Angel of Oblivion Maja Haderlap,2016-08-30 Haderlap is an accomplished poet and that lyricism leaves clear traces on this ravishing debut which won the prestigious Bachmann Prize in 2011 The descriptions are sensual and the unusual similes and metaphors occasionally change perspective unexpectedly Angel of Oblivion deals with harrowing subjects murder torture persecution and discrimination of an ethnic minority in intricate and lyrical prose The novel tells the story of a family from the Slovenian minority in Austria The first person narrator starts off with her childhood memories of rural life in a community anchored in the past Yet behind this rural idyll an unresolved conflict is smouldering At first the child wonders about the border to Yugoslavia which runs not far away from her home Then gradually the stories that the adults tell at every opportunity start to make sense All the locals are scarred by the war Her grandfather we find out was a partisan fighting the Nazis from forest hideouts Her grandmother was arrested and survived Ravensbr ck As the narrator grows older she finds out more Through conversations at family gatherings and long nights talking to her grandmother she learns that her father was arrested by the Austrian police and tortured at the age of ten to extract information on the whereabouts of his father Her grandmother lost her foster daughter and many friends and relatives in Ravensbr ck and only escaped the gas chamber by hiding inside the camp itself The narrator begins to notice the frequent suicides and violent deaths in her home region and she develops an eye for how the Slovenians are treated by the majority of German speaking Austrians As an adult the narrator becomes politicised and openly criticises the way in which Austria deals with the war and its own Nazi past In the closing section she visits Ravensbr ck and finds it strangely lifeless realising that her personal memories of her grandmother are stronger Illuminating an almost forgotten chapter of European history and the European present the book deals with family dynamics scarred by war and torture a dominant grandmother a long suffering mother a violent father who loves his children but is impossible to live with And interwoven with this is compelling reflection on storytelling the narrator hoping to rid herself of the emotional burden of her past and to tell stories on behalf of those who cannot      Gipsy Smith, His Life and Work Gipsy Smith,1908      Deliver Us from Evil Lawrence Waddington,2011-05 A young American Catholic priest Father Frank Morello volunteers to assist a seriously ill and elderly colleague working in a foreign country Arriving in an impoverished nation Father Morello does not foresee the tumult he would confront and the challenges it brings to his vocation The tempestuous Sister Carmona in charge of a religious Order of women welcomes Father Morello to the village of

San Carlos and he slowly gains the respect and devotion of the people But a brutal and treacherous dictator dominates the country who sensing the charismatic priest as a threat stages Father Morello s arrest In a sham trial a judge sentences the priest to prison Incarcerated injured and beaten by guards Father Morello encounters another inmate the former popular mayor of the city who seeks revenge for the murder of his brother ordered by the dictator Together the two escape and flee to the capitol city where friends conceal them Their plight lights the fire of revolution among the citizenry Sister Carmona urges Father Morello to lead the country in its fight for freedom but his conscience and vows as a priest reject violence Torn between his faith and his dedication to the people Father Morello must resolve a moral dilemma before the country implodes
