By the Rivers of Water Erskine Clarke, 2013-10-08 In early November 1834 an aristocratic young couple from Savannah and South Carolina sailed from New York and began a strange seventeen year odyssey in West Africa Leighton and Jane Wilson sailed along what was for them an exotic coastline visited cities and villages and sometimes ventured up great rivers and followed ancient paths Along the way they encountered not only many diverse landscapes peoples and cultures but also many individuals on their own odysseys including Paul Sansay a former slave from Savannah Mworeh Mah a brilliant Grebo leader and his beautiful daughter Mary Clealand at Cape Palmas and King Glass and the wise and humorous Toko in Gabon Leighton and Jane Wilson had freed their inherited slaves and were to become the most influential American missionaries in West Africa during the first half of the nineteenth century While Jane established schools Leighton fought the international slave trade and the imperialism of colonization He translated portions of the Bible into Grebo and Mpongwe and thereby helped to lay the foundation for the emergence of an indigenous African Christianity The Wilsons returned to New York because of ill health but their odyssey was not over Living in the booming American metropolis the Wilsons welcomed into their handsome home visitors from around the world as they worked for the rapidly expanding Protestant mission movement As the Civil War approached however they heard the siren voice of their Southern homeland calling from deep within their memories They sought to resist its seductions but the call became more insistent and finally irresistible In spite of their years of fighting slavery they gave themselves to a history and a people committed to maintaining slavery and its deep oppression both an act of deep love for a place and people and the desertion of a moral vision A sweeping transatlantic story of good intentions and bitter consequences By the Rivers of Water reveals two distant worlds linked by deep faiths

MEMOIRS OF THE MEI RIVER Li Yunqi, 2024-03-11 Memoirs of Mei

River chronicles the life of Chu Huainan a protagonist whose youth was shaped by revolutionary ideals fueled by dissatisfaction with the Kuomintang's corruption. Believing in a utopian vision of socialist public ownership, Chu Huainan endures decades of political upheavals, witnessing the rise and fall of state-owned enterprises and the unexpected success of private businesses in Mei River. The narrative weaves through historical movements such as land reform, the Anti-Rightist Movement, the Cultural Revolution, and the reform era, reflecting the complexities of societal changes in 20th-century China. The story explores the paradoxes of Chu Huainan's personal life, from family tragedies to ideological conflicts, all set against the backdrop of China's rapid economic development. As Mei River prospers, Chu Huainan confronts the widening wealth gap and questions the efficacy of his lifelong commitment to ideals like public ownership and revolution. The novel delves into the struggles of belief systems, posing profound inquiries about equity, revolution, and the inherent injustices of those in power. Chu Huainan's tumultuous journey, mirroring China's 20th-century challenges, raises broader philosophical questions about humanity's search for meaning and values. The novel prompts readers to reflect on the futility of rigid belief systems in solving the multifaceted problems of human existence, leaving Chu Huainan in a state of confusion and existential questioning. Through his personal and political tribulations, the novel explores themes of benevolence, righteousness, and tolerance as enduring values necessary for navigating the complexities of life.

Three Generations in One: My Memoirs Sundar A. Shetty, 2019-07-26
 This is an incredible story about my childhood and adolescence, the one revealing the graphic and disheartening dynamics of growing up and fighting for survival in an unsafe and toxic environment. Lived in a cramped home with 18 members of an extended family, used a dimly lit kerosene lamp for studies, often attended classes hungry, and lived with fear in the presence of a ruthless and overly strict father. At times I thought that life was worth not living by the absence of fatherly love and lack of basic needs in my life. This is a compelling tale of my survival, my determination to study and succeed in life, and eventual redemption as my destiny took me to Bombay and from there to the United States where I found love, peace, and happiness and an undying desire to live and succeed.

Memoirs of a German Boyhood Wolfgang Schueller,2012-10-17 Another Time Another Place Once in a dream I saw my mother and my father waltzing She wore a long pink gown with a lace overskirt of white apple blossoms She was smiling and my father wore a dark green tunic like a Prussian prince red and gold braid adorned his collar The cuffs of his sleeves were trimmed with red and gold braid There was a dark gold stripe on his gray trousers His black boots had fur at the top My sister was playing in the garden where the apple trees were in bloom she was laughing and running with her dog My brother and I were climbing the mountain in our shorts and when we ran back down the trail we giggled because there were pretty girls sitting near the lake When we walked in the sandy shallow water it sparkled like diamonds as the sun warmed our feet and our legs But it was only a boy s dream of my Fatherland now I see clearly the way it really was because now I am a man The grace and beauty of the Fatherland did not betray us the truth did
