Petty Crimes:

Petty Crimes Gary Soto, 1998 A collection of short stories about Mexican American youth growing up in California's Central Valley The Soviet System of Justice: Figures and Policy Ger P. van den Berg, 2024-09-02 Diversion and Informal Social Control Günter Albrecht, Wolfgang Ludwig-Mayerhofer, 2011-11-30 No detailed description available for Diversion and Informal Social Control An Introduction to Crime and Crime Causation Robert C. Winters, Julie L. Globokar, Cliff Roberson, 2014-06-26 An Introduction to Crime and Crime Causation is a student friendly textbook that defines and explains the concepts of crime criminal law and criminology Ideal for a one semester course the book compares and contrasts early criminal behavior and today's modern forms of crime It also explores society's responses to criminal behavior in the past and in the present day It covers both major and lesser known crime causation theories and their impact on society Topics covered include The importance of understanding crime data The goals of punishment The history of criminology including the influence of social Darwinism on early trait theorists Crime causation theories including a comparison of mainstream and critical theories The relationship between crime and biology including the influence of genetics substance use and mental illness The social structural approach to crime including a consideration of the changing contexts of urban criminality The nature and function of the justice system at the local state and federal levels and basic categories of crimes Drug trafficking crimes drug court efforts and perceived weaknesses in current antidrug efforts Each chapter begins with a set of objectives and concludes with a summary Interactive questions promote classroom discussion and practicum sections facilitate contextual learning Drawn from different and distinct backgrounds the authors each have unique perspectives on crime making for a particularly well rounded text that explores crime from several angles The book attempts to educate readers in the development of new insights on crime and crime causation and provides a greater understanding of the steps that need to be taken before a significant reduction in crime can occur Changes in Society, Crime and Criminal Justice in Europe C. J. C. F. Fijnaut, Johan Goethals, 1995 In 1994 the School of Criminology a part of the Department of Criminal Law Criminal Procedure and Criminology in the Faculty of Law of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven celebrated the 25th anniversary of its study programme To give added lustre to this landmark in its history the Institute accepted the invitation from the International Society of Criminology to organise the 49th International Course of Criminology The title of the course was Changes in Society Crime and Criminal Justice in Europe A challenge for criminological education and research This course explored two themes both of which are likely to be the focus of debate in criminal policy in the near future crime and insecurity in the city and international organised and corporate crime The presentation and discussion of both themes followed two main approaches Lectures and seminars focused on the analysis of the nature the quantity and the development of the phenomena and meetings were focused on the policy needed to gain control of these phenomena Moreover attention was paid to technical and ethical problems which show up at the moment that empirical research is carried out This publication brings together the main part of the introductory lectures Part one relates to the theme of crime and insecurity in the city the second part contains the lectures on international organised and corporate crime Together both parts present a good picture of what was explained and commented on during the Course especially in relation to important European developments concerning crime criminal justice and criminal policy This book will become an important source of inspiration for both criminological education and research

Crime Prevention in the Urban Community Koichi Miyazawa, Setsuo Miyazawa, 2023-09-20 One of today's most pressing issues in criminology and crime prevention is the problem of crime in our cities and towns and its prevention The topic of crime prevention in the Urban Community was discussed at the 47th International Course of the International Society for Criminology ISC held at Chuo University Tokyo It was the very first time such an ISC meeting was held in Asia and this meant that finally a relatively large number of Japanese and other Asian participants were able to express their views on criminal policy and crime prevention in urban centres all over the world Crime in urban communities is not an exclusively Western phenomenon but it is also a considerable problem in other parts of the world This makes an interchange of ideas between Western Eastern and Third World criminologists particularly important General characteristics of the urban communities that suffer from a high crime rate are ethnic and racial tensions a mix of old housing areas and new business districts a prevailing sense of anonymity slums and juvenile delinquency The existence of these general characteristics besides mutual differences makes cooperation in the crime prevention sphere definitely worth the effort

Pockets of Crime Peter K. B. St. Jean, 2008-09-15 Why even in the same high crime neighborhoods do robbery drug dealing and assault occur much more frequently on some blocks than on others One popular theory is that a weak sense of community among neighbors can create conditions more hospitable for criminals and another proposes that neighborhood disorder such as broken windows and boarded up buildings makes crime more likely But in his innovative new study Peter K B St Jean argues that we cannot fully understand the impact of these factors without considering that because urban space is unevenly developed different kinds of crimes occur most often in locations that offer their perpetrators specific advantages Drawing on Chicago Police Department statistics and extensive interviews with both law abiding citizens and criminals in one of the city's highest crime areas St Jean demonstrates that drug dealers and robbers for example are primarily attracted to locations with businesses like liquor stores fast food restaurants and check cashing outlets By accounting for these important factors of spatial positioning he expands upon previous research to provide the most comprehensive explanation available of why crime occurs where it does

Crime, Justice and Retribution in the American West, 1850-1900 Jeremy Agnew, 2017-03-31 Western movies are full of images of swaggering outlaws brought to justice by valiant lawmen shooting them down in daring gunfights before riding off into the sunset In reality it would not have happened that way Real lawmen did not simply walk away from a gunfight they had to face the legal system and justify shooting a civilian in the line of duty Providing a more realistic view of criminal justice in the Old West this history focuses on how criminals came into conflict with the law and how the law responded The process is described in detail from the common crimes of the day such as train robbery and cattle theft to the methods of apprehending criminals to their adjudication and punishment by incarceration flogging or hanging The Reinvention of Policing William R. Kelly, Daniel P.

