River Town Two Years On The Yangtze:

River Town Peter Hessler, 2002 Records the author's experiences as a Peace Corps English teacher in the small Chinese city of Fuling during which time he witnessed such events as the death of Deng Xiaoping the return of Hong Kong to the mainland and the construction of the Three Gorges Dam

River Town Peter Hessler, 2001 When Peter Hessler went to China in the late 1990s he expected to spend a couple of peaceful years teaching English in the town of Fuling on the Yangtze River But what he experienced the natural beauty cultural tension and complex process of understanding that takes place when one is thrust into a radically different society surpassed anything he could have imagined Hessler observes firsthand how major events such as the death of Deng Xiaoping the return of Hong Kong to the mainland and the controversial construction of the Three Gorges Dam have affected even the people of a remote town like Fuling Poignant thoughtful and utterly compelling River Town is an unforgettable portrait of a place caught mid river in time much like China itself a country seeking to understand both what it was and what it will one day become

River Town Peter Hessler, 2006 In the heart of China's Sichuan province tucked away amid the terraced hills of the Yangtze River valley lies the remote town of Fuling Like many other small cities in this vast and ever evolving country Fuling is shifting gears and heading down a new path one of change and vitality tension and reform disruption and growth Its position at the crossroads came into sharp focus when the author arrived as a Peace Corps volunteer marking the first time in more than half a century that the city had an American resident The author taught English and American literature at the local college but it was his students who taught him about the ways of Fuling and about the complex process of understanding that takes place when one is immersed in a radically different society This book is a portrait of a city that much like China itself is seeking to understand both what it was and what it someday will be Back cover

RiverTime Mary A. Hood, 2008-03-20 In this engaging travelogue of our world's rivers great and small poet and biologist Mary A Hood reflects on rivers as creators of place Recounting her journeys along portions of the Mississippi the Danube the Amazon the Yangtze the Ganges the Nile and a dozen small U S rivers Hood weaves together natural history current environmental and conservation issues encounters with endangered plants and animals and tells some interesting tales along the way Like a river the book begins small with essays that are narrowly focused on themes of environment and place such as the need to write our world Three Rivers how fires and corporations control the West the Flathead the effect of wind farms on a small town in western New York the Conhocton the giant redwoods and how they were preserved the Klamath and the search for moose in the great north woods the Penobscot The second section expands the themes of environment and place and looks at great world rivers their long histories their biological diversity the effects of human use and tourism and the paradox of human reverence and destruction From endangered species to invasive species from corporate control of national parks to wind farms from urban sprawl to efforts at conservation and restoration RiverTime offers insights into our relationship to the environment in the twenty first century

The Cambridge History of Travel Writing Nandini Das,Tim Youngs,2019-01-24 Bringing together original contributions from scholars across the world this volume traces the history of travel writing from antiquity to the Internet age It examines travel texts of several national or linguistic traditions introducing readers to the global contexts of the genre From wilderness to the urban from Nigeria to the polar regions from mountains to rivers and the desert this book explores some of the key places and physical features represented in travel writing Chapters also consider the employment in travel writing of the diary the letter visual images maps and poetry as well as the relationship of travel writing to fiction science translation and tourism Gender based and ecocritical approaches are among those surveyed Together the thirty seven chapters here underline the richness and complexity of this genre

