African Youth and the Persistence of Marginalization Danielle Resnick, James Thurlow, 2015-04-10 The much heralded growth and transformation of many economies in sub Saharan Africa over the last decade continues to receive prominent attention in academic scholarship and among policy practitioners An apparent feature about this transformation however is that Africa s youth appear to have been left out This book critically examines the extent and consequences of the marginalization of African youth It questions conventional wisdoms about data trends aspirational goals and common policy interventions surrounding Africa s youth that have been variously propagated in both the development studies literature and in mainstream donor policy reports The book explores macro trends from both a temporal and cross regional perspective in order to highlight what is distinct about contemporary African youth and whether their prospects and behaviours do actually vary from their counterparts in other regions of the world or from previous generations of African youth Such studies include cross country analyses of youth employment patterns and modes of political participation in depth examination of the behaviours and aspirations of the urban youth and critical reflections on the impact of rural employment initiatives vocational education and learnership programmes The incorporation of multiple methods and disciplines as well as its attention to policy issues ensures that the book will be of great interest to graduate students researchers and professional researchers whose work lies at the intersection of African area studies and development studies as well as those focused on development economics political science and public policy and administration

Migration in the Service of African Development John O. Oucho,2012-12-19 Fifteen chapters are included here in this compendium in honour of the Nigerian migration scholar Professor Aderanti Adepoju Though the authors come from diverse disciplinary backgrounds geography demography sociology and law they all work within the fields of internal and international migration in Africa Chapters on Uganda Kenya Botswana Nigeria and Mali are devoted to aspects of internal migration while those on African emigration to Mexico and migration between Burkina Faso and C te d Ivoire address various aspects of international migration Migration issues in relation to women students and climate change are also discussed

Migration and Development Ronald Skeldon,2014-09-19 The first text that specifically links both international and internal migration with development at a global level The world is divided into a series of functionally integrated development zones which are identified not simply on the basis of their level of development but also through their spatial patterns and historical experience of migration Migration and Development stresses the importance of migration in discussing regional rather than simply country differences These variations in mobility are placed within the context of a global hierarchy although regional national and local cultural and social conditions are certainly not ignored in this wide ranging work

Population redistribution in Africa

John Innes Clarke, 1978 A Modern Economic History of Africa: The nineteenth century Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, 1997
 The nineteenth century in Africa was a time of revolution and tumultuous change in virtually all spheres Violent dry spells the staggered abolition of the slave trade mass migrations and an influx of new settlers characterized the century Regional trade links grew stronger and spread further The century also saw the beginnings of the ruthless and bloody quest for foreign dominion Health and Health Care in Developing Countries Peter Conrad, Eugene B. Gallagher, 2011 The volume covers a range of areas central Africa Nigeria Singapore Taiwan Indonesia Nepal China United Arab Emirates Oman and Mexico and a broad scope of topics from emergency care the AIDS epidemic and women's health care to public health programs and national health care policies Contributors address the central question of whether health systems in developing areas should emphasize the role of clinical medicine and individual physicians or community and preventive medical resources The major health problems faced by these societies inadequate sanitation infectious disease high infant child mortality and a lack of family planning indicate the greater need for health educators and public health workers despite many poor nations desire for Western doctors Other topics that are examined include the process of seeking medical aid the relationship between traditional and modern medicines medical education hospital care and communication between doctors and patients in developing countries and the relevance and application of sociology in Third World settings This volume seeks to draw attention to the significance of medical sociology for understanding Third World health problems and to show how examining developing societies may necessitate reframing or modifying some Western sociological notions An Advanced Geography of Africa John Innes Clarke, 1975 People and Education in the Third World W. T. S Gould, 2014-09-25 This text examines education and its role in Third World development Amongst the areas covered are the private and public demand for education global patterns of education the geography of educational provision the school and the community and education and population growth Survey of Economic and Social Conditions in Africa United Nations. Economic Commission for Africa, 1981 Demographic Methods and Concepts Donald T. Rowland, 2003-04-17 Demographic Methods and Concepts makes accessible the most commonly needed techniques for working with population statistics irrespective of the reader's mathematical background For the first time in such a text concepts and practical strategies needed in the interpretation of demographic indices and data are included Spreadsheet training exercises enable students to acquire the computer skills needed for demographic work The accompanying free CD ROM contains innovative fully integrated learning modules as well as applications facilitating demographic studies Faces of Environmental Racism Laura Westra, Bill E. Lawson, 2001 Through case studies that highlight the type of information that is seldom reported in the news Faces of Environmental Racism exposes the type and magnitude of environmental racism both domestic and international The essays explore the justice of current environmental practices asking such questions as whether cost benefit analysis is an appropriate analytic technique and whether there are alternate routes to sustainable development in the South