Mears, 2023-07-03 Written in an accessible style this book provides a historically grounded critique of American policing and offers implementable solutions providing students a comprehensive understanding of modern policing Contemporary policing is in crisis a situation that has led to persistent calls to reform it Unfortunately many proposed solutions focus on piecemeal changes that ignore a fundamental problem policing relies on a largely reactive approach that does not in any systematic or comprehensive way focus on crime prevention Most of what the police do such as responding to 911 calls for service and employing directed patrols or hot spots policing fails to address the causes of crime Compounding this problem is the absence of any institution or agency charged with prioritizing the prevention of crime and for ensuring that police efforts support this goal A central distinguishing feature of this book is its comprehensive approach and the emphasis on policing as part of a much broader set of changes that must occur both to improve policing and to improve public safety and justice This approach includes retaining what works eliminating what does not drawing on evidence based policy from around the world and creating systemic changes that institutionalize better policing accountability and evaluation processes for ensuring that the police are effective The Reinvention of Policing can be used in courses focused on policing policy and practice specifically when discussing the nature of policing how policing may reflect and contribute to inequality and injustice or how it might improve these social problems Ethnicity, Race, and Crime Darnell F. Hawkins, 1995-02-16 This book examines both historical and contemporary patterns of crime and justice among white ethnics and nonwhite racial groups in the United States Researchers have long noted that rates of reported crime and punishment are higher for some ethnic and racial groups in the U S than for others Comparatively high rates of crime have been reported for white ethnic Americans during the past and some groups of racial minorities today These observations have prompted much public debate and acrimony but surprisingly little research Contributors include Thomas A Regulus Joan McCord M Craig Brown and Barbara D Warner Eric Monkkonen E M Beck and Stewart E Tolnay Martha A Myers Gary LaFree Robert D Crutchfield Dorothy Lockwood Anne E Pottieger and James A Inciardi William Chambliss Coramae Richey Mann Theodore G Chiricos and Charles Crawford Zoann Snyder Joy Roland Chilton Raymond Teske and Harald Arnold Pamela Irving Jackson and Darnell F Hawkins Some Notes on Negro Crime, Particularly in Georgia William Edward Burghardt Du Bois, 1904 Kenya National Assembly Official Crime and Punishment around the World Graeme R. Newman, 2010-10-19 This comprehensive detailed account explores crime and punishment throughout the world through the eyes of leading experts local authors and scholars and government officials It is a subject as old as civil society yet one that still fuels debate Now the many and varied aspects of that subject are brought together in the four volume Crime and Punishment around the World This unprecedented work provides descriptions of crimes and the justice systems that define and punish them in more than 200 nations principalities and dependencies Each chapter examines the historical political and cultural background as well as the basic organization of the subject state's legal and criminal justice system It also reports on the types and levels of crime the processes leading to the finding of guilt the rights of the accused alternatives to going to trial how suspects are prosecuted for their crimes and the techniques and conditions of typical punishments employed

Comprising a study that is at once extraordinarily comprehensive and minutely detailed the essays collected here showcase the variety and the universality of crime and punishment the world over Facts and Artifacts of the Society Ms. Arunima Dhar, Dr. Pallavi Mitra, 2023-03-27 The volume Facts and Artifacts of Society is an assemblage of revealing the work of a group of professionals from multidisciplinary backgrounds to understand society It intends to justify the spectral dimension of society through a professional lens and provides an exciting opportunity to clarify fundamental concepts of contemporary society In recent context this joint venture of professionals is of extrinsic value in promoting the well being and prosperity of all in our society Each of the chapters in this book is an independent effort to bring out an in depth understanding of that particular aspect The first section focuses on understanding society the second section reflects the social construct of our society the third section made an effort in bringing out the environmental issues the fourth section pulls our attention to women s studies the fifth section emphasizes child care and protection the sixth section highlights the physical and mental health aspects in the correctional setting the seventh section focused on aspects of mental health and substance abuse and the eighth section focused on few other vulnerable issues like homosexuality and the dissonance of migration The book unfolds a few key areas to make it valuable for analysing our society especially for those who want to make satisfactory contributions to society Since few of the topics are complex while few are having limited literature Thus the current volume may be helpful building blocks for the academicians researchers professionals and policymakers etc who closely work with the issues or the society at large society Understanding Torture J. Jeremy Wisniewski, 2010-09-13 Understanding Torture surveys the massive literature surrounding torture arguing that once properly understood there can be no defense of torture in any circumstances Report of police administration in the N.-W. Provinces North-western provinces, 1862 Report of Administration of the Police ... North-Western Provinces and Oudh. Police, Office of Inspector General, 1871