The "Inscrutably Chinese" Church Nathan Faries,2010-09-23 The first half of the twenty first century promises to be a time of great change for the Christian church in the People s Republic of China The situation is complex and fluid and the information gap between those on the inside and those outside of China is still significant though shrinking The Inscrutably Chinese Church moves readers nearer to the Chinese Christian experience as Nathan Faries helps foreign readers to see with greater clarity just how Chinese Christians view their government and themselves in relation to those ruling powers There still exists a measure of inscrutability about China and its complex relationship with religion that must be explained to the outsider It is this gap in understanding between insider points of view within China and those outsiders seeking knowledge about the Christian faith in China that Faries seeks to close development This book argues that it is time for CFL to go beyond merely satisfying the desire of gazing at the other whether it is curiosity about the other or superiority over the other to focusing on learning to work with the other It reimagines the field as co constructing a transcultural Third Space where learners are becoming experts in negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture It presents a range of research based CFL pedagogical scholarship and practices especially relevant to the advanced level and to the goal of enabling learners to go past fans or critics to become actors players in the game of cross lingual and intercultural cooperation Writing Abroad Peter Chilson, Joanne B. Mulcahy, 2017-10-13 Tell me all about your trip It s a request that follows travelers as they head out into the world and one of the first things they hear when they return When we leave our homes to explore the wider world we feel compelled to capture the experiences and bring the story home But for those who don t think of themselves as writers putting experiences into words can be more stressful than inspirational Writing Abroad is meant for travelers of all backgrounds and writing levels a student embarking on overseas study a retiree realizing a dream of seeing China a Peace Corps worker in Kenya All can benefit from documenting their adventures whether on paper or online Through practical advice and adaptable exercises this guide will help travelers hone their observational skills conduct research and interviews choose an appropriate literary form and incorporate photos and videos into their writing Writing about travel is more than just safeguarding memories it can transform experiences and tease out new realizations With Writing Abroad travelers will be able to deepen their understanding of other cultures and write about that new awareness in clear and vivid prose For Tibet, With Love Isabel Losada, 2011-06-06 Sometimes you just have to do something don t you Sometimes an injustice comes along and you think No this cannot be and rather than just turn off the TV you know it s time to act So begins Isabel Losada s extraordinary FOR TIBET WITH LOVE in which she explores whether it s possible for an ordinary person to change the world just a little and if something so serious can be achieved with joy in one s heart From visits to Nepal and Tibet to meetings with the Chinese ambassador and Tibetan awareness raising groups Isabel single handedly hatches a stunning PR coup involving Nelson s Column a 15 metre banner and a base jumping parachutist that captured headlines worldwide And then she meets the Dalai Lama Warm and funny moving and thought provoking the astonishing FOR TIBET WITH LOVE celebrates the fact that we can make a difference Traveling the 38th Parallel David Carle, Janet Carle, 2013-04-03 Between extremes of climate farther north and south the 38th North parallel line marks a temperate middle latitude where human societies have thrived since the beginning of civilization It divides North and South Korea passes through Athens and San Francisco and bisects Mono Lake in the eastern Sierra Nevada where authors David and Janet Carle make their home Former park rangers the authors set out on an around the world journey in search of water related environmental and cultural intersections along the 38th parallel This book is a chronicle of their adventures as they meet people confronting challenges in water supply pollution wetlands loss and habitat protection At the heart of the narrative are the riveting stories of the passionate individuals scientists educators and local activists who are struggling to preserve some of the world's most amazing yet threatened landscapes Traveling largely outside of cities away from well beaten tourist tracks the authors cross Japan Korea China Turkmenistan Turkey Greece Sicily Spain Portugal the Azores Islands and the United States from Chesapeake Bay to San Francisco Bay The stories they gather provide stark contrasts as well as reaffirming similarities across diverse cultures Generously illustrated with maps and photos Traveling the 38th Parallel documents devastating environmental losses but also inspiring gains made through the efforts of dedicated individuals working against the odds to protect these fragile places

The Last Kings of Shanghai Jonathan Kaufman, 2021-06-01 In vivid detail examines the little known history of two extraordinary dynasties The Boston Globe Not just a brilliant well researched and highly readable book about China's past it also reveals the contingencies and ironic twists of fate in China's modern history LA Review of Books An epic multigenerational story of two rival dynasties who flourished in Shanghai and Hong Kong as twentieth century China surged into the modern era from the Pulitzer Prize winning journalist The Sassoons and the Kadoories stood astride Chinese business and politics for more than one hundred seventy five years profiting from the Opium Wars surviving Japanese occupation courting Chiang Kai shek and nearly losing everything as the Communists swept into power Jonathan Kaufman tells the remarkable history of how these families ignited an economic boom and opened China to the world but remained blind to the country's deep inequality and to the political turmoil on their doorsteps In a story stretching from Baghdad to Hong Kong to Shanghai to London Kaufman enters the lives and minds of these ambitious men and women to forge a tale of opium smuggling family rivalry political intrigue and survival
