

REFLECTIVE TEACHING

DEFINITION

Reflective teaching is a process where teachers reflect on their own teaching practices and learn from their own experiences.

This type of reflection allows teachers to see what works well in their classrooms and what needs improvement. Reflective teaching also helps teachers to understand the impact that their teaching has on students.

EXAMPLES

Examples of reflective teaching include:

- Observing other teachers and comparing their practice to your own.
- Taking notes on your own teaching practice and thinking about ways to improve.
- Asking for feedback from your students to achieve self-improvement.

Reflective Teaching Donald R. Cruickshank, 1981 Reflective Teaching in Higher Education Paul Ashwin, David Boud, Susanna Calkins, Kelly Coate, Fiona Hallett, Gregory Light, Kathy Lockett, Iain MacLaren, Katarina Mårtensson, Jan McArthur, Velda McCune, Monica McLean, Michelle Tooher, 2020-02-20 Reflective Teaching in Higher Education is the definitive textbook for those wanting to excel at teaching in the sector Informed by the latest research in this area the book offers extensive support for those at the start of an academic career and career long professionalism for those teaching in higher education Written by an international collaborative author team of experts led by Paul Ashwin Reflective Teaching in Higher Education offers two levels of support practical guidance for day to day teaching covering key issues such as strategies for improving learning teaching and assessment curriculum design relationships communication and inclusion evidence informed principles to aid understanding of how theories can effectively inform teaching practices offering ways to develop a deeper understanding of teaching and learning in higher education In addition to new case studies from a wider variety of countries than ever before this new edition includes discussion of What is meant by agency Gender ethnicity disability and university teaching Digital learning spaces and social media Teaching career development for academics Decolonising the curriculum Assessment and feedback practices Teaching excellence and learning gain 2015 UN General Assembly 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development reflectiveteaching.co.uk provides a treasure trove of additional support It includes supplementary sector specific material to support for considering questions around society's educational aims and much more besides Fostering Reflective Teaching Practice in Pre-Service Education Djoub, Zineb, 2017-08-11 As with any industry the education sector often goes through frequent changes It is every educator's duty to keep up with these shifting requirements and alter their teaching style accordingly Fostering Reflective Teaching Practice in Pre Service Education is an essential reference source that provides a detailed analysis of the most efficient and effective ways for teachers to adapt to changes in their industry Featuring relevant topics such as reflective teaching methodology lifelong learning programs pioneer service learning and technology integration in education this book is ideal for current educators future teachers academicians students and researchers that would like insight into the best practices for keeping up with the demanding changes in the education field The New Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Carol Richardson, 2002-04-18 Featuring chapters by the world's foremost scholars in music education and cognition this handbook is a convenient collection of current research on music teaching and learning This comprehensive work includes sections on arts advocacy music and medicine teacher education and studio instruction among other subjects making it an essential reference for music education programs The original Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning published in 1992 with the sponsorship of the Music Educators National Conference MENC was hailed as a welcome addition to the literature on music education because it serves to provide definition and unity to a broad and complex field Choice This new companion volume again with the sponsorship of MENC explores the significant changes in music and arts education that have taken place in the last decade. Notably several chapters now incorporate insights from other fields to shed light on multi-cultural music education, gender issues in music education and non-musical outcomes of music education. Other chapters offer practical information on maintaining musicians' health, training music teachers and evaluating music education programs. Philosophical issues such as musical cognition, the philosophy of research, theory, curriculum and educating musically are also explored in relationship to policy issues. In addition to surveying the literature, each chapter considers the significance of the research and provides suggestions for future study. Covering a broad range of topics and addressing the issues of music education at all age levels from early childhood to motivation and self-regulation, this handbook is an invaluable resource for music teachers, researchers and scholars.

Reflective Teaching in Schools Andrew Pollard, Kristine Black-Hawkins, Gabrielle Cliff Hodges, Pete Dudley, Mary James, Holly Linklater, Sue Swaffield, Mandy Swann, Fay Turner, Paul Warwick, Mark Winterbottom, Mary Anne Wolpert, 2014-02-27. Building on best-selling texts over three decades, this thoroughly revised new edition is essential reading for both primary and secondary school teachers in training and in practice, supporting both initial school-based training and extended career-long professionalism. Considering a wide range of professionally relevant topics, Reflective Teaching in Schools presents key issues and research insights, suggests activities for classroom enquiry and offers guidance on key readings. Uniquely, two levels of support are offered: practical evidence-based guidance on key classroom issues including relationships, behaviour, curriculum planning, teaching strategies and assessment processes; routes to deeper forms of expertise including evidence-informed principles and concepts to support in-depth understanding of teacher expertise. Andrew Pollard, former Director of the UK's Teaching and Learning Research Programme, led development of the book with support from primary and secondary specialists from the University of Cambridge, UK. Reflective Teaching in Schools is part of a fully integrated set of resources for primary and secondary education. Readings for Reflective Teaching in Schools directly complements and extends the chapters in this book. Providing a compact and portable library, it is particularly helpful in school-based teacher education. The website reflectiveteaching.co.uk offers supplementary resources including reflective activities, research briefings, advice on further reading and additional chapters. It also features a glossary, links to useful websites and a conceptual framework for deepening expertise. This book is one of the Reflective Teaching Series, inspiring education through innovation in early years, schools, further, higher and adult education.
