Robert Browning S. Wood,2001-05-04 Browning both denied and affirmed the value of biography for an understanding of literature This book narrates the development of his controversial creative life through responses to his work by five key nineteenth century figures John Stuart Mill William Charles Macready Thomas Carlyle John Ruskin and Matthew Arnold It also relates Browning's sense of literary vocation to Victorian publishing Browning emerges as a writer vividly engaged with contemporary assumptions yet deeply aware of the unaccountability of writing

Masculinity in Four Victorian Epics Clinton Machann,2016-05-06 Offering provocative readings of Tennyson's Idylls of the King Barrett Browning's Aurora Leigh Clough's Amours de Voyage and Browning's The Ring and the Book Clinton Machann brings to bear the ideas and methods of literary Darwinism to shed light on the central issue of masculinity in the Victorian epic This critical approach enables Machann to take advantage of important research in evolutionary psychology cognitive science anthropology among other scientific fields and to bring the concept of human nature into his discussions of the poems The importance of the Victorian long poem as a literary genre is reviewed in the introduction followed by transformative close readings of the poems that engage with questions of gender particularly representations of masculinity and the prevalence of male violence Machann contextualizes his reading within the poet's views on social philosophical and religious issues arguing that the impulses drives and tendencies of human nature as well as the historical and cultural context influenced the writing and thus must inform the interpretation of the Victorian epic
