Risāle-i Mi'māriyye Ca'fer Efendi, 1987 A Grammar of the Turkish Language Arthur L. Davids, 1832 A Grammar of the Turkish Language Arthur Lumley Davids, 1832 The Oxford Turkish Grammar Gerjan van Schaaijk, 2020 This volume is a comprehensive grammar of the Turkish language suitable both for students of the Turkish language and linguistic scholars It explores all aspects of Turkish from basic pronunciation to sentence structure and advanced topics such as relative and embedded clauses Evidences of Turkish Misrule Henry Richard, 1877 The Changing Face of the "Native Speaker" Nikolay Slavkov, Sílvia Melo-Pfeifer, Nadja Kerschhofer-Puhalo, 2021-11-22 The notion of the native speaker and its undertones of ultimate language competence language ownership and social status has been problematized by various researchers arguing that the ensuing monolingual norms and assumptions are flawed or inequitable in a global super diverse world However such norms are still ubiquitous in educational institutional and social settings in political structures and in research paradigms This collection offers voices from various contexts and corners of the world and further challenges the native speaker construct adopting poststructuralist and postcolonial perspectives It includes conceptual methodological educational and practice oriented contributions Topics span language minorities intercomprehension plurilingualism and pluriculturalism translanguageing teacher education new speakers language background profiling heritage languages and learner identity among others Collectively the authors paint the portrait of the changing face of the native speaker while also strengthening a new global agenda in multilingualism and social justice These diverse and interconnected contributions are meant to inspire researchers university students educators policy makers and beyond Turkish Migration Conference 2015 Selected Proceedings Ibrahim Sirkeci, Güven Şeker, Ali Tilbe, Mustafa Ökmen, Pinar Yazgan, Deniz Eroğlu, 2015 This book is a collection of selected papers presented at the 3rd Turkish Migration Conference TMC TMC 2015 was hosted by Charles University Prague Czech Republic from 25 to 27 June 2015 The TMC 2015 was the third event in the series that we were proud to organise and host at Charles University Prague This selection of papers presented at the conference are only a small portion of contributions Many other papers are included in edited books and submitted to refereed journals in due course There were a total of about 146 papers by over 200 authors presented in 40 parallel sessions and three plenary sessions at Jinonice Campus of Charles University Prague About a fifth of the sessions at the conference were in Turkish language although the main language was English Therefore some of the proceedings are in Turkish too The keynote speakers included Douglas Massey of Princeton University Caroline Brettell of Southern Methodist University and Nedim Gürsel of CNRS The Railway Times ..., 1877 Ghetto Ideologies, Youth Identities and Stylized Turkish German H. Julia Eksner, 2007 This book explores the language ideologies and linguistic practices of a group of working class German Turkish males during the late 1990s It shows with ethnographic detail that Germany's infamous kanak sprak is actually only one of several codes available to this group of immigrant youths and is used consciously and intentionally Based on eight months of fieldwork this study details how in the creation of this new code is created as a metalinguistic symbol of identity and how it is used to index collective group identity Series Spektrum Berliner Reihe zu Gesellschaft Wirtschaft und Politik in 2016 Selected Papers Jeffrey H. Cohen, Deniz Eroglu, Ibrahim Sirkeci, 2016-11-15 Turkish Migration 2016 Selected Papers Compiled by Deniz Eroglu Jeffrey H Cohen Ibrahim Sirkeci offers a selection of papers presented at the Migration Conference 2016 held in Vienna Austria The pieces collected here are just a sample of the work that was presented at the 2016 Turkish Migration conference Our meeting the 4th symposium on Turkish migration brought together scholars from around the globe to share their research and debate mobility As in our earlier symposia we explored demography sociology culture and art as they are related to mobility New this year was an increasing awareness of the return of Turks to Turkey from Germany the challenges faced by Syrian refugees who have settled in Turkey or are passing through the country on their way to Europe as well as issues facing Kurdish minorities Roma and other minority groups living in or transiting through Turkey This collection is challenged by two competing poles One pole is centered in xenophobic nationalism Around this pole migrants and refugees are described as criminals religious fanatics and moochers who challenge the working class and the freedoms that come with life in the West The second pole laments the insecurity that migrants and refugees face Around this pole movers are described as victims who lack so much at home In this example migrants and refugees are moving because there are no jobs and few prospects for work civil liberties are proscribed and banned in the face of state imposed limits and there are no opportunities to strike out on a unique path to the future Complicating both poles is the 24 hour news cycle that denies us the opportunity to understand and analyze Instead we are forced to pick one pole or the other In either case the outcome dehumanizes the mover signals their pathos and emphasizes why they are different James Baldwin's Turkish Decade Magdalena J. Zaborowska, 2009-01-16 Between 1961 and 1971 James Baldwin spent extended periods of time in Turkey where he worked on some of his most important books In this first in depth exploration of Baldwin s Turkish decade Magdalena J Zaborowska reveals the significant role that Turkish locales cultures and friends played in Baldwin s life and thought Turkey was a nurturing space for the author who by 1961 had spent nearly ten years in France and Western Europe and failed to reestablish permanent residency in the United States Zaborowska demonstrates how Baldwin s Turkish sojourns enabled him to re imagine himself as a black queer writer and to revise his views of American identity and U S race relations as the 1960s drew to a close Following Baldwin s footsteps through Istanbul Ankara and Bodrum Zaborowska presents many never published photographs new information from Turkish archives and original interviews with Turkish artists and intellectuals who knew Baldwin and collaborated with him on a play that he directed in 1969 She analyzes the effect of his experiences on his novel Another Country 1962 and on two volumes of his essays The Fire Next Time 1963 and No Name in the Street 1972 and she explains how Baldwin s time in Turkey informed his ambivalent relationship to New York his responses to the American South and his decision to settle in southern France James Baldwin's Turkish Decade expands the knowledge of Baldwin's role as a transnational African American intellectual casts new light on his later works and suggests ways of reassessing his earlier writing in relation to ideas of exile and migration Identity and Turkish Foreign Policy Umut Uzer, 2010-12-18 Most analysts agree that Turkey's foreign policy is essentially peaceful using diplomacy and multilateralism in the resolution of its conflicts with other states Here Umut Uzer offers a necessary corrective to this standard analysis by revealing the Kemalist influence in Turkey's state ideology This defined the identity of the state as Turkish resulting in responsibilities towards Turks residing beyond its borders and a more engaged foreign policy that ranged from declarations of support for ethnic kin outside Turkey to outright takeover of territory Focusing on the annexation of Hatay from Syria in 1939 Turkey's involvement in Cyprus culminating in a military operation in 1974 and its policy toward the Karabagh dispute between Azerbaijan and Armenia in the 1990s Identity and Turkish Foreign Policy is indispensable for all those interested in Middle East politics and international relations as well as Turkey more specifically
