Practices of Diplomacy in the Early Modern World c.1410-1800 Tracey A. Sowerby, Jan Hennings, 2017-05-12 Practices of Diplomacy in the Early Modern World offers a new contribution to the ongoing reassessment of early modern international relations and diplomatic history Divided into three parts it provides an examination of diplomatic culture from the Renaissance into the eighteenth century and presents the development of diplomatic practices as more complex multifarious and globally interconnected than the traditional state focussed national paradigm allows The volume addresses three central and intertwined themes within early modern diplomacy who and what could claim diplomatic agency and in what circumstances the social and cultural contexts in which diplomacy was practised and the role of material culture in diplomatic exchange Together the chapters provide a broad geographical and chronological presentation of the development of diplomatic practices and through a strong focus on the processes and significance of cultural exchanges between polities demonstrate how it was possible for diplomats to negotiate the cultural codes of the courts to which they were sent This exciting collection brings together new and established scholars of diplomacy from different academic traditions It will be essential reading for all students of diplomatic history

Communication and Colonialism in Eastern India Nitin Sinha, 2014-10-01 Through a regional focus on Bihar between the 1760s and 1880s Communication and Colonialism in Eastern India reveals the shifting and contradictory nature of the colonial state's policies and discourses on communication The volume explores the changing relationship between trade transport and mobility in India as evident in the trading and mercantile networks operating at various scales of the economy Of crucial importance to this study are the ways in which knowledge about roads and routes was collected through practices of travel tours surveys and map making all of which benefited the state in its attempts to structure a regime that would regulate undesirable forms of mobility

Encounters on the Opposite Coast: The Dutch East India Company and the Nayaka State of Madurai in the Seventeenth Century Markus Vink, 2015-10-14 In Encounters of the Opposite Coast Markus Vink provides a narrative of the first half century of cross cultural interaction between the Dutch East India Company VOC one of the great northern European chartered companies and Madurai one of the great southern Nayakas and successor states of the Vijayanagara empire in southeast India c 1645 1690 A shared interest in trade and at times converging political objectives formed the unstable foundations for a complex relationship fraught with tensions a mixture of conflict and coexistence typical of the age of contained conflict Drawing extensively on archival materials Markus Vink covers a topic neglected by both Company historians and their Indian counterparts and sheds important light on a black hole in South Indian history

India and the Islamic Heartlands Gagan Sood, 2016-03-29 Gagan D S Sood recaptures a vanished and forgotten world that spanned India and the Islamic heartlands in the eighteenth century

The King and the People Abhishek Kaicker, 2020-02-03 An original exploration of the relationship between the Mughal emperor and his subjects in the space of the Mughal empire's capital The King and the People overturns an axiomatic assumption in the history of premodern South Asia that the urban masses were merely passive objects of rule and remained unable to express collective political aspirations until the coming of colonialism Set in the Mughal capital of Shahjahanabad Delhi from its founding to Nadir Shah's devastating invasion of 1739 this book instead shows how the trends and events in the second half of the seventeenth century inadvertently set the stage for the emergence of the people as actors in a regime which saw them only as the ruled Drawing on a wealth of sources from the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries this book is the first comprehensive account of the dynamic relationship between ruling authority and its urban subjects in an era that until recently was seen as one of only decline By placing ordinary people at the centre of its narrative this wide ranging work offers fresh perspectives on imperial sovereignty on the rise of an urban culture of political satire and on the place of the practices of faith in the work of everyday politics It unveils a formerly invisible urban panorama of soldiers and poets merchants and shoemakers who lived and died in the shadow of the Red Fort during an era of both dizzying turmoil and heady possibilities As much an account of politics and ideas as a history of the city and its people this lively and lucid book will be equally of value for specialists students and lay readers interested in the lives and ambitions of the mass of ordinary inhabitants of India s historic capital three hundred years ago

The Dangers of Gifts from Antiquity to the Digital Age

Alexandra Urakova, Tracey A. Sowerby, Tudor Sala, 2022-09-09 This is the first volume that examines dangerous gift giving across centuries and disciplines Bringing to the fore the subject that features as an aside in gift studies it offers new insights into the ambivalent and troubled history of gift giving Dangerous violent and self destructive gift giving remains an alluring challenge for scholars almost a hundred years after Marcel Mauss s landmark work on the gift Globally the notion of toxic and fateful gifts has haunted mythologies folklores and literatures for millennia This book problematizes what stands behind the notion of the dangerous gift and demonstrates how this operational term may help us to better understand the role and place of gift giving from antiquity to the present through a series of case studies ranging from ancient Zoroastrianism to modern digital dating The book develops a complex historical cross cultural and multi disciplinary approach to gift giving that invites comparisons between various facets of this phenomenon through time and across societies The book will interest a wide range of scholars working in anthropology history literary criticism religious studies and contemporary digital culture It will primarily appeal to university educators and researchers of political culture pre modern religion social relations and the relationship between commerce and gifts

The Arabian Frontier of the British Raj James Onley, 2007-11-22

The Arabian Frontier of the British Raj is a study of one of the most forbidding frontier zones of Britain s Indian Empire The Gulf Residency responsible for Britain s relationship with Eastern Arabia and Southern Persia was part of an extensive network of political residencies that surrounded and protected British India Based on extensive archival research in both the Gulf and Britain this book examines how Britain s Political Resident in the Gulf and his very small cadre of British officers maintained the Pax Britannica on the waters of the Gulf protected British interests throughout the region and managed political relations with the dozens of Arab rulers and governors on both shores of the Gulf James Onley looks at the secret to the Gulf Residency s effectiveness the extent to which the British worked within the indigenous political systems of the Gulf He examines the way in which Arab rulers in need of protection collaborated with the Resident to maintain the Pax Britannica while influential men from affluent Arab Persian and Indian merchant families served as the Resident s native agents compradors in over half

