Mungos Canberra:

Deep Time Dreaming Billy Griffiths, 2018-02-26 People would have known about Australia before they saw it Smoke billowing above the sea spoke of a land that lay beyond the horizon A dense cloud of migrating birds may have pointed the way But the first Australians were voyaging into the unknown Soon after Billy Griffiths joins his first archaeological dig as camp manager and cook he is hooked Equipped with a historian's inquiring mind he embarks on a journey through time seeking to understand the extraordinary deep history of the Australian continent Deep Time Dreaming is the passionate product of that journey It investigates a twin revolution the reassertion of Aboriginal identity in the second half of the twentieth century and the uncovering of the traces of ancient Australia It explores what it means to live in a place of great antiquity with its complex questions of ownership and belonging It is about a slow shift in national consciousness the deep time dreaming that has changed the way many of us relate to this continent and its enduring dynamic human history John Mulvaney Book Award Winner Ernest Scott Prize Winner NSW Premier's Literary Awards Winner Book of the Year NSW Premier's Literary Awards Winner Douglas Stewart Prize for Non fiction Victorian Premier's Literary Awards Highly Commended Queensland Literary Awards Shortlisted Prime Minister's Literary Awards Shortlisted Educational Publishing Awards Shortlisted Australian Book Industry Awards Longlisted CHASS Book Prize Longlisted What a revelatory work If you wish to hear the voice of our continent's history before the written word Deep Time Dreaming is a must read The freshest most important book about our past in years Tim Flannery Once every generation a book comes along that marks the emergence of a powerful new literary voice and shifts our understanding of the nation's past Billy Griffiths Deep Time Dreaming is one such book Deeply researched creatively conceived and beautifully written it charts the expansion of archaeological knowledge in Australia for the first time No other book has managed to convey the mystery and intricacy of Indigenous antiquity in quite the same way Read it it will change the way you see Australian history Mark McKenna historian Billy Griffiths Deep Time Dreaming Uncovering Ancient Australia is a remarkable book and one destined I believe to become a modern classic of Australian history writing Written in vivid evocative prose this book will grip both the expert and the general reader alike Iain McCalman author of The Reef A Passionate History The Great Barrier Reef from Captain Cook to Climate Change

The Incredible Human Journey Alice Roberts, 2010-04-05 Alice Roberts has been travelling the world from Ethiopian desert to Malay peninsula and from Russian steppes to Amazon basin in order to understand the challenges that early humans faced as they tried to settle continents On her travels she has witnessed some of the daunting and brutal challenges our ancestors had to face mountains deserts oceans changing climates terrifying giant beasts and volcanoes But she discovers that perhaps the most serious threat of all came from other humans When our ancestors set out from Africa there were already two other species of human on the planet Neanderthal in Europe and Homo erectus in Asia Both contrary to popular perception were intelligent adept at making tools and weapons and were long adapted to their environments So

