People who say it's better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all have never really loved anyone and never really lost anyone either.
