The Comparative Study of Traditional Asian Literatures Vladimir Braginsky, 2013-10-11 This book represents the first ever published introduction to the comparative study of traditional Asian literatures embracing three vast literary zones Arab Islamic Indo South East Asian and Sino Far Eastern The aim of the book is to outline the main properties of Asian literatures in the period of reflective traditionalism the early centuries CE to the first half of the 19th century when the creation of a vast body of aesthetically significant works was coupled with the emergence of literary self awareness when the nature of the creative process the poetics and functions of the literary works and the ways of their influence on the reader were thoroughly comprehended and committed to writing for the first time The book is intended for specialists in Asian literatures comparative literature and literary theory and for students of these topics

Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character's story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link.springer.com Russian and American Poetry of Experiment Vladimir

Feshchenko, 2023-07-17 An experiment with language Is it an object cultivated in poetic laboratories where entry is locked for mere mortals And what do language scholars think about it Specialists in language and literature studies interested in linguistic innovation and experimental poetry will find answers to these questions in Vladimir Feshchenko's book The study investigates various strategies of radical linguistic creativity in Russian and American experimental writing of the 20th century and explores cases of contemporary language oriented and trans language poetry It is a comparative examination of two national avant garde cultures but also a juxtaposition of the relationships that Russian and American avant garde poetics had with linguistic ideas of their times The monograph may serve as a wonderful introduction to the entire field of linguistic poetics of the avant garde The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature Joe Bray, Alison Gibbons, Brian

McHale, 2012-07-26 What is experimental literature How has experimentation affected the course of literary history and how is it shaping literary expression today Literary experiment has always been diverse and challenging but never more so than in our age of digital media and social networking when the very category of the literary is coming under intense pressure How will literature reconfigure itself in the future The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature maps this expansive and multifaceted field with essays on the history of literary experiment from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present the impact of new media on literature including multimodal literature digital fiction and code poetry the development of experimental genres from graphic narratives and found poetry through to gaming and interactive fiction experimental movements from Futurism and Surrealism to Postmodernism Avant Pop and Flarf Shedding new light on often critically neglected terrain the contributors introduce this vibrant area define its current state and offer exciting new perspectives on its future This volume is the ideal introduction for those approaching the study of experimental literature for the first time or looking to further their knowledge 2011 Poet's Market Robert Lee Brewer, 2010-07-19 The Must Have Resource for Every Wordsworth and the Poetry of Human Suffering James H. Averill, 2019-06-30 Murderers crazed widows beggars betrayed women such are the pitiful figures who appear throughout Wordsworth's early narrative poetry Analyzing the poet's use of pathos from the two volumes of Lyrical Ballads through the completion of The Prelude James H Averill argues that for Wordsworth the poetry of human life is inevitably the poetry of anguish and loss Averill examines the relation of the poet to his human subjects exploring the questions of tragic response and sentimental morality the literary uses of human misery and the pleasures of tragedy In Wordsworth and the Poetry of Human Suffering James H Averill enriches our understanding and our appreciation of the peculiar power of Wordsworth's poetic vision

The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry Farshad Sonboldel, 2024-02-08 An analysis of the aesthetic cultural and political aspects of alternative poetic movements and individual poets in three periods the Constitutional Revolution 1900 1920 the post constitutional era 1920 1940 and the ascendancy of modernism 1940 1960 Farshad Sonboldel shines new light on the history of modern Persian poetry by re imagining the roles that the aesthetic experimentations of alternative poets played in different phases of the literary revolution in modern Persian poetry Dominant narratives portray modern Persian poetry as a gradual rational and moderate change in the classical regime of aesthetics as well as a response to and reflection of cultural and socio political changes within Iranian society They also disregard the significance of radical experiments by alternative poets and undervalue the part they played in the initiation and progress of the so called literary revolution These mainstream narratives minimize the socio political engagement of literary works with the direct reflection of the social reality and thus neglect the way many alternative poems struggle with socio political issues through deconstructing the old and constructing new aesthetic systems Each chapter of The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry is centred around poems chosen for their potential to showcase notable experiments of pioneer movements and individuals in each given period Examining the formal and thematic aspects of these poems this book reformulates the story of modern Persian poetry and unravels the relationship between radical aesthetic changes in the practice of poetry and resistance against political and cultural domination in society