Bankrolling Empire Sudev Sheth, 2023-11-30 By the 1660s the mighty Mughal Empire controlled the Indian subcontinent and impressed the world with its strength and opulence Yet hardly two decades would pass before fortunes would turn Mughal kings and governors losing influence to rival warlords and foreign powers How could leaders of one of the most dominant early modern polities lose their grip over empire Sudev Sheth proposes a new point of departure focusing on diverse local and hitherto unexplored evidence about a prominent financier family entrenched in bankrolling Mughal elites and their successors Analyzing how four generations of the Jhaveri family of Gujarat financed politics he offers a fresh take on the dissolution of the Mughal empire the birth of princely successor states and the nature of economic life in the days leading up to the colonial domination of India      Ethnography and Encounter Guido van Meersbergen, 2021-10-18 The global operations of the East India Companies were profoundly shaped by European perceptions of foreign lands Providing a cultural perspective absent from existing economic and institutional histories Ethnography and Encounter is the first book to systematically explore how Company agents understandings of and attitudes towards Asian peoples and societies informed institutional approaches to trade diplomacy and colonial governance Its fine grained comparisons of Dutch and English activities in seventeenth century South Asia show how corporate ethnography was produced how it underpinned given modes of conduct and how it illuminates connections across space and time Ethnography and Encounter identifies deep commonalities between Dutch and English discourses and practices their indebtedness to pan European ethnographic traditions and their centrality to wider histories of European expansion      India, Modernity and the Great Divergence Kaveh Yazdani, 2017-01-05 India Modernity and the Great Divergence is an original and pioneering book about India's transition towards modernity and the rise of the West The work examines global entanglements alongside the internal dynamics of 17th to 19th century Mysore and Gujarat in comparison to other regions of Afro Eurasia It is an interdisciplinary survey that enriches our historical understanding of South Asia ranging across the fascinating and intertwined worlds of modernizing rulers wealthy merchants curious scholars utopian poets industrious peasants and skilled artisans Bringing together socio economic and political structures warfare techno scientific innovations knowledge production and transfer of ideas this book forces us to rethink the reasons behind the emergence of the modern world      Early Modern European Diplomacy Dorothee Goetze, Lena Oetzel, 2023-12-31 New Diplomatic History has turned into one of the most dynamic and innovative areas of research especially with regard to early modern history It has shown that diplomacy was not as homogenous as previously thought On the contrary it was shaped by a multitude of actors practices and places The handbook aims to characterise these different manifestations of diplomacy and to contextualise them within ongoing scientific debates It brings together scholars from different disciplines and historiographical traditions The handbook deliberately focuses on European diplomacy

although non European areas are taken into account for future research in order to limit the framework and ensure precise definitions of diplomacy and its manifestations This must be the prerequisite for potential future global historical perspectives including both the non European and the European world      The Routledge Companion to Fashion Studies Eugenia Paulicelli, Veronica Manlow, Elizabeth Wissinger, 2021-09-19 This collection of original essays interrogates disciplinary boundaries in fashion gathering fashion studies research across disciplines and from around the globe Fashion and clothing are part of material and visual culture cultural memory and heritage they contribute to shaping the way people see themselves interact and consume For each of the volume s eight parts scholars from across the world and a variety of disciplines offer analytical tools for further research Never neglecting the interconnectedness of disciplines and domains these original contributions survey specific topics and critically discuss the leading views in their areas They include discursive and reflective pieces as well as discussions of original empirical work and contributors include established leaders in the field rising stars and new voices including practioner and industry voices This is a comprehensive overview of the field ideal not only for undergraduate and postgraduate fashion studies students but also for researchers and students in communication studies the humanities gender and critical race studies social sciences and fashion design and business

Women, Wealth and the State in Early Colonial India Nicholas J Abbott, 2024-08-25 Few polities were more instrumental to the rise of the East India Company and the advent of British colonial rule in South Asia than the Mughal successor state of Awadh c 1722 1856 And few individuals influenced the making of the Awadh regime and its pivotal relationship with the Company more than the chief consorts begams of its ruling dynasty Drawing on previously unexamined Persian sources this book centres the begams of Awadh within a revised history of state formation and conceptual change in pre and early colonial India In so doing it posits the begams as essential if contested builders of both the Awadh regime and the Company state and as ambivalent partners in forging evolving political economies and emerging conceptual languages of statehood and sovereignty in early colonial India      Boundless Worlds Peter Wynn Kirby, 2009 Where lived experience of surroundings is shifting visceral and immersive interpretation of social spaces tends to be static and remote Space and place are also often analyzed without grappling much if at all with the social political and historical roots of spatial practice This volume embarks upon the novel strategy of focusing on movement as a way of understanding social spaces which offers a means to get beyond biases inherent in the social science of space Ethnographic studies of social life in settings as varied as nomadic Mongolia and island Melanesia as distinct as contemporary Tokyo and war torn Palestine challenge Western assumptions about the universality of space and allow concrete understanding of how life plays out over different socio cultural topographies In a world that is becoming increasingly bounded in many ways despite enormous changes wrought by technological ideological and other social developments Boundless Worlds urges a scholarly turn away from the purely global toward the human dimension of social lives lived in conditions of conflict upheaval remapping and improvisation through
