Reflections From Norway Til Now:

Norwegian Perspectives on Education and Cultural Diversity Lars Anders Kulbrandstad, Sidsel Lied, Garry Robson, 2018-11-12 This collection of articles utilises thematic orientations methodological approaches and data materials to give an insight into the opportunities and challenges that exist for education in society in relation to the growing cultural and linguistic complexity that exists. It is written by researchers at Inland Norway University of Applied Sciences in Norway and while the book is anchored in a specific Norwegian educational cultural and political context it addresses issues that would be of interest to an international academic audience. Norway Knut Heidar, 2000-12-29 A discussion of the political system of Norway focusing on political parties democracy and accountability in one of the richest countries in the world that still is anchored in an egalitarian culture with a strong local base and facing the challenge of a dynamic Europeization process.

Reflections Olav Klepp, 2002-09-12 Wars hate bloodshed and savage events started in Iraq and the Middle East more than 1 400 years ago long before the discovery of America and the establishing of the United States of America. The hate culture had been the real problem in the Middle East for hundreds of years. Certainly it is not the USA even in the case of the Arab Israel conflict in modern history. It is well known that the various American administrations tried to find a peaceful end to this conflict. Unfortunately the Arab leaders always give the public an impression that they are very close to defeating Israel and they put the blame for not doing it on the USA. The Arab leaders and the media ignore that the Israelis have had nuclear weapons since the 60s. Only a naive person would think that the Israeli people will follow the steps of the crusaders by boarding ships and leaving the Middle East. The Israelis will not keep their nuclear weapons in boxes and leave asking the Arab leaders to dust them occasionally. They will use them to defend their existence and a new map for the Middle East will emerge. The Arab government officials still cannot see that Iran Syria and its associates in Iraq and Lebanon are the enemy and the real threat to them and the whole world. The Iranians used thousands of twelve year old Iranian Muslim children to walk through the mine fields to clear the way for the regular Iranian military forces during the Iran Iraq war. Also they used chemical weapons political assassinations and international terrorism. The hate culture directed toward Israel along with the corruption oppression and all other aspects of the hate culture cloud the judgment of the Arab officials and the public.

Trusting in Higher Education Paul Gibbs, Peter Maassen, 2022-02-07 This multidisciplinary book brings together scholars from Norway and the UK to discuss the notion of trust within the structures and forms of higher education located in two distinctive localities. The meaning of trust is multi variant and nuanced but is omnipresent in the literature on higher education ranging from student engagement to policy exhortations. A key feature of this book is the effort to integrate the term trust conceptually functionally and phenomenological more generally as well as within the context of higher education. Practice from within Norway and the UK is used to illustrate and expose relevant similarities and varieties in trust and the possible lack of it within the sector. The book thus faces the complexity of trust and its distinctive manifestation through a

Nøding, Mona Ringvej, 2015-06-24 Periodicals were an essential medium during eighteenth century Enlightenment The era's growing number of newspapers and journals made possible a fast and vast dissemination of ideas and debates Journals were a particularly important means of transmitting ideas genres texts and pieces of information from country to country from centre to periphery and from press to subscribers These journals became agents of change by mediating the increasingly profound and widespread urge to write and read and to engage in political debate This volume edited by Ellen Krefting Aina Nøding and Mona Ringvej presents contributions that explore this media revolution from a Northern perspective The chapters throw new light on the reception of Enlightenment ideas and practices in Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and beyond Taken together they make a strong case for the transnational and revolutionary character of the Enlightenment as a whole

Northbound Karen Klitgaard Povlsen, 2007 In this book a group of 16 scholars from Denmark Norway Sweden Iceland Greenland Finland Germany and the USA explore the changes that had taken place in the conception of the North during the 18th century changes that were a symptom of an ambivalent understanding of the North vis à vis the South From antiquity to Montesquieu the North could be considered a Dystopia and a Utopia a barbaric margin of Europe but also an area of freedom natural strength and robust women who were any man's equal The book drawing on travel accounts of the period is thus historical but it is conceived under the optics of modern multiculturalism and cultural clashes The study encompasses areas ranging from botany and geography to Nordic literature and language to science and the arts The book will appeal to students and scholars in the interdisciplinary fields of literary studies cultural studies anthropology history and most

Boulding,2016-11-21 This volume honors the lifetime achievement of distinguished activist and scholar Elise Boulding 1920 2010 on the occasion of her 96th birthday Known as the matriarch of the twentieth century peace research movement she made significant contributions in the fields of peace education future studies feminism and sociology of the family as well as serving as a prominent leader in the peace movement and the Society of Friends She taught at the University of Colorado Boulder from 1967 to 1978 and at Dartmouth College from 1978 to 1985 and was instrumental in the development of peace studies programs at both those institutions She was a co founder of the International Peace Research Association 1964 the Consortium on Peace Research Education and Development 1970 and various peace and women s issue related committees and working groups of the American Sociological Association and International Sociological Association      Chambers's

Encyclopaedia ,1973      What Works Now? Boaz, Annette,Davies, Huw,2019-03-27 Building substantially on the earlier landmark text What Works Policy Press 2000 this book brings together key thinkers and researchers to provide a contemporary review of the aspirations and realities of evidence informed policy and practice The text is clearly structured and provides sector by sector analysis of evidence use in policy making and service delivery It considers some cross cutting themes including a section of international commentaries and concludes by looking at lessons from the past and prospects for the future This book will be of interest to a wide range of social science researchers students and practitioners as well as those interested in supporting more evidence informed policy and practice      From Antiquities to Heritage Anne

Eriksen,2014-05-01 Eighteenth century gentleman scholars collected antiquities Nineteenth century nation states built museums to preserve their historical monuments In the present world heritage is a global concern as well as an issue of identity politics What does it mean when runic stones or medieval churches are transformed from antiquities to monuments to heritage sites This book argues that the transformations concern more than words alone They reflect fundamental changes in the way we experience the past and the way historical objects are assigned meaning and value in the present This book presents a series of cases from Norwegian culture to explore how historical objects and sites have changed in meaning over time It contributes to the contemporary debates over collective memory and cultural heritage as well to our knowledge about early modern antiquarianism      Cheap Print and the People David Atkinson,Steve Roud,2019-06-17 In every country across Europe at some point or other during the last five hundred years cheap printed materials were the staple diet of ordinary people providing a rich array of entertainment education and information They came in various forms but were usually variations on the theme of single sheets or simple booklets and they were carried far and wide in pedlars packs and sold in the streets at fairs and markets and wherever crowds gathered as well as in backstreet shops Their content was as broad as can be imagined news and scandal crimes and last dying confessions of murderers divinations instructional works wonder stories miracles folktales and legends love stories celebrations of national victories and lamentations for the good old days They were often couched in the form of poetry or song and included pictures in the form of woodcuts and engravings to add to their appeal In every country across Europe governments and local and religious authorities tried at times to suppress or control these cheap printed materials Sometimes too the authorities would adopt the format of cheap print to spread their own moral and conformist messages The educated elites almost always treated cheap print with disdain but the people continued to buy these items in their tens of thousands and the printers knew exactly what they wanted Neglected and reviled for centuries cheap print shines a light on the culture and lives of ordinary people This is the first volume to take a pan European perspective with each chapter detailing the experience of a particular country or region offering the reader the opportunity to progress from the particular to a continent wide overview This combination of the ubiquity of the materials and overarching themes with the variations wrought by local circumstances can be summed up in the phrase always the same but everywhere different