Alice asks why did only Homo sapiens survive Part detective story part travelogue and drawing on the latest genetic and archaeological discoveries Alice examines how our ancestors evolved physically in response to these challenges finding out how our colour shape size diet disease resistance and even athletic ability have been shaped by the range of environments that our ancestors had to survive She also relates how astonishingly closely related we all are As a lecturer in Anatomy at Bristol University Alice Roberts is eminently qualified to write this book As a talented artist she is perfectly qualified to illustrate it and dotted throughout this lively book are many of the sketches and photographs from her travels Murdoch's Flagship Denis Cryle,2008-01-12 Murdoch's Flagship provides the first in depth overview of the Australian mapping its uneven and uncharted progress across its first three decades While the Fairfax and Packer media groups have received detailed historical coverage over the years Rupert Murdoch's News Limited and the Australian have not been given the same systematic attention by historians Denis Cryle draws on a vast amount of secondary print material his own extensive interviews with past and present staff and a detailed reading of the Australian's newspaper files to capture the vitality of the newspaper over three seminal decades Reframing Indigenous Biography Shino Konishi,Malcolm Allbrook,Tom Griffiths,2024-11-11 This book explores the history practice and possibilities of writing about the lives of First Nations peoples in Australia as well as Aotearoa New Zealand North America and the Pacific This interdisciplinary collection recognises the limitations of Western biographical conventions for writing Indigenous long and short form biographies Through a series of diverse life stories of both historical and contemporary First Nations figures this book investigates innovative ways to ameliorate the challenges we face in recovering the stories of Indigenous people and reimagining their lives in productive new ways Many of the chapters in this collection are deeply reflective aiming not just to relate the life story of an individual but also to reflect on the archival intellectual and emotional journeys that biographers undertake in researching Indigenous biography This volume will be of value to scholars and students interested in Indigenous Studies biography history literature creative writing archaeology and colonial and postcolonial studies Archaeology of Ancient Australia Peter Hiscock,2007-12-12 Peter Hiscock presents an introduction to the archaeology of Australia from prehistoric times to the 18th century AD Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum,2002-03-01 In Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum provides a devastating account of the Howard government's treatment of the refugees as well as delineating the factors in Australian history which have worked towards prejudice and those which have worked against it ranging from Calwell's postwar immigration policy to the recent revelations of beat ups and distortions in the 2001 election campaign This is a powerful account of how the government played on what was ultimately the race issue In an essay which is by terms witty dry and bitingly understated Mungo MacCallum asks what epithets are appropriate for a prime minister who has brought us to this pass He also raises the question of whether Australia's contemporary treatment of refugees has anything in common with the sane and decent policies that have characterised the better moments in our history it will take a long time to recover from the campaign of hate and fear which was deemed to be necessary to return the Howard government in the first year of the new millennium Mungo MacCallum Girt By Sea This most cold eyed of one time Canberra chroniclers brings to this story all his wit and dryness and power of mind It s a sad tale though it is everywhere enlivened by MacCallum s tendency to suggest that spades really are bloody shovels at the end of the day Peter Craven A document of immense power MacCallum s essay will stand as a record of Australia s shame and depravity It will haunt us Julian Burnside Australian Book Review Mungo s assertion that Howard is a man with no vision only division to his name and his recognition that Howard will never have the approval of those elites he so gratuitously desires is a blistering strike at the Liberal man Geoff Parkes Journal of Australian Studies Mungo MacCallum has long been one of Australia s most influential and entertaining political journalists in a career spanning more than four decades Mungo has worked with the Australian the Age the Financial Review Sydney Morning Herald and numerous magazines as well as the ABC SBS Channel Nine and Channel Ten His books include the bestselling Mungo The Man Who Laughs The Good the Bad and the Unlikely Australia s Prime Ministers and The Whitlam Mob

Mungo Park's Ghost Dane Kennedy,2024-01-25 In 1816 the British sent two large ambitious expeditions to Africa one to follow the Niger River to its outlet the other to trace the Congo River to its source Their shared goal was to complete the unfinished mission of Mungo Park who had disappeared during a journey to determine whether the Niger and the Congo were the same river Both quests ended disastrously and were soon forgotten Telling the full story of these failed expeditions for the first time Dane Kennedy argues that they provide fresh insight into British ambitions in Africa He places them in the contexts of the imperial rivalry with France the slave trade and the abolition campaign and the independent power wielded by African states and peoples He also shows that they were haunted by the same sense of hubris that would afflict many of the expeditions that followed This hubris was Mungo Park s ghost Southern Asia, Australia, and the Search for Human Origins Robin Dennell,Martin Porr,2014-02-24 This is the first book to focus on the role of Southern Asia and Australia in our understanding of modern human origins and the expansion of Homo sapiens between East Africa and Australia before 30 000 years ago With contributions from leading experts that take into account the latest archaeological evidence from India and Southeast Asia this volume critically reviews current models of the timing and character of the spread of modern humans out of Africa It also demonstrates that the evidence from Australasia should receive much wider and more serious consideration in its own right if we want to understand how our species achieved its global distribution Critically examining the Out of Africa model this book emphasises the context and variability of the global evidence in the search for human origins

Pictures of Time Beneath Kirsty Douglas,2010 Examines three celebrated scientific landscapes Adelaide s Hallett Cove Lake Callabonna in South Australia and the World Heritage listed Willandra Lakes Region of NSW It offers philosophical insights into significant issues of heritage management and our understanding of place time nation and science Mungo on the Zoo Plane Mungo MacCallum,Mungo Wentworth MacCallum,1979 Robert Brown and Mungo Park Joel

