Shea,2005-05-20 Growing out of two decades of teaching and practice Finding God Again Spirituality for Adults addresses in an experiential and pastoral way the need to re envision God as we grow from an adolescent to adult spirituality John Shea a renowned pastoral counselor and teacher shows how we can lose touch with religion spirituality and a belief in God because of times when our image of God is too narrow unreal or inadequate to make sense of our experience Shea uses real life stories to illustrate and offer a life changing challenge to leave behind the Superego God of childhood in favor of a Living God we can relate to as adults By showing the reader how to revisit God as an adult Shea provides the motivation and method to embrace a Living God and claim the independence and responsibility that accompany genuine adulthood Being Church John F. Alexander,2012-07-01 What modern church doesn't call itself a community Yet for how many is it real How many churches form disciples intimately connected enough to call themselves Christ's body How many form disciples who know the relational arts that create a robust unity How many form disciples practiced in the ways of sacrificial love Pastor John Alexander a thirty year veteran of living in Christian communities yearns for all the wonder and promise of the New Testament vision of church to come true After struggling with Scripture in live together church communities he shares the Scriptural practices and wisdom that make for an authentic sustainable and joyful life together For any person or church wanting to move beyond the cliché of community to the radical vision of the New Testament this book is an invaluable guide Sacramental Ministry to a Diverse Generation Margaret L. Black,1997-07 This book explores the diversity and controversy surround the sacramental celebrations of adults of the Baby Boom generation This work will prove especially helpful for those involved in parish ministry and religious education and will be an important tool for anyone involved in sacramental preparation and celebration in today's parish 7 Keys to Spiritual Wellness Joe Paprocki,2012-02-01 In 7 Keys to Spiritual Wellness best selling author Joe Paprocki provides a prescription for spiritual health based on the rich wisdom of Catholic Tradition Through his nondogmatic downright inviting style of writing Paprocki makes this book eminently accessible to non Catholics and seekers as well Recognizing that the spiritual immune system is weakened almost daily by toxic patterns and attitudes that negatively impact our ability to live in a harmonious relationship with God and others Paprocki offers seven enduring and reliable strategies for achieving spiritual wellness After identifying practical ways to integrate each of these strategies into daily living he describes seven persistent dangers to our spiritual well being and how these dangers manifest themselves in our lives At its core 7 Keys to Spiritual Wellness helps us see the Christian faith not as a collection of rules and doctrine but as a spiritual path a path whose guideposts for spiritual wellness are sure to lead us to a more meaningful life and to a much richer experience of our faith God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One

Jeff B. Pool,2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation God's Wounds Jeff B Pool,2011-07-28 God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Volume I Divine Vulnerability and Creation is the first of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry on the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely The goal is then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God In this first volume the author develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Through this approach to the Christian symbol of divine suffering he then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation Faith, Religion &

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool, 2010-01-01 This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human's infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice

Belonging Dennis Linn, Sheila Fabricant Linn, Matthew Linn, 1993 From their own recovery the authors discovered that the best way to change ourselves is to change our image of God Recovery is then rooted in finding a healthier more authentic way of belonging Pointing the way to new depths of hope and personal resources of inner healing the Linns honest generous and intimate sharing is at times painful but always liberating

The Church, The Gospel and Culture John Thornhill, 2024-10-31 John Thornhill 1929 2019 born in Brisbane Australia was educated at Marist Brothers Ashgrove and St John's College Woodlawn NSW After entering the Society of Mary Marist Fathers he was chosen for doctoral studies and ordained in Rome in 1955 John's life was mainly in theological ministry in teaching and guiding seminary students as an author theological consultant and in Adult Faith Education He was in turn Superior of the Marist Seminary Director of Sydney's Aquinas Academy a member of the Provincial Council He published books and many articles He had a special interest in the Church Christology the faith culture relationship all within an overall pastoral framework This collection of articles captures the scope and development of his theological concerns over many years Especially valuable and illuminating is the opening chapter in which we are invited to share with John as he reflects on his theological journey John Thornhill SM was one of Australia's most distinguished and respected theologians known and loved for his dedication to the Catholic community his gentleness and kindness and his zeal for the Gospel Apart from his several books including Sign and Promise A Theology of the Church for a Changing World 1988 and Making Australia Exploring Our National Conversation 1992 John contributed many articles to theological debate and Thomas Ryan SM and ATF Press have done us and John's legacy a fine service in gathering together some of these articles in this volume The essays collected here bear witness to key concerns of John's theological and pastoral work the centrality of Jesus and his Gospel the proclamation of the good news to Christian faith ecumenism including a grateful recognition of Protestantism's emphasis on the Gospel of salvation awareness of cultural and historical circumstances and the imperative for the Church to understand and creatively respond to the concrete contexts that its members inhabit the centrality of Scripture to Christian faith and the importance of a theology of Scripture in the life of the Church a theology that engages at the highest intellectual level with key currents of thought and as an open orthodoxy is receptive to whatever is true and life giving in them This collection reveals the heart of John's theological vocation to bring thought and scholarship to the service of believers to enable the Gospel to come alive in their midst John's Marist charism emphasises a quiet receptive presence to God in these articles we are given some of the fruits of his own attentive presence for the sake of serving and accompanying the pilgrim Church

Good Goats Dennis Linn, Sheila Fabricant Linn, Matthew Linn, 1994 Through a blending of story scripture and theology this book tackles questions of sin hell vengeance in such a way that readers are led to transformation and healing

Tomorrow's Catholic Michael Morwood, 1997 Tomorrow's Catholic offers a fascinating outline of contemporary cosmology that connects the message of Jesus and the spirituality of Pentecost to the world we live in today A special focus is on expressing ancient truths in contemporary language

Christian Perspectives on Human Development LeRoy Aden, David G. Benner, J. Harold Ellens, 1992 Psychologists speculate how midlife change affects an individual This book seeks a Christian horizon for life cycle theories Contributors represent professional and theological diversity but all pursue a spiritual dimension that counselors can apply to help people
