The Theatre of Robert Wilson Arthur Holmberg, 1996 The first comprehensive study of the leading American avant garde theatre director Robert Wilson space.time.narrative Frank den Ouden, 2016-12-05 Making exhibitions is a collaborative art producing is a multi layered unity of ideas and objects of invention and manifestation of content and form

However there is an antagonistic dimension to it because content and form are traditionally represented by the entirely different realms of curator and designer Future successful developments in exhibition making are dependent on whether this gap of antagonism can be bridged space time narrative calls for a paradigmatic shift of focus It puts forward a unique approach breaking down traditional barriers and offering a wide ranging theoretical context redefining and expanding the parameters and the dynamics of the exhibition format in terms of an open narrative environment which at its roots displays deep similarities with performance on stage or installation in urban and rural space The book breaks new ground by looking at the exhibition as a cultural format firstly within a great sweep of the arts in general weaving a web of philosophical museological linguistic and media theoretical references which expands the contextual field of the profession It then offers unique and important insights from within in extreme close up by bringing together interviews with six of the leading exhibition designers who discuss the dynamics of the medium its interactive dimensions the soft parameters of the exhibition and how to get to grips with the format as a complex narrative space in which the public takes part Curator and designer should reposition themselves professionally at the heart of the axis which divides or connects content and form Robert Wilson's vision; an exhibition of works by Robert Wilson, with a sound environment by Hans Peter Kuhn ,1991

Rennert,2004 This collection of articles by both German literature specialists and German theater experts grew out of the Comparative Drama Conference held annually between February and March from 1977 to 1999 in Gainesville Florida At the center of the contributors work is the productive tension between the literary and the performance aspects of German drama and theater At the same time the reception is truly American since the German playwrights directors theorists and dramatists discussed have gone through creative filters in the researching performing and teaching of German drama and theater on various campuses across the United States during the last third of the twentieth century Artists' SoHo Richard Kostelanetz,2015-01-02 During the 1960s and 1970s in New York City young artists exploited an industrial wasteland to create spacious studios where they lived and worked redefining the Manhattan area just south of Houston Street Its use fueled not by city planning schemes but by word of mouth recommendations the area soon grew to become a world class center for artistic creation indeed the largest urban artists colony ever in America let alone the world Richard Kostelanetz s Artists SoHo not only examines why the artists came and how they accomplished what they did but also delves into the lives and works of some of the most creative personalities who lived there during that period including Nam June Paik Robert Wilson Meredith Monk Richard Foreman Hannah Wilke George Macuinias and Alan Suicide Gallerists followed the artists in fashioning themselves their homes their buildings and even their streets into transiently prominent exhibition and performance spaces SoHo pioneer Richard Kostelanetz s extensively researched intimate history is framed within a personal memoir that unearths myriad perspectives social and cultural history the changing rules for residency and ownership the ethos of the community the physical layouts of the lofts the types of art produced venues that opened and closed the daily rhythm and the gradual invasion of new people Artists SoHo also explores how and why this fertile bohemia couldn't last forever As wealthier people paid higher prices galleries left younger artists settled elsewhere and the neighborhood became a SoHo Mall of trendy stores and restaurants Compelling and often humorous Artists SoHo provides an analysis of a remarkable neighborhood that transformed the art and culture of New York City over the past five decades Hamlet in Pieces Andy Lavender, 2003-02-12 Within the space of a year between 1995 and 1996 three highly unusual shows were produced by three celebrated figures in world theatre Qui Est La directed by Peter Brook Elsinore directed by Robert Lepage and Hamlet a monologue directed by Robert Wilson Each was a version at least in part of Shakespeare's Hamlet although none of them treated the show in anything like an orthodox manner Robert Wilson's Vision Trevor J.
