Rivers Voice The An Anthology Of Poetry:

The River's Voice Angela King, Susan Clifford, 2000 This volume comprises 190 poems by 133 poets old favourites such as Tennyson's The Song of the Brook and Wordsworth's Upon Westminster Bridge are joined by 20th century poetry from both sides of the Atlantic with writers including A R Ammon Wendell Berry Carol Ann Duffy U A Fanthorpe Seamus Heaney Ted Hughes Andrew Motion Sylvia Plath and William Carlos Williams Poets muse on the particularity of rivers use the river as a metaphor for life's journey from spring to the sea of unknowing and explore the magical qualities of water its transformations and patterns Yet in Britain our rivers are still retreating from a post war onslaught the lowering of water tables draining of water meadows chopping down of trees and destroying wildlife habitats This book reasserts the timeless importance of rivers to our environment to the poetic imagination and indeed to life itself The American Voice Anthology of Poetry Frederick Smock, 2021-10-21 The American Voice looks to find the vital edge of modern American writing The journal whose contributors come from the U S Canada and Latin America often publishes work by writers denied access to mainstream journals Writings from its pages have been regularly reprinted in prize annuals such as The Pushcart Prize Best American Poetry and Best American Essays This fifteenth anniversary anthology collects eighty poems from some of the most original and daring writers of our time The anthology's contributors range from the world famous Jorge Luis Borges Marge Piercy May Swenson to the newly emerging Marie Sheppard Williams Suzanne Gardinier Robyn Selman and from the nationally read Wendell Berry Reynolds Price Barbara Kingsolver to the distinctly regional George Ella Lyon Jane Gentry James Still This volume brings together some of the best selections from an award winning journal making clear why Small Press dubbed The American Voice one of the most impressive journals in the country Late modernist poetics Anthony Mellors, 2024-06-04 This book explores the uncanny afterlife of modernist ideals in the second half of the twentieth century Rejecting the familiar notion that modernism dissolved during the 1930s it argues that the fusion of rationalism and mysticism which characterises modernist poetics was sustained long after its politics had been discredited by the events of World War Two The book's central concern is why the aesthetic mysticism that Walter Benjamin called the faith of those who made common cause with Fascism continued to be a guiding principle for literary elites and countercultural movements alike New light is shed on the relationship between occultism and the Pound tradition especially in terms of Pound's influence on post 1945 Anglo American poetry and a critical theory of late modernism is offered which shows how belated notions of cultural redemption have survived in contemporary poetry This wide ranging contextual study focuses on the poetry of Ezra Pound Charles Olson Paul Celan and J H Prynne and explores the development of modernist culture through its theories of phenomenology psychoanalysis science ethnography and ancient history Telling Environmental Histories Katie Holmes, Heather Goodall, 2017-12-12 This collection explores the intersections of oral history and environmental history Oral history offers environmental historians the opportunity to understand the ways people's perceptions experiences and beliefs about environments change over time In turn the insights of environmental history challenge oral historians to think more critically about the ways an active more than human world shapes experiences and people The integration of these approaches enables us to more fully and critically understand the ways cultural and individual memory and experience shapes human interactions with the more than human world just as it enables us to identify the ways human memory identity and experience is moulded by the landscapes and environments in which people live and labour It includes contributions from Australia India the UK Canada and the USA
