Reflections Of New York:

Theological Reflections at the Boundaries Paul O. Ingram, 2011-11-04 The interdependence of boundary questions and the experience of cognitive dissonance reveal that knowledge in all fields of inquiry is always incomplete and tentative The issues are particularly acute for Christian theological reflection Ingram illustrates the importance of boundary questions and cognitive dissonance as a means of creatively transforming contemporary Christian theological reflection through dialogue with the natural sciences and the world's religions particularly Buddhism filtered through the lenses of Whiteheadian process philosophy

Theological Reflections Elaine Graham, 2013-01-08 Following the same topics as the Methods volume this reader is aimed at postgraduates and academics interested in the expanding volume of work and research surrounding theological reflection Brought together in this second volume are materials relating to the same topics and dealt with by the same divisions descriptions and features The identified models being The Living Human Document Constructive Narrative Theology Canonical Narrative Theology Corporate Theological Reflection The Correlative Method Performative or Praxis Theological Reflection and Theology in the Vernacular or local theologies Volume one described and identified the various models whilst this new second volume fleshes out these descriptions by allowing the reader access to a variety of sources and examples of writings within these models

Practicing Critical Reflection in Social Care Organisations Jan Fook, 2021-09-09 This book explores concrete examples of different strategies and activities aimed at creating and embedding critically reflective learning and working environments within organisations whose prime function is social care Critical reflection has long been recommended as a general professional skill and is a core component of the practice capabilities in social work in countries across the Western world However despite unequivocal support for it in social work education sustaining critical reflection within organisations as both an individual and collective practices supported by organisational cultures is problematic With contributions from social work practitioners and educators who have sought to embed critical reflection into broader activities and cultures within their organizations the book addresses common features of critical reflection and challenges and benefits in specific case studies This book will inspire and develop new thinking and vision about being critically reflective in organisations and facilitate efforts to improve the learning and working experience in addition to that of service quality and delivery It will be required reading for all undergraduate and postgraduate social work modules focusing on management leadership organizational change and professional education

Reflections of New York Pamela Thomas, 1991

SCM Studyguide: Theological Reflection Judith Thompson, Stephen Pattison, 2018-02-28 Since it was first published the SCM Studyguide to Theological Reflection has quickly gained a reputation for being a vital and accessible guide to the subject for all who embark on it for the first time This studyguide offers newcomers a step by step introduction to understanding what theological reflection is and helps them to explore which of the methods introduced best suits them and their particular situation It is practical in emphasis providing students with a wide variety of worked examples and opportunities to carry out their own exercises This 2nd edition will bring the content up to date offering a revised and improved bibliography and updated and refreshed examples and exercises including new sections on scriptural reasoning and contemplative theology

SUPERSERVANT LEADER Fr. P. Amah (PhD),2012-09-21 Ken Blanchard from Servant Leadership Revisited With the traditional pyramid the boss is always responsible and the staff are supposed to be responsive to the boss When you turn the pyramid upside down those roles get reversed Your people become responsible and the job of management is to be responsive to their people That creates a very different environment for implementation If you work for your people then what is the purpose of being a manager To help them accomplish their goals Your job is to help them win Shann Ray Ferch PhD Professor of Leadership Gonzaga University In an elegant and evocative rendering of the life of one of the world's great servant leaders Edeh Dr Amah has given us a glimpse of global servant leadership and a true vision of the kind of leaders we need to help heal the heart of the world Dr Amah's book is a resource with global implications and with the honesty and tenderness that move us forward as human beings and that restore us to the deepest and most vital expressions of our collective humanity In envisioning for us the life and impact of Emmanuel Edeh Nigerian and global servant leader Dr Amah gives hope to the people of every continent and in fact helps us reach as global citizens for one another in hope and love and good service This hope is established first in the person then the collective and finally the world Peter Amah has given us a guide to that hope and placed in our hands the gift that leads us from the despair of the past to a future graced by discernment and love

Christian Antisemitism William Nicholls,1993 the Romans not the Jews were the Christ killers In Part I Before the Myth Nicholls explores the life of Jesus and his teachings as found in the New Testament Was Jesus the founder of Christianity Did he offer teachings against his people Did he believe himself to be the Messiah In Part II The Growth of the Myth Nicholls looks at the impact made by Paul and documents the slow but steady relegation of the Jews to a position of hatred and victimization and their role as scapegoat Also included in this section of the book is a close look at the development of the notion of the Jew as a player in Christian theology In Part III The Myth Secularized Nicholls observes the secularization of antisemitism from the age of Napoleon to the present His conclusion is a pessimistic one noting that the Holocaust has not brought an end to anti semitism

Cult Watch John Ankerberg,John Weldon,1991-01-01 A compilation of the entire Facts On series Cult Watch gives you facts about the major cults and movements in a format you can use in counseling or witnessing

Lorca, Buñuel, Dalí Manuel Delgado,Alice Jan Poust,2001 This volume of essays commemorates and celebrates the creative works of Frederico Garcia Lorca Salvador Dali and Luis Bunel three contemporaries and friends The essays suggest that the artistic creations of Lorca Dali and Bunel feature theoretical ideas on their contemporary art in general as well as on the particular art form cultivated by each ideas that help us to better understand their work as it relates to a wide range of aesthetic theories

