Robert Bellarmine Spiritual Writings:

Spiritual Writings Saint Roberto Francesco Romolo Bellarmino, 1542-1621 a Jesuit as well as a leading theologian of the Counter Reformation had an enormous effect on the religious life of his age. Here are two of his most influential ascetical works: The Mind's Ascent to God written in the tradition of Bonaventure and John Climacus and The Art of Dying Well. The Fifty Spiritual Homilies ; And, The Great Letter Pseudo-Macarius, 1992. The writings of Pseudo-Macarius, a Syrian monk of the 4th century, bring to Western Christianity a holistic heart spirituality that offers a necessary complementarity to the head spirituality of the West. The homilies reveal the typical traits of Eastern Christian asceticism and The Great Letter instructs the monastic community. Patience, Compassion, Hope, and the Christian Art of Dying Well Christopher P. Vogt, 2004. By mining the rich tradition of virtue ethics, Christopher Vogt uses the virtues of patience, compassion, and hope as a framework for specifying the shape of a good death and for naming the practices Christians should develop to live well and die well. Bringing together historical, biblical, and contemporary sources in Christian ethics, Vogt provides a long overdue theological analysis of the ars moriendi or art of dying literature of four centuries ago. Through a careful analysis of Luke's passion narrative, Vogt uses Jesus as the primary model for being patient in the face of death and for dying well. Anchoritic Spirituality Anne Savage, Nicholas Watson, 1991. Sometime in the first quarter of the 13th century, a number of works were written for anchoresses—women who lived as religious recluses in cells adjoining churches. The most influential is Ancrene Wisse: A Guide for Anchoresses, which discusses in great detail the daily life of the anchoress, both outer and inner. This work gives a detailed sense of a powerful and multifaceted spirituality, different from that of other mystics. Jesuit Writings of the Early Modern Period, 2006-09-25. Of the many Catholic religious orders established in the wake of the Protestant Reformation, none was as influential or as controversial as the Society of Jesus, better known as the Jesuit Order. Beginning with key selections from Ignatius of Loyola's Autobiography and Spiritual Exercises, the documents collected here show how the Order grew in its first hundred years from a handful of companions to an international organization praised by friends for its missionary, educational, and scholarly achievements and reviled by enemies for its influence on church and state affairs throughout the world. Headnotes to the selections provide historical, religious, and political context; footnotes identify proper names, historical events, and literary allusions and offer suggestions for further reading. A map, an index, and eighteen illustrations are also included. Complete Works Angela (of Foligno), 1993. Angela of Foligno (c. 1248-1309) is one of the most outstanding representatives of the Franciscan and Christian mystical tradition. Her book, published here in English for the first time, describes her passionate love affair with the suffering God-man and her teachings in the form of letters and exhortations to her spiritual progeny. Farid Ad-Din 'Attār's Memorial of God's Friends Farid al-Din Attar, 2009. Presents the lives and sayings of some of the most renowned figures in the Islamic Sufi tradition, translated into a contemporary American English from the Persian of the poet Farid al-Din Attar. Angels in the

McWhorter, 2024 Christian persons today might seek spiritual development and ponder the benefit of mindfulness exercises but also maintain concerns if they perceive such exercises to originate from other religious traditions Such persons may not be aware of a long tradition of meditation practice in Christianity that promotes personal growth This spiritual tradition receives a careful formulation by Christian monastic authors in the twelfth century One such teaching on meditation is found in the treatise De consideratione written by St Bernard of Clairvaux d 1153 to Pope Eugene III d 1153 In textual passages where St Bernard exhibits a clear concern for the mental health of the Pope due to numerous ongoing ecclesial political and military problems St Bernard reminds Eugene III of his original monastic vocation and the meditation exercises associated with that vocation The advice that St Bernard gives to Eugene III can be received today in a way that provides a structure for Christian meditation practice which is relevant for personal development spiritual direction and civil psychotherapy that integrates a client's spirituality into the course of treatment St Bernard thus might be interpreted as a teacher of a kind of Christian mindfulness that can benefit both a person's mental health as well as a person's relationship with God Meditation as Spiritual Therapy examines the historical context of Bernard's work his purpose for writing it as well as the numerous Christian sources he drew upon to formulate his teaching Bernard's teaching on the course of meditation itself is explored in depth and in dialogue with his other treatises letters and sermons Lastly a contemporary summary of Bernard's teaching is provided with reflections concerning the relationship of this teaching to contemporary spiritual direction and spiritually integrated civil psychotherapy Caravaggio David M.
