'We Belong to Them' Tünde Puskás, 2009 This book explores what happens with ethnic and national identifications built on the same ethnocultural grounds but under different socioeconomic circumstances Territorial and non territorial minorities have traditionally been considered not susceptible to comparison because it was assumed that groups organized on different grounds were distinctively separate phenomena In this study the comparative method is used to throw new light on how ethnic and national identifications are constructed negotiated and re constructed in territorial and non territorial minority contexts The author investigates whether the ethnic and national identification and articulation processes of Hungarians in Slovakia and Hungarians in Sweden constitute different types of Hungarianness Drawing on extensive interview material the empirical focus is on the interaction of self narratives and public narratives The author seeks to challenge the notion that national minorities and diaspora communities are fundamentally different in their understanding of nationhood and their relationship to an external national homeland

Drinking Mare's Milk on the Roof of the World Tom Lutz, 2016-06-21 I am inordinately proud of my travels and at the same time embarrassed by my pride in them I feel alternately overflowing and empty replete with gratitude for my good fortune and abashed at the overentitled obsessive nature of my need to continue I feel sometimes like the most interesting man in the world sometimes like the most obtuse I am driven onward and yet even as I chart my next adventure I remain unsure why I should want to unclear why I need to And I do need to The road beckons me and always has But am I running toward something Running away Is there a difference from the foreword Tom Lutz is addicted to journeying Sometimes he stops at the end of the road sometimes he travels further In this richly packed portmanteau of traveler s tales we accompany him as he drives beyond the blacktop in Morocco to the Saharan dunes on the Algerian border and east of Ankara into the Hittite ruins of Bo azkale We ride alongside as he hitches across Uzbekistan and the high mountain passes of Kyrgyzstan into western China We catch up with him as he traverses the shores of a lake in Malawi and disappear with him into the disputed areas of the Ukraine and Moldova We follow his footsteps through the swamps of Sri Lanka the wilds of Azerbaijan the plains of Tibet the casinos of Tanzania the peasant hinterlands of Romania and Albania and the center of Swaziland where we join him in watching the king pick his next wife All along the way we witness his perplexity in trying to understand a compulsion to keep moving ever onward to the ends of the earth
