Roberto Zucco Suivi De Tabataba:

Crime and Media in Contemporary France Deborah Streifford Reisinger, 2007 Reisinger examines contemporary French society's relationship with violence in an era of increased media dominance. The study's innovative and interdisciplinary approach integrates media, cinema, and literary studies to analyze how crime news functions as a site of discursive struggle. By situating these crime stories in a larger historical and political context, she analyzes how media and politicians use the crime story as a tool for upholding the dominant ideology. Love and Sexuality Sarah F. Donachie, Kim Harrison, 2005. The papers collected in this volume are selected from the proceedings of the Love and Sexuality conference held at the University of Leeds in 2002. They bring together a cross section of new directions in the study of love and sexuality currently being explored in French Studies. The central focus of the collection is the representation of love, desire, erotica, and sexuality in the couple, in particular in relation to depictions of women. The contributions share a common concern with problematising issues of love and sexuality across various disciplines, focusing on literary texts, cinema, gender studies, theatre studies, history, visual iconography, and cultural studies, and ranging from the sixteenth century to the present day. Roberto Zucco, suivi de Tabataba - Coco Bernard-Marie Koltès, 2011-01-11T00:00:00+01:00. Un trajet

Roberto Zucco est paru en 1990. The Pink and the Black Frédéric Martel, 1999. While acknowledging that the development of France's homosexual communities was influenced by America, Martel highlights the differences arising from the fact that homosexuality has not been criminalised in France as in the United States. back cover

American 'Unculture' in French Drama Les Essif, 2013-03-25. A book about the role America plays in the French imagination as it translates to the French stage. Informed by a rich variety of Western cultural scholarship, Essif examines two dozen post-1960 works representing some of the most innovative dramaturgy of the last half century, including works by Gatti Obaldia, Cixous, Koltes, and Vinaver. Roberto Zucco ; suivi de Tabataba Bernard-Marie Koltès, 1990. Essays on twentieth-century French playwrights who were largely influenced by non-French traditions during the greatest age of French theater since the mid-1700s. French drama of the twentieth century was cosmopolitan, experimental, and eclectic, and attempted to appeal to a wider audience than in the past. Dramatists came not only from Paris but from the provinces and the French states of the Caribbean as well as from Francophone countries such as Belgium.
