Reframing The Theory Of The Sublime Pillars And Modes:

Reframing the Theory of the Sublime Cliff McMahon, 2004 The discourse of the sublime in this study becomes positioned in new perspectives when an amalgamation is made between major classical theorists and contemporary theorists leading to something like an anatomy of the sublime presented here as a theory of modes This amalgamation blends the sublimicist concepts of Longinus Burke Kant Nietzsche Herbert Weiskel Paul Crowther Jean Francois Lyotard Frances Ferguson Slavoj Zizek Terry Eagleton Harold Bloom David Nye Jeremy Gilbert Rolfe Sartre and Jung The treatment of Sartre and Jung shows that they generated major changes in the thought climate which established new modes of sublime experience recognized in modern art This study seeks to elucidate not only the standard core concepts of the theorists but also to bring to new prominence certain neglected religious Offering important innovative enlargements of the basic terminology for the discourse field this study opens new doors to the analysis of sublime experiences and sublime objects and thus new doors to the analysis of art works and artists programs as well as new extensions of aesthetic theory

Lucan and the Sublime Henry J. M. Day, 2013-01-24 This is the first comprehensive study of the sublime in Lucan Drawing upon renewed literary critical interest in the tradition of philosophical aesthetics Henry Day argues that the category of the sublime offers a means of moving beyond readings of Lucan's Bellum Civile in terms of the poem's political commitment or alternatively nihilism Demonstrating in dialogue with theorists from Burke and Kant to Freud Lyotard and Ankersmit the continuing vitality of Longinus' foundational treatise On the Sublime Day charts Lucan's complex and instructive exploration of the relationship between sublimity and ethical discourses of freedom and oppression Through the Bellum Civile's cataclysmic vision of civil war and metapoetic accounts of its own genesis through its heated linguistic texture and proclaimed effects upon future readers and most powerfully of all through its representation of its twin protagonists Caesar and Pompey Lucan's great epic emerges as a central text in the history of the sublime

The Sublime Today Gillian B. Pierce, 2013-01-04 The Sublime Today considers contemporary applications of aesthetic philosophy and earlier theories of the sublime from Longinus Boileau Burke Kant and Hegel to current literary and cultural contexts Today aesthetic experience itself seems to be changing given the rise of new media and new conditions for the viewing and the reception of works of art How might the rhetoric of the sublime be used to both describe our current situation and help formulate constructive responses to it The Sublime Today collects the work of scholars in literature film art and media studies and provides a forum for investigating the contemporary relevance of the sublime both as it has been understood historically and as it has been formulated by more recent theorists such as Jameson Lyotard Kristeva and others The volume includes essays on literary readings of the sublime in Coetzee Eggers Lahiri and Auster essays on film and the visual arts in the work of Francois Ozon and in recent participatory art and essays on how new technologies and media as in media representations of 9/11 re frame our relationship to the aesthetics of the sublime especially as they intersect with questions of gender the postcolonial and the uneasy politics of terror

Beauty, Violence, Representation Lisa A. Dickson, Maryna Romanets, 2014-05-09 This volume explores the relationship among beauty violence and representation in a broad range of artistic and cultural texts including literature visual art theatre film and music Charting diversifying interests in the subject of violence and beauty dealing with the multiple inflections of these questions and representing a spectrum of voices the volume takes its place in a growing body of recent critical work that takes violence and representation as its object This collection offers a unique opportunity however to address a significant gap in the critical field for it seeks to interrogate specifically the nexus or interface between beauty and violence While other texts on violence make use of regimes of representation as their subject matter and consider the effects of aestheticization beauty as a critical category is conspicuously absent Furthermore the book aims to rehabilitate beauty implicitly conceptualized as politically or ethically regressive by postmodern anti aesthetics cultural positions and further facilitate its come back into critical discourse

Satirizing Modernism Emmett Stinson, 2017-06-01 Satirizing Modernism examines 20th century novels that satirize avant garde artists and authors while also using experimental techniques associated with literary modernism These novels such as Wyndham Lewis's The Apes of God William Gaddis's The Recognitions and Gilbert Sorrentino's Imaginative Qualities of Actual Things were under recognized and received poor reviews at the time of publication but have increasingly been acknowledged as both groundbreaking and deeply influential Satirizing Modernism analyzes these novels in order to present an alternative account of literary modernism which should be viewed neither as a radical break with the past nor an outmoded set of aesthetics overtaken by a later postmodernism In self reflexively critiquing their own aesthetics these works express an unconventional modernism that both revises literary history and continues to be felt today
