With more than 1440 color illustrations and photos, it is particularly useful as a source of information prior to researching or just visiting a sector of coast. References are provided to the current literature on coastal evolution and coastline changes. A World of Rivers Ellen Wohl, 2010-11-15. Far from being the serene natural streams of yore, modern rivers have been diverted, dammed, dumped in, and dried up all in efforts to harness their power for human needs. But these rivers have also undergone environmental change. The old adage says you can't step in the same river twice, and Ellen Wohl would agree: natural and synthetic change are so rapid on the world's great waterways that rivers are transforming and disappearing right before our eyes. A World of Rivers explores the confluence of human and environmental change on ten of the great rivers of the world. Ranging from the Murray Darling in Australia and the Yellow River in China to Central Europe's Danube and the United States' Mississippi, the book journeys down the most important rivers in all corners of the globe. Wohl shows us how pollution, such as in the Ganges and in the Ob of Siberia, has affected biodiversity in the water. But rivers are also resilient, and Wohl stresses the importance of conservation and restoration to help reverse the effects of human carelessness and hubris. What all these diverse rivers share is a critical role in shaping surrounding landscapes and biological communities, and Wohl's book ultimately makes a strong case for the need to steward positive change in the world's great rivers. Beyond the Blue River B. Vinayan, 2011. Grace, an author, in India goes on an unusual journey in search of the source of the river in the song Blue River. The vehicle will encounter new worlds, new creatures, new ways of life, and new systems of language and communication. A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol.XL (Forty-Five Volumes); Songs, Hymns, Lyrics Charles Dudley Warner, 2008-07-01 Popular American essayist, novelist, and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER (1829-1900) was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue, biography, and autobiography, fiction, and more, and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work, a splendid survey of global literature, classic and modern, and it's not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain, who stole Warner's quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it, had assembled this set, it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world Volume 40 is a comprehensive selection of songs and hymns including works by Richard Lovelace, Nora Hopper James, Montgomery Sarah Williams, Charles Godfrey Leland, Andrew Marvell, King Henry IV of France, Gerald Massey, Eliza Calvert Hall, Sir Walter Raleigh, and many others

Beyond Mammoth Cave James D. Borden, Roger W. Brucker, 2000-11-20 In Beyond Mammoth Cave: A Tale of Obsession in the World's Longest Cave, James D. Borden and Roger W. Brucker provide gripping first-person accounts of the discoveries, including Roppel Cave, that made Kentucky's Mammoth Cave three times longer than any other cave in the world Borden, a relative newcomer, and Brucker, a veteran explorer, bring a personal and sometimes conflicting view of their roles as adversaries in a race that lasted from 1972 through 1983 to find big cave They describe hazardous adventures, precarious climbs, and close calls from falling rocks The perils are many and the trek arduous as they squirm through muddy tubes, wade in neck-deep cold water, and crawl over sharp rocks and gritty sand Theirs is a tale of agonizing endurance, spiced by spectacular discoveries But the cave was not the sole obstacle The explorations were complicated by political intrigue and the rivalry between the Kentucky-based Cave Research Foundation and the Central Kentucky Karst Coalition, each seeking to make discoveries and hide secrets Extreme stress, of course, evoked extreme behavior, ranging from selfishness to sacrifice, from outrageous humor to the deadly serious response Beyond Mammoth Cave includes maps by Patricia Kambesis that show the progression of cave discoveries in relation to the topography Original line drawings by well-known illustrator Linda Heslop capture the dark mystery of the exploration The book features five black and white photographs as a color gallery of photographs A sequel to The Longest Cave by Brucker and Richard A. Watson, this book is a comprehensive update of the speleological investigations in the Mammoth Cave region Brucker's involvement provides continuity to the investigation
