Language Learning in Children Who Are Deaf and Hard of Hearing Susan R. Easterbrooks, 2021 Language Learning in Children who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing 2nd Edition Theory to Classroom Practice is the long awaited revision of the only textbook on primary language instruction written with classroom teachers of deaf and hard of hearing children TODs in mind It builds on the work of the previous version while providing the reader with access to the entire first version on a supplemental website An important feature of this book is that it describes four real TODs and demonstrates application of concepts discussed to the DHH children on their caseloads Up to date chapters on theory of language learning assessment and evidence based practice replace removed chapters Chapters on English and American Sign Language ASL structure and on the three major approaches listening and spoken language bilingual bimodal instruction and ASL instruction are updated The chapters on teaching vocabulary and morphosyntax how to ask and answer questions and writing language objectives for Individualized Education Plans IEPs are expanded DHH Specific examples of real cases are incorporated throughout the book Finally after a theoretical base of information on language instruction many of the chapter provide language teachers with specific examples of how to answer the question What should I do on Monday It avoids promotion of one or another philosophy presenting all and demonstrating the commonalities across classroom language instruction approaches for DHH children

The Sunshine Land David Wedd, 2007-02-16 Fifty years ago David Wedd was a young army officer in West Africa's Gold Coast when that country became Ghana the first black African colony to gain independence from British rule In an account that is by turns exciting funny and poignant he depicts the changeover from the inside His lively portrait of the emerging nation introduces us to a whole gallery of characters the European and African soldiers in his Battalion traders and market women religious leaders and witch doctors sportsmen teachers and musicians and political leaders including Ghana's first Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah He tells of his work as an intelligence officer in the new nation and his exploration of the rain forest with its exotic scenery and wildlife and he shares with us his journey north through Burkina Faso and Mali to the Sahara Desert and the old town of Timbuktu Throughout these pages his love of West Africa with its varied landscapes and above all its exuberant people is inescapable

The Assault Reinaldo Arenas, 1995-06-01 In this the final volume in the series of five novels that constitute his secret history of Cuba Reinaldo Arenas paints a harrowing and at times boldly entertaining Kafkaesque picture of a dehumanized people living in a world where homosexuality is a crime punishable by death and a cockroach hunt makes for a national holiday Narrated by a hate filled government torturer who has become an agent for the Bureau of Counterwhispering The Assault follows his travels through a blackly humorous shadowland as he winnow out whisperers sexual deviants and dissidents of every sort until memory has been banished and spoken language has been nearly forgotten
