveal to each other that both are pregnant The painting is presented for the first time along with its highly finished preparatory drawing which is squared for transfer to the larger surface of the panel The combination of rigorous research and gorgeous reproductions reveals the painter s creative process as never before Other acclaimed paintings including Portrait of a Halberdier and Portrait of Carlo Neroni will also be shown alongside their preparatory drawings Readers will encounter Pontormo both as a religious painter and a painter of portraits in this original and nuanced account of the celebrated artist On Certain Drawings of Pontormo Frederick Mortimer Clapp,1911 The Drawings of Pontormo

Renaissance and Baroque Art Leo Steinberg, 2021-02 Leo Steinberg was one of the most original art historians of the twentieth century known for taking interpretive risks that challenged the profession by overturning reigning orthodoxies In essays and lectures ranging from old masters to contemporary art he combined scholarly erudition with an eloquent prose that illuminated his subject and a credo that privileged the visual evidence of the image over the literature written about it

His writings sometimes provocative and controversial remain vital and influential reading Steinberg's perceptions evolved from long hard looking at his objects of study Almost everything he wrote included passages of formal analysis but always put into the service of interpretation This volume begins and ends with thematic essays on two fundamental precepts of Steinberg's art history how dependence on textual authority mutes the visual truths of images and why artists routinely copy or adapt earlier artworks In between are fourteen chapters on masterpieces of renaissance and baroque art with bold and enlightening interpretations of works by Mantegna Filippo Lippi Pontormo El Greco Caravaggio Steen and finally Velázquez Four chapters are devoted to some of Velázquez's best known paintings ending with the famously enigmatic Las Meninas

Renaissance and Baroque Art is the third volume in a series that presents Steinberg's writings selected and edited by his longtime associate Sheila Schwartz

Forms of Faith in Sixteenth-Century Italy Matthew Treherne, 2016-12-05 The sixteenth century was a period of tumultuous religious change in Italy as in Europe as a whole a period when movements for both reform and counter reform reflected and affected shifting religious sensibilities Cinquecento culture was profoundly shaped by these religious currents from the reform poetry of the 1530s and early 1540s to the efforts of Tridentine theologians later in the century to renew Catholic orthodoxy across cultural life This interdisciplinary volume offers a carefully balanced collection of essays by leading international scholars in the fields of Italian Renaissance literature music history and history of art addressing the fertile question of the relationship between religious change and shifting cultural forms in sixteenth century Italy The contributors to this volume are throughout concerned to demonstrate how a full understanding of Cinquecento religious culture might be found as much in the details of the relationship between cultural and religious developments as in any grand narrative of the period The essays range from the art of Cosimo I's Florence to the music of the Confraternities of Rome from the private circulation of religious literature in manuscript form to the public performances of musical laude in Florence and Tuscany from the art of Titian and Tintoretto to the religious poetry of Vittoria Colonna and Torquato Tasso The volume speaks of a Cinquecento in which religious culture was not always at ease with itself and the broader changes around it but was nonetheless vibrant and plural Taken together this new and ground breaking research makes a major contribution to the development of a more nuanced understanding of cultural responses to a crucial period of reform and counter reform both within Italy and beyond

European Drawings 4 Nicholas Turner, 2001-01-03 The collection of drawings at the

Getty Museum was started in 1981 with the purchase of Rembrandt's Nude Woman with a Snake and has steadily expanded since then so that now at the turn of the new millennium it stands at more than six hundred drawings and is sheet for sheet one of the best anywhere. The Getty goal is to create from the finest examples a collection of the different Western European schools of drawing before 1900 with special emphasis on the work of the most important and accomplished draftsmen. The collection now contains superb examples of the work of Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael, Michelangelo, Dürer, Rembrandt, Claude Lorraine, Watteau, Gainsborough, David, Millet, Manet, Van Gogh, and Degas. This is the fourth in the series of catalogues describing the drawings in the Getty Museum. Most of the drawings discussed in the present volume were chosen for the collection in the period of 1994 to 1998 and include examples from the Italian, German, Dutch, and Flemish, French, Spanish, and British schools. Also included are several gifts from private collectors which mark the start of a tradition that it is hoped will continue in the future. The catalogue entries for these new acquisitions are organized first by national school and then by artist. The book also includes a bibliography and indexes of artists, former owners, related drawings, prints, and works in other media.
