Remembering Home Linda Rich,2007-05 An old farmhouse overlooks the scenic Spoon River in western Illinois It has stood there for over a hundred years sheltering Bobby and Neoma Hanks and their children through the early years of the twentieth century until 1927 when they leave the farm Their move to town has momentous consequences By 1950 the family has split up and is scattered across the country from New York to California Decades later grandson Drew owns the farmhouse he has always loved and eagerly shares his cherished childhood memories with his younger cousin Sharon But for Sharon who grew up in a different place and time memories of her own childhood home evoke very different emotions After her mother's death Sharon struggles to come to terms with her past and wonders whether life in the old house on the Spoon where her mother was born was really as idyllic as Drew remembers To Change Them Forever Clyde Ellis,1996 Between 1893 and 1920 the U S government attempted to transform Kiowa children by immersing them in the forced assimilation program that lay at the heart of that era's Indian policy Committed to civilizing Indians according to Anglo American standards of conduct the Indian Service effected the government's vision of a new Indian race that would be white in every way except skin color Reservation boarding schools represented an especially important component in that assimilationist campaign The Rainy Mountain School on the Kiowa Comanche Apache Reservation in western Oklahoma provides an example of how theory and reality collided in a remote corner of the American West Rainy Mountain's history reveals much about the form and function of the Indian policy and its consequences for the Kiowa children who attended the school In To Change Them Forever Clyde Ellis combines a survey of changing government policy with a discussion of response and accommodation by the Kiowa people Unwilling to surrender their identity Kiowas nonetheless accepted the adaptations required by the schools and survived the attempt to change them into something they did not wish to become Rainy Mountain became a focal point for Kiowa society The Bridge (Tremontaine Season 3 Episode 3) Karen Lord,Joel Derfner,Paul Witcover,Liz Duffy Adams,Delia Sherman,Racheline Maltese,2017-10-25 Swordplay scandal and sex welcome to the world of Tremontaine a glittering new entry in Ellen Kushner's classic Riverside series This is the 3rd episode in the third season of Tremontaine a 13 episode serial from Serial Box Publishing This episode written by Karen Lord Kaab realizes Saabim was murdered but finding the culprit will take time A new allegiance shifts the web of power surrounding Diane Rafe channels his grief into setting up his school Welcome to Tremontaine where ambition love affairs and rivalries dance with deadly results A Duchess whose beauty is matched only by her cunning a handsome young scholar with more passion than sense a foreigner in a playground of swordplay and secrets and a mathematical genius whose discoveries herald revolution when games of politics begin no one is safe Keep your wit as sharp as your steel in this world where politics is everything and

Coney, 2013-05-20 Once every fifty two years Arcadia's six erratic moons come together in a constellation that plays havoc with the ecological balance of the planet As a marine biologist at Riverside Research Centre Mark Swindon is chiefly concerned about the effect of catastrophic tides on his precious fish pens Then without warning a wave of seemingly motiveless violence sweeps through the normally sleepy colony and Mark too feels himself drawn against his will into a mysterious cycle of death and rebirth The Storyteller's Memory Palace Hanne Bewernick, 2010 Storytelling and remembering rely on similar practices they both arrange images in an ordered structure A story is initially memorised by the author in a mental structure which is transferred to the page via the author's choice of location organisation and imagery An interpretation that emphasises these features enhances the natural capacity for comprehension by mimicking the memory process This study describes and uncovers memory systems including the memory palace and the memory journey in medieval texts The ancient memory techniques are compared to cognitive psychology and used to interpret four modern novels A practical method of interpretation is devised which provides the reader with direct access to a story by opening the door into the storyteller's memory palace A Memory of War Frederick Busch, 2003 As the novel unfolds into a romance set in England's Lake District in wartime Frederick Busch reveals how the past presses in upon the present BOOK JACKET The House on Lemon Street Mark Rawitsch, 2012-06-15 In 1915 Jukichi and Ken Harada purchased a house on Lemon Street in Riverside California Close to their restaurant church and children's school the house should have been a safe and healthy family home Before the purchase white neighbors objected because of the Haradas Japanese ancestry and the California Alien Land Law denied them real estate ownership because they were not citizens To bypass the law Mr Harada bought the house in the names of his three youngest children who were American born citizens Neighbors protested again and the first Japanese American court test of the California Alien Land Law of 1913 The

People of California v Jukichi Harada was the result Bringing this little known story to light The House on Lemon Street details the Haradas decision to fight for the American dream Chronicling their experiences from their immigration to the United States through their legal battle over their home their incarceration during World War II and their lives after the war this book tells the story of the family s participation in the struggle for human and civil rights social justice property and legal rights and fair treatment of immigrants in the United States The Harada family s quest for acceptance illuminates the deep underpinnings of anti Asian animus which set the stage for Executive Order 9066 and recognizes fundamental elements of our nation s anti immigrant history that continue to shape the American story It will be worthwhile for anyone interested in the Japanese American experience in the twentieth century immigration history public history and law This publication was made possible with the support of Naomi Kathleen Ken and Paul Harada who donated funds in memory of their father Harold Shigetaka Harada honoring his quest for justice and civil rights Additional support for this publication was also provided in part by UCLA s Aratani Endowed Chair as well as Wallace T Kido Joel B Klein Elizabeth A Uno and Rosalind K Uno
