Roberto Zucco:

Roberto Zucco Bernard-Marie Koltes, 2006-10-11 The last play by legendary French writer Bernard Marie Koltes was a pioneer of a wholly new style of dramatic writing The Times Who is Roberto Zucco A prisoner or a secret agent A lover or a rapist A chameleon or a rhino A peace loving student or a killer on the run In a series of poetic fast moving scenes Koltes takes his hero on a mythical journey through a landscape of strange and violent beauty Crime and Media in Contemporary France Deborah Streifford Reisinger, 2007 Reisinger examines contemporary French society's relationship with violence in an era of increased media dominance The study's innovative and interdisciplinary approach integrates media cinema and literary studies to analyze how crime news functions as a site of discursive struggle By situating these crime stories in a larger historical and political context she analyzes how media and politicians use the crime story as a tool for upholding the dominant ideology Roberto Zucco, 1999 Performing the Role of Roberto Zucco in the Play Roberto Zucco by Bernard Marie Koltes Translation by Martin Crimp Carlos Josue Alejandro, University of Florida Digital Collections, 2012 In partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Degree of Master of Fine Arts I recreated the title role in Bernard Marie Koltes' Roberto Zucco which I performed January 27 February 12 2012 at the University of Florida under the direction of Dr Ralf Remshardt This paper documents the research and creative process from before rehearsals began through the final performance Part I analyzes the play itself why it was written and its themes Part II documents my research including an in depth character analysis Part III examines the rehearsal process its challenges and lessons Finally Part IV explores the performance its challenges and a self evaluation of the performance process Roberto Zucco Bryan Stephen Lussier, University of Florida Digital Collections, 2012 Roberto Zucco by Bernard Marie Koltes was a realized dramatic production that was presented by the University of Florida School of Theatre and Dance It was performed in the Nadine McGuire Black Box Theater during the Spring of 2012 The process for this production began in the Fall of 2011 with design meetings and evolved over the following six months culminating on opening night as a theatrical production I served as the lighting designer for this production During the process I analyzed the script and worked with the director and design team to develop and execute our concept for this production The process also included storyboarding developing a lighting plot and cue score as well as hanging focusing and programming sessions The conclusion of the process was a series of live performances with audiences during January and February 2012 Field Studies Holger Briel, Carol Fehringer, 2005 The fifteen essays in this volume reflect the diversity of German studies in Britain and Ireland today The German language itself is the focus of four studies covering historical aspects of German and Yiddish language pedagogy and controversial contemporary issues such as the rise of Anglicisms in German and the language of second and third generation immigrants Traditional literary philology is also well represented in six essays on prose writers and dramatists from the nineteenth century to the present day but it is a traditional philology that has been much modified and enriched by the cultural and historical perspectives evident in the remaining five essays These include psychoanalytical and contextual studies and embrace the historical development and elaboration of mass media technologies from radio to public access cable TV