Schwartz,2021-08-04 Explorer naturalists Robert Brown and Mungo Park played a pivotal role in the development of natural history and exploration in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries This work is a fresh examination of the lives and careers of Brown and Park and their impact on natural history and exploration Brown and Park were part of a group of intrepid naturalists who brought back some of the flora and fauna they encountered drawings of what they observed and most importantly their ideas The educated public back home was able to gain an understanding of the diversity in nature This eventually led to the development of new ways of regarding the natural world and the eventual development of a coherent theory of organic evolution This book considers these naturalists Brown Park and their contemporaries from the perspective of the Scottish Enlightenment Brown s investigations in natural history created a fertile environment for breakthroughs in taxonomy cytology and eventually evolution Brown s pioneering work in plant taxonomy allowed biologists to look at the animal and plant kingdoms differently Park s adventures stimulated significant discoveries in exploration Brown and Park s adventures formed a bridge to such journeys as Charles Darwin s voyage on H M S Beagle which led to a revolution in biology and full explication of the theory of evolution

The Australian Desert Roslynn Haynes,2024-11-04 This unique book is the only fully interdisciplinary and comprehensive study of the Australian desert and its pivotal role in the cultural history of Australia Beginning with the prehistory of the continent it engages with geology the Aboriginal Dreaming narratives of origin the arrival of the first Australians Aboriginal culture of the Dreaming anthropology colonial history and the cult of the inland explorer hero and integration of the central deserts through the responses of writers artists and filmmakers into the national identity Chapters explore the unique way Indigenous artists have evolved a method of expressing their spiritual relationship to Country while hiding from uninitiated eyes the secret sacred meaning beneath the paint It takes us on a journey through the politics of Land Rights for First Nations peoples the Uluru Statement from the Heart and an analysis of Indigenous ecological principles which may suggest a new and radical approach to navigating climate change in the Anthropocene The Australian Desert is written for scholars of fine arts anthropology literature film studies cultural history Indigenous studies ecology and tourism and for anyone interested in deserts

The Archaeology of Large-Scale Manipulation of Prey Kristen A. Carlson,Leland C. Bement,2018-05-30 The Archaeology of Large Scale Manipulation of Prey explores the social and functional aspects of large scale hunting adaptations in the archaeological record Mass kill hunting strategies are ubiquitous in human prehistory and exhibit culturally specific economic social environmental and demographic markers Here seven case studies primarily from the Americas and spanning from the Folsom period on the Great Plains to the ethnographic present in Australia expand the understanding of large scale hunting methods beyond the customary role of subsistence and survival to include the social and political realms within which large scale hunting adaptations evolved Addressing a diverse assortment of archaeological issues relating to the archaeological signatures and interpretation of mass kill sites The Archaeology of Large Scale Manipulation of Prey reevaluates and rephrases the deep time development of hunting and the themes of subsistence to provide a foundation for the future study of hunting adaptations around the globe Authors illustrate various perspectives and avenues of investigation making this an important contribution to the field of zooarchaeology and the study of hunter gatherer societies throughout history The book will appeal to archaeologists ethnologists and ecologists alike Contributors Jane Balme Jonathan Driver Adam C Graves David Maxwell Ulla Odgaard John D Speth Mar a Nieves Zede o Continent of Hunter-Gatherers Harry Lourandos,1997-02-28 This book challenges traditional perceptions of Australian Aboriginal prehistory that the environment is the major determinant of hunter gatherers that Aborigines were egalitarian and culturally homogeneous and therefore experienced few economic and demographic changes Harry Lourandos argues that the social and economic processes of hunter gatherers were complex and that the prehistoric period was dynamic and revolutionary Lourandos presents prehistoric data reviews archaeological and ethnohistorical evidence and analyses environmental demographic and socially oriented perspectives drawing from them an original hypothesis He addresses initial colonisation the role of Tasmanian Aborigines the role of fire faunal extinctions the intensification debate horticultural origins plant exploitation and the significance of Australian prehistory in the study of other prehistoric hunter gatherer societies From the Ochres of Mungo Marji Hill,Neil McLeod,1984 Overview of traditional themes forms and styles from earliest archaeological evidence including body painting woodcarving sculpture basketry baobab nut carving stone arrangement to modern innovations in pottery painting in European tradition and silk screen printing Islands, Islanders and the World Tim Bayliss-Smith,Richard Bedford,Harold Brookfield,2006-11-02 Fiji is a country whose recent political instability can be directly traced to its distinctive colonial and post colonial experience For one particular region of Fiji the authors examine the environmental social and economic aspects of this experience at scales ranging from national and regional to island village and household Discussions in Third World geography regional economics and development planning have been full of rhetoric about underdevelopment centre periphery relations and dependency but seldom are the actual processes which give rise to these phenomena examined in detail In this book the authors explore in depth the interrelations between the island landscape the cultural geography of the islanders and the intrusive values and opportunities of the market economy Some important lessons are to be learnt from the gap between what might be predicted from abstract theories of development and what is actually happening in the real world of politicians planners farmers and fishermen Unsettling the Word Heinrichs, Steve,2019-02-20 For generations the Bible has been employed by settler colonial societies as a weapon to dispossess Indigenous and racialized peoples of their lands cultures and spiritualities Given this devastating legacy many want nothing to do with it But is it possible for the exploited and their allies to reclaim the Bible from the dominant powers In Unsettling the Word over 60 Indigenous and Settler authors come together to wrestle with the Scriptures re imagining the ancient text for the sake of reparative futures Made in Africa Steve Webb,2018-05-07 Made in Africa Hominin Explorations and the Australian Skeletal Evidence

