Road That Carried Me Here:

The Cry of the Huna Moke Kupihea, 2005-05-10 Explores the breakdown in the chain of cultural transmission that has led to the decimation of Hawaiian spirituality and how it can be restored Shows how reconnection to the ancestral ways can be achieved through letting go and forgiveness of the effects of colonization Reveals how the lessons of the decline of Hawaiian spiritual tradition reflect on other religions Clarifies the complex nature of Hawaiian ancestral worship Hawaiian spirituality teaches that individuals can be truly fulfilled only if they are conscious participants in the long ancestral chain of witnessing and transmission that connects the present to the time of origins The Cry of the Huna invokes the author's personal history as he recounts the decline of his people's spiritual tradition as a result of colonization The breakdown of the Hawaiians ties with their sacred land led them to forget not only the teachings of their ancestors but also the chain of na aumakua they form which connects this people to both the earth and the realm of the gods While the na aumakua can be viewed with reverence it is not seen or worshiped as a God Rather it is seen as a part of the chain of life that arose from one god's vision of creation Aumakua is a compound of makua parents and au the endless ancestral chain that stretches through time Each individual on earth represents a temporary end to that chain As we age and our vision of life slowly looks toward death our descendents come forth to provide the next eyes in the chain of witnessing and transmission The Cry of the Huna shows how the rupture of this chain has led to widespread alienation An endless cycle of resentment and revenge is fueled by the loss of the Hawaiians spiritual birthright The connection to the aumakua however can be reforged but only by untying the circular cords of revenge to allow forgiveness to occur in the present so that healing can take place in the future

The Story that Brought Me Here Linda Goyette, 2008 Thousands of newcomers are pouring into Alberta from around the globe bringing unexpected gifts Many are writers and storytellers What pulls them to Canada What happens to them on the journey What experiences have they deliberately left behind What treasures do they bring How do they describe their emerging sense of place and their creative aspirations in a new home In this moving collection of stories and poems writers from around the world share their thoughts on creating a life in Alberta Expressed with beauty and clarity and sometimes translated from the writer's native tongue these very personal accounts of joy and sadness regret and humour homesickness and exuberance describe the defining moments of a departure and an arrival Contributors to The Story That Brought Me Here include Jalal Barzanji Edmonton's first Writers in Exile Rita Espeschit Thuc Cong Mohammed Al Nassar Monika Igali Sabah Tahir Therezinha Franca Kennedy Sangmok Lee Sudhir Jain Yi Li Athiann Makuach Garang Marsh Hoke Tortor Maruku Reinekke Lengelle Brian Brennan A K Rashid June Smith Jeffries Magdalena Witkowsky Anna Mioduchowska Ikponwosa I K Ero and Comfort Adesuwa Ero Wilma Rubens Patricia Lopez de Vloothduis Neung jae Park Mary Cavill Mansoor Ladha Chantal Hitayezu and many others With photographs by Shabnam Sukhdev

Broken Roads Lead Me Here Colin Mackell, 2023-12-08 Broken Roads Lead Me Here tells the true life story of a boy born into unimaginable abuse in Glasgow in the sixties By the age of eight Colin had been abandoned by his mother and continued to be sexually physically emotionally and spiritually traumatised by the man she left him with Blunted by severe trauma Colin went through one unimaginable nightmare after another each more traumatising and soul shattering than the last with no one to tell and no way to understand why He wondered as he drifted through life what was to really become of him Or his half sisters All the while deep down sensing that one day it could be his last At fifteen he was thrown out of school and at sixteen he was sent to prison Colin survived rejection abandonment homelessness gang wars addiction mental illness overdoses suicide attempts and abusive adult relationships But it always seemed as if he was living on borrowed time Even as he started writing his memoir Colin had suffered a stroke and near his recovery s conclusion was then diagnosed with what was initially suspected as pancreatic cancer While Colin s diagnosis was eventually re assessed as not immediately life threatening it did leave him with a series of conditions which would continue to limit the quality of his day to day life His illnesses and his experience of this instead of instilling a sense of profound hopelessness surprisingly led him to a profound sense of inner peace clarity and re awakened purpose through his renewed faith in the real presence love forgiveness and grace of God His is a miraculous story of faith and redemption Colin Mackell is a husband father and grandfather In his professional life as Psychotherapist he has helped people who struggle to overcome drug and alcohol addiction and helps them find new meaning and explore new life paths He is also the founder of Chrysalis Supported Association Group CEO of Chrysalis Group Services providing homes and support to some of life s most vulnerable and disadvantaged people

How are they to even find this sword wherever it may be and the wizard for whom they only know a name Encountering a mischievous fairy queen and her followers vicious monsters giant spiders within ancient underground passages bounty hunters after the two thieves plus so much more Could there be bandits within the forest or a werewolf lurking about as a few believe Worst of all is the presence of a mysterious and evil vampiric being with immense power called simply The Black Shadow If he had a hand in this group coming together what purpose does he intend for them He wants them to complete their quest saving Zaylyn from the wizard and his army of creatures but why especially when he could easily take care of the problem himself <https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=59X2IYyQH0>

The Bricklayers' Secret Peter Killick,2012-12-20 This charming story about a damaged house brick not fit to be cemented into a wall is a delight to read The author has an instinctive ability as a story teller for children and has entered into the child's point of view very well He has infused a huge amount of drama and charm into this simple story The author clearly has a sense of humour which comes out in his characterisation Of all the inanimate objects a brick is probably the hardest to make appealing and characterful However he has managed it to beautiful effect

Cobblestones, Conversations, and Corks Giovanni Ruscitti,2022-08-16 Giovanni Ruscitti has written a wonderful book of special relevance for all North and South Americans whose ancestors have migrated from Asia Europe and Africa His journey to the land of his forefathers is so meaningful not only because of the discovery of what connects us Americanos to the rest of the world but also the journey within A trip in which we all feel recognized Bravo maestro Hernando de Soto finalist for Nobel Prize in Economic Sciences and author of Mystery of Capital Amazon 1 Bestseller Cobblestones Conversations and Corks is a passionate and deeply moving story about a father son relationship a culture rooted in family food and wine and an ancestral small town in Central Italy that was left behind after World War II On November 11 1943 the Nazis invaded Cansano forcing its two thousand inhabitants to make a tough decision fight and be killed or sent to a POW camp stay behind as servants to the Nazis or move into the unforgiving mountains of Abruzzo while the Nazis used their village as a home base Giovanni Ruscitti's family chose the latter and spent the next few months living in horrendous winter conditions in the rugged mountains When the war ended they returned to a village so ravaged by the Nazis that today the town has less than two hundred citizens and remains in a dilapidated state In this memoir Ruscitti visits Cansano for the first time with his family including parents Emiliano and Maria As he walks Cansano's cobblestones his father's stories and life are illuminated by the town piazza the steep valley and the surrounding mountains He relives the tales of his parents struggles during World War II their extreme post war misery and poverty their budding romance after and their decision to immigrate to the US in search of the American Dream Ruscitti's adventure is not just an exploration of his homeland but reveals what family culture wisdom and love really means And what our heritage really tells us about who we are
