Road To Inamura:

The Road to Inamura Lewis William Bush, 1961 The Road to Inamura, Etc. [Autobiographical Reminiscences. With Plates, Including Portraits.] Lewis William Bush, 1961 Japan Experiences - Fifty Years, One Hundred Views Hugh Cortazzi, 2013-12-19 This unique volume comprising writings and memoirs covering the half century since the end of the Pacific War offers the reader a fascinating and remarkable collection of personal experiences of Japan across a wide spectrum Keeling's Guide to Japan W. E. L. Keeling, 1889 We Shall Suffer There Tony Banham, 2009-03-01 Tony Banham documents the experiences of Hong Kong's prisoners of war and civilian internees from their capture by the Japanese in December 1941 to liberation rescue and repatriation Foreign Communities in Hong Kong, 1840s-1950s C. Chu, 2005-10-06 This collection of essays describes adaptations of minority ethnic groups to cross cultural situations in Hong Kong from the 1840s through the 1950s It aims to portray Hong Kong history through the perspectives of foreign communities the British Germans Americans Indians and Japanese and to understand how they perceived the economic situation political administration and culture of the colony Escape from Hong Kong Tim Luard, 2011-12-01 On 25 December 1941 the day of Hong Kong's surrender to the Japanese Admiral Chan Chak the Chinese government's chief agent in Hong Kong and more than 60 Chinese and British intelligence naval and marine personnel made a dramatic escape from the invading army They travelled on five small motor torpedo boats all that remained of the Royal Navy in Hong Kong across Mirs Bay landing at a beach near Nanao Then guided by guerrillas and villagers they walked for four days through enemy lines to Huizhou before flying to Chongqing or travelling by land to Burma The breakout laid the foundations of an escape trail jointly used by the British Army Aid Group and the East River Column for the rest of the war Chan Chak the celebrated one legged admiral became Mayor of Canton after the war and was knighted by the British for his services to the Allied cause His comrade in the escape David MacDougall became head of the civil administration of Hong Kong in 1945 This gripping narrative account of the escape draws on a wealth of primary sources in both English and Chinese and sheds new light on the role played by the Chinese in the defence of Hong Kong on the diplomacy behind the escape and on the guerillas who carried the Admiral in a sedan chair as they led his party over the rivers and mountains of enemy occupied China Escape from Hong Kong will appeal not just to military historians and those with a special interest in Hong Kong and China but also to anyone who appreciates a good old fashioned adventure story Not the Slightest Chance Tony Banham, 2003 More than 10% of Hong Kong's defenders were killed in battle a further 20% died in captivity Those who survived seldom spoke of their experiences Many died young The little primary material surviving written in POW camps or years after the events is contradictory and muddled Yet with just 14 000 defending the colony it was possible to write from the individual's point of view rather than that of the Big Battalions so favoured by God according to Napoleon and most historians The book assembles a phase by phase day by day hour by hour and death by death account of the battle It considers the individual actions that made up the fighting as well as the strategies and plans and the many controversies that arose
