and motherhood in black and white society This book brings together nine essays that examine the importance of gender race and culture in the New South offering a rich and varied analysis of the multifaceted role of gender in the lives of black and white southerners in the troubled decades of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Ranging widely from conservative activism by white women in 1920s Georgia to political involvement by black women in 1950s Memphis many of these essays focus on southern women s increasing public activities and high profile images in the twentieth century They tell how women shouldered responsibilities for local national and international interests but just as nineteenth century women s status could be at risk from too much public presence women of the New South stepped gingerly into the public arena taking care to work within what they considered their current gender limitations The authors both established and up and coming scholars take on subjects that reflect wide ranging sophisticated and diverse scholarship on black and white women in the New South They include the efforts of female Home Demonstration Agents to defeat debilitating diseases in rural Florida and the increasing participation of women in historic preservation at Monticello They also reflect unique personal stories as diverse as lobbyist Kathryn Dunaway s efforts to defeat the Equal Rights Amendment in Georgia and Susan Smith s depiction by the national media as a racist southerner during coverage of her children s deaths Taken together these nine essays contribute to the picture of women increasing their movement into political and economic life while all too often still maintaining their gendered place as determined by society Their rich insights provide new ways to consider the meaning and role of gender in the post Civil War South

Women's Suffrage Memorabilia Kenneth Florey,2013-06-19

While historians have long recognized the importance of memorabilia to the Woman Suffrage movement the subject has not been explored apart from a few restricted albeit excellent studies Part of the problem is that such objects are scattered about in various collections and museums and can be difficult to access Another is that most scholars do not have ready knowledge of the general nature and history of the type of objects postcards badges sashes toys ceramics sheet music etc that suffragists produced Then new techniques in both printing and manufacturing created numerous possibilities for supporters to develop campaigns of visual rhetoric This work analyzes 70 different categories of suffrage memorabilia while providing numerous images of relevant objects along the way and discussing these innovative production methods Most important this study looks at period accounts often fascinating of how why when and where the memorabilia were used in both America and England

Season to Taste Caroline J. Smith,2023-05-18 2024 Honorable Mention Recipient for the Emily Toth Award for the Best Single Work by One or More Authors from the Popular Culture Association Between 2000 and 2010 many contemporary US American women writers were returning to the private space of the kitchen writing about their experiences in that space and then publishing their memoirs for the larger public to consume Season to Taste Rewriting Kitchen Space in Contemporary Women s Food Memoirs explores women s food memoirs with recipes in order to consider the ways in which these women are rewriting this kitchen space and renegotiating their relationships with food Caroline J Smith begins the book with a historical overview of how the space of the kitchen and the expectations of women associated with it have shifted considerably since the 1960s Better Homes and Gardens as well as the discourse of the second wave feminist movement tended to depict the space as a place of imprisonment The contemporary popular writers examined in Season to Taste such as Ruth Reichl Kim Sun e Jocelyn Delk Adams Julie Powell and Molly Wizenberg respond to this characterization by instead presenting the kitchen as a place of transformation In their memoirs and recipes these authors reinterpret their roles within the private sphere of the home as well as the public sphere of the world of publishing whether print or digital publication The authors examined here explode the divide of private feminine and public masculine in both content and form and complicate the genres of recipe writing diary writing and memoir These women writers through the act of preparing and consuming food encourage readers to reconsider the changing gender politics of the kitchen Adweek ,1991 Volumes for 1981 198 include four special directory issues The Taste of America John L. Hess,Karen Hess,2000 This classic barbeque of our foodways is as valid and as savory today as when it first tickled ribs a generation ago Based on the superlative authority of John L Hess onetime food critic of the New York Times and Karen Hess the pioneering historian of cookery The Taste of America is both a history of American cooking and a history of the advice smiling celebrity cooks have asked Americans to swallow The Taste of America provoked the cooking experts of the 1970s into spitting rage by pointing out in embarrassing detail that most of them lacked an essential ingredient expertise Now Kool Aid like Mother used to make has become Kool Aid like Grandmother used to make and a new generation has been weaned on synthetic food pathetic snobbery neurotic health advice and reconstituted history This much needed new edition chars Julia Child She s not a cook but she plays one on TV chides food maven Ruth Reichl and marvels at a convention of food technologists whose program bore the slogan Eat your heart out Mother Nature Delectable reading for consumers reformers and scholars this twenty fifth anniversary reissue of The Taste of America will serve well into the new millennium