describes and documents the largest collection of modern human remains in the world from its time period These Australian fossils which represent modern humans at the end of their great 20 000 km journey from Africa may be reburied in the next two years at the request of the Aboriginal community Part one of the book provides an overview of modern humans their ancestors and their journeys explores the construct of human evolution over the last two and half million years and defines the background to the first hominins and later modern humans to leave Africa cross the world and meet other archaic peoples who had also travelled and undergone similar evolutionary pathways Part two focuses on Australia and the evidence for its earliest people The Willandra Lakes fossils represent the earliest arrivals and are the largest and most diverse late Pleistocene collection from this part of the world Although twenty to twenty five thousand years younger than the oldest archaeological site in Australia they exemplify the migrating end point of the human story that reflect a diversity and culture not recorded elsewhere in the world Part three records the Willandra Lake Collection itself from a photographic and descriptive perspective Evolutionary biologists and geneticists will find this book to be a valuable documentation of the 20 000 km hominid migration from Africa to the most distant parts of the world and of the challenges and findings of the Willandra Lake Collection Provides perspective for dispersal of the earliest hominins from Africa and the possible routes they took Describes both the evolutionary development and demographic exit of intermediate and modern humans from Africa and incorporates the final stages of modern human migrations Provides a full documentation of the Willandra Lakes skeletal collection and its place in developing a picture of the earliest as well as later Aboriginal Australians

Arts Programming for the Anthropocene Bill Gilbert, Anicca Cox, 2018-11-21 Arts Programming for the Anthropocene argues for a role for the arts as an engaged professional practice in contemporary culture charting the evolution of arts over the previous half century from a primarily solitary practice involved with its own internal dialogue to one actively seeking a larger discourse The chapters investigate the origin and evolution of five academic field programs on three continents mapping developments in field pedagogy in the arts over the past twenty years Drawing upon the collective experience of artists and academicians in the United States Australia and Greece operating in a wide range of social and environmental contexts it makes the case for the necessity of an update to ensure the real world relevance and applicability of tertiary arts education Based on thirty years of experimentation in arts pedagogy including the creation of the Land Arts of the American West LAAW program and Art and Ecology discipline at the University of New Mexico this book is written for arts practitioners aspiring artists art educators and those interested in how the arts can contribute to strengthening cultural resiliency in the face of rapid environmental change

Mungo Mungo Wentworth MacCallum, 2001 Mungo MacCallum was one of the wittiest political journalists to chronicle the brief golden age of Gough Whitlam's period as Prime Minister of Australia MacCallum became one of the most influential political chroniclers writing consistently entertaining material on Australian Federal politics
