Poor Beast In The Rain:

Poor Beast in the Rain Billy Roche, 1990      The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2010-05-28 The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights is an authoritative guide to the work of twenty five playwrights from the last 50 years whose work has helped to shape and define Irish theatre. Written by a team of international scholars it provides an illuminating survey and analysis of each writer's plays and will be invaluable to anyone interested in studying or teaching contemporary Irish drama. The playwrights examined range from John B. Keane, Brian Friel and Tom Murphy to the crop of writers who emerged in the 1990s and who include Martin McDonagh, Marina Carr, Emma Donoghue and Mark O'Rowe. Each essay features a biographical sketch and introduction to the playwright, a discussion of their most important plays, an analysis of their stylistic and thematic traits, the critical reception and their place in the discourses of Irish theatre, a bibliography of texts and critical material. With a total of 190 plays discussed in detail, over half of which were written during the 1990s and 2000s, The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary Irish Playwrights is unrivalled in its study of recent plays and playwrights.      Rain of Terror Warren Murphy, Richard Sapir, 2023-09-01 Breathlessly action packed and boasting a winning combination of thrills, humour and mysticism, the Destroyer is one of the bestselling series of all time.      Tales of the Tricycle Theatre Terry Stoller, 2013-06-20 Tales of the Tricycle Theatre provides an inside look at the history of the north London theatre which has achieved renown with its staging of black Irish verbatim and political drama. Co-published with the Society for Theatre Research, the book draws extensively on archival research and interviews with actors, playwrights, directors, designers and board members to document and celebrate the work of one of London's most artistically exciting and politically engaged theatres. Terry Stoller presents the Tricycle's story, giving you a front row view of the theatre's productions, including the work of generations of black British writers from Mustapha Matura and Alfred Fagon to Roy Williams, Kwame Kwei Armah and Bola Agbaje. Irish plays ranging from Bernard Shaw's John Bull's Other Island to Brendan Behan's The Hostage, its critically lauded political play cycles The Bomb, A Partial History and The Great Game, Afghanistan, the latter performed at the Pentagon in 2011. The Tricycle Theatre has been both defiantly local and proudly international; it has held a mirror up to British society and above all, it has proved that political engagement is not incompatible with the highest artistic standards. It has helped make my life as a critic worthwhile. Michael Billington Foreword.      Critical Moments Fintan O'Toole, 2003 Few figures are more respected and quoted internationally than Fintan O'Toole, both as a controversial and provocative political commentator and theatre critic. This extensive collection brings together a wide range of his writings going back to 1980. It provides a privileged insight into the great moments of contemporary Irish theatre, marking the contributions of playwrights Carr, Murphy, Friel, McGuinness, directors Hynes, Byrne, actors Hickey, McKenna and designers Vanek, Frawley. It also demonstrates his unsettling of the usual canon with his thoughtful arguments promoting certain playwrights who deserve to be there with Ireland's best, including
