seemed necessary to provide a reliable criterion for deciding when a particular sentence or statement is meaningless But devising such a criterion has proved to be very difficult In fact in recent years many philosophers have become quite skeptical about the adequacy of the standard criteria of meaninglessness Some of the more radical skeptics have even argued that the concept of meaninglessness as it is used by philosophers is itself defective and would be even if an adequate criterion could be found Professor Erwin in a systematic study of the concept of meaninglessness begins by examining the standard criteria of meaninglessness proposed by philosophers These criteria include operationalist verificationist and type or category criteria Each of these criteria he argues is inadequate Erwin then turns to the question What kinds of items if any should be said to be meaningless Most philosophers concerned with this question have claimed that only sentences not statements or propositions can be meaningless Erwin argues however that this is wrong statements and propositions can be meaningless Once this is demonstrated it can then be shown that the more radical skepticism about the philosophic use of the concept of meaninglessness is misguided In particular Erwin shows that the following assertions of the radical skeptic are false that what is meaningless is relative to a given language or to a given time and that the concept of meaninglessness forces us to condemn as nonsense metaphors comprehensible to competent speakers of English In his concluding chapter Erwin considers the implications of there not being any adequate general criterion of meaninglessness He then tries to show how the concept of meaninglessness when interpreted in the manner he suggests can be profitably used by philosophers despite the many persuasive objections to its use that philosophers have raised in their disputes over it

years Interviewees come from 12 different countries that vary in perceived cultural distance from Sweden The findings suggest that identifications with old er age and migrancy seem to be dynamic and flexible rather than necessarily permanently meaningful thus gaining meaning in specific situations and in relation to particular Others External definitions furthermore do not always seem to match with internal ones Regardless of how old er age and migrancy are constructed they seem to be negotiable This dissertation thus contributes to identity research by studying old er age and migrancy together and furthermore sheds light onto how the social constructionist lens allows us to see variability where stability otherwise would be presumed Identitetsforskning r rande etnicitet och migration har huvudsakligen fokuserat p yngre medan identitetsforskning kring ldre och ldrande inte har fokuserat p utrikesf dda Som en konsekvens d rav har identitetsforskningen inte studerat h g re lder och invandrarskap tillsammans en lucka som denna avhandling avser att fylla Avhandlingen utg r ifr n en socialkonstruktionistisk f rst else av identitet som situationsbunden och formad genom samspelet mellan hur man definierar sig sj lv internt och hur andra definierar en externt Fr gorna som v cks genom detta perspektiv och som avhandlingen fokuserar p r N r i vilka situationer och i f rh llande till vem verkar h g re lder respektive invandrarskap bli betydelsefulla f r identifikationer Hur verkar identitetskategorierna h g re lder och invandrarskap f rhandlas Det empiriska materialet best r av djupintervjuer med 24 utrikesf dda ldre 13 m n 11 kvinnor i ldrarna mellan 55 och 79 som har bott i Sverige mellan 18 och 61 r Intervjupersonerna kommer fr n 12 olika l nder med olika upplevt kulturellt avst nd fr n Sverige Resultaten tyder p att identifikationer med h g re lder och invandrarskap r dynamiska och flexibla snarare n n dv ndigtvis permanent meningsfulla och f r d rmed betydelse i vissa situationer och i f rh llande till s rskilda andra Externa definitioner verkar inte alltid st mma verens med interna definitioner Oavsett hur h g re lder och invandrarskap r konstruerade s framst r de som f rhandlingsbara Avhandlingen bidrar d rmed till identitetsforskningen genom att studera h g re lder och invandrarskap tillsammans och belyser dessutom hur det socialkonstruktionistiska perspektivet till ter oss att se variation och f r nderlighet d r stabilitet annars f ruts tts