Alabama at Birmingham USA      The Soul of Supervision Margaret Benefiel, Geraldine Holton, 2010-10-01 With national and international concern around issues of abuse burnout meaninglessness and spiritual bankruptcy in every profession supervision is becoming increasingly necessary for people who desire life giving care and understanding in their work and ministry This book provides a framework of theory and experience to develop the strengths and address the challenges of professional supervision with particular focus on developing spiritual sensitivity and competency      Long Night's Journey Into Day Alice Eckardt, Arthur Roy Eckardt, 1988 Long Night's Journey into Day is a controversial and stimulating attempt to deal with the impact of the Holocaust within the framework of modern day Christian and Jewish thought In this enlarged and revised edition authors Alice and Roy Eckardt probe the moral theological historical and political issues raised for Christians and Jews by the event In addition they take into account contemporary topics such as the significance and aftermath of Bitburg and the remarkable statement of the Rhineland Synod of the German Evangelical Church      Maps of Empire Kyle Wanberg, 2020-07-09 During the political upheavals of the mid twentieth century as imperialism was unraveling on a grand scale writers from colonized and occupied spaces questioned the necessity and ethics of their histories As empire wrote back to the self ordained centres of the world modes of representation underwent a transformation Exploring novels and diverse forms of literature from regions in West Africa the Middle East and Indigenous America Maps of Empire considers how writers struggle with the unstable boundaries generated by colonial projects and their dissolution The literary spaces covered in the book form imaginary states or reimagine actual cartographies and identities sanctioned under empire The works examined in Maps of Empire through their inner representations and their outer histories of reception inspire and provoke us to reconsider boundaries      Pig City Model Farm Rob Kovitz, 2014-04-01 If we could suddenly see this arranged order as it will be seen in its full functioning it is not to be doubted that many of the Civilized would be struck dead by the violence of their ecstasy PIG CITY MODEL FARM is a strange amusing and disturbing book about architecture agriculture and utopia About instrumental thinking and rational method versus irony and doubt as anti method About copronomy and building design model farms country life class status in the Chinese countryside Ultra Sweet Pignectar an architect's first sexual experience Charles Fourier Marcel Duchamp paranoia poisonous fruit and how things become their opposite Treyf 25th Anniversary edition      Theorizing Post-Conflict Reconciliation Alexander Hirsch, 2013-06-17 The founding of truth commissions legal tribunals and public confessionals in places like South Africa Australia Yugoslavia and Chile have attempted to heal wounds and bring about reconciliation in societies divided by a history of violence and conflict This volume asks how many of the popular conclusions reached by transitional justice studies fall short or worse unwittingly perpetuate the very injustices they aim to suture Though often well intentioned these approaches generally resolve in an injunction to move on as it were to leave the painful past behind in the name of a conciliatory future Through collective acts of apology and forgiveness so the argument goes reparation and restoration are imparted and the writhing conflict of the past is substituted for by the overlapping consensus of community And yet all too often the authors of this study maintain the work done in assuaging past discord serves to further debase and politically neutralize especially the victims of abuse in need of reconciliation and repair in the first place Drawing on a wide range of case studies from South Africa to Northern Ireland Bosnia Rwanda and Australia the authors argue for an alternative approach to post conflict thought In so doing they find inspiration in the vision of politics rendered by new pluralist new realist and especially agonistic political theory Featuring contributions from both up and coming and well established scholars this work is essential reading for all those with an interest in restorative justice conflict resolution and peace studies

Divine Violence James Martel, 2013-03-01 Divine Violence looks at the question of political theology and its connection to sovereignty It argues that the practice of sovereignty reflects a Christian eschatology one that proves very hard to overcome even by left thinkers such as Arendt and Derrida who are very critical of it These authors fall into a trap described by Carl Schmitt whereby one is given a false choice between anarchy and sovereignty both of which are bound within and return us to the same eschatological envelope In Divine Violence the author argues that Benjamin supplies the correct political theology to help these thinkers He shows how to avoid trying to get rid of sovereignty the anarchist move that Schmitt tells us forces us to decide against the decision and instead to seek to decenter and dislocate sovereignty so that its mythological function is disturbed He does this with the aid of divine violence a messianic force that comes into the world to undo its own mythology leaving nothing in its wake Such a move clears the myths of sovereignty away turning us to our own responsibility in the process In that way the author argues Benjamin succeeds in producing an anarchism that is not bound by Schmitt's trap but which is sustained even while we remain dazzled by the myths of sovereignty that structure our world Divine Violence will be of interest to students of political theory to those with an interest in political theology philosophy and deconstruction and to those who are interested in thinking about some of the dilemmas that the left finds itself in today

A History of Modern Psychology Duane Schultz, 2013-10-02 A History of Modern Psychology 3rd Edition discusses the development and decline of schools of thought in modern psychology The book presents the continuing refinement of the tools techniques and methods of psychology in order to achieve increased precision and objectivity Chapters focus on relevant topics such as the role of history in understanding the diversity and divisiveness of contemporary psychology the impact of physics on the cognitive revolution and humanistic psychology the influence of mechanism on Descartes's thinking and the evolution of the third force humanistic psychology Undergraduate students of psychology and related fields will find the book invaluable in their pursuit of knowledge

Hungry for Ecstasy Sharon Klayman Farber, 2012-11-16 Hungry for Ecstasy Trauma The Brain and the Influence of the Sixties by Sharon Klayman Farber explores the hunger for ecstatic experience that can lead people down the road to self destruction In an attempt to help mental health professionals and concerned individuals understand and identify the phenomenon and ultimately intervene with patients friends and loved ones Farber speaks both personally and professionally to the reader She discusses the different paths taken on the road to ecstatic states There are religious ecstasies ecstasies of pain and near death experiences cult induced ecstasies creative ecstasies and ecstasies from hell Hungry for Ecstasy explores not only the neuroscientific processes involved but also the influence of the sixties in driving people to seek these states Finally Farber draws from her own personal and professional experience to advise others how to intervene on behalf of the person whose behavior puts his or her life at risk The Sociology of Virtue John Stanley, 1981-01-01 Studie over het werk van de Franse socioloog en anarcho syndicalistische activist Georges Sorel 1847 1922
