Sayles Talk New Perspectives On Independent Filmmaker John Sayles:

Sayles Talk Diane Carson, Heidi Kenaga, 2006 The first collection of original essays on the work of writer director John Sayles this book addresses the full range of his films from a variety of critical viewpoints John Sayles David R. Shumway, 2012-03-15 John Sayles is the very paradigm of the contemporary independent filmmaker By raising much of the funding for his films himself Sayles functions more independently than most directors and he has used his freedom to write and produce films with a distinctive personal style and often clearly expressed political positions From The Return of the Secaucus Seven to Sunshine State his films have consistently expressed progressive political positions on issues including race gender sexuality class and disability In this study David R Shumway examines the defining characteristic of Sayles's cinema its realism Positioning the filmmaker as a critical realist Shumway explores Sayles's attention to narrative in critically acclaimed and popular films such as Matewan Eight Men Out Passion Fish and Lone Star The study also details the conditions under which Sayles's films have been produced distributed and exhibited affecting the way in which these films have been understood and appreciated In the process Shumway presents Sayles as a teacher who tells historically accurate stories that invite audiences to consider the human world they all inhabit The Psychology of Religion and Place Victor Counted, Fraser Watts, 2019-11-01 This book examines the role of religious and spiritual experiences in people's understanding of their environment The contributors consider how understandings and experiences of religious and place connections are motivated by the need to seek and maintain contact with perceptual objects so as to form meaningful relationship experiences The volume is one of the first scholarly attempts to discuss the psychological links between place and religious experiences The chapters within provide insights for understanding how people's experiences with geographical places and the sacred serve as agencies for meaning making pro social behaviour and psychological adjustment in everyday life Springsteen as Soundtrack Caroline Madden, 2020-01-31 A catalog nearly fifty years in the making Bruce Springsteen's music remains popular and a frequent subject of study yet little critical attention has been given to its inclusion in film and television This book examines a selection of films and TV shows from the 1980s to the present including Mask High Fidelity The Sopranos and The Wrestler that feature Springsteen's music on the soundtrack Relating his thematic preoccupations with religion the Vietnam War the promise of the open road economic disparity and blue collar malaise his songs color narrative and articulate the inner lives of characters This book explores the many on screen contexts of Springsteen's work from Greetings from Asbury Park N J to Springsteen on Broadway John Sayles, Filmmaker Jack Ryan, 2014-01-10 In 1980 art house audience word of mouth about an unusual new movie Return of the Secaucus Seven launched the career of director John Sayles and with him the era of the independent filmmaker Sayles has remained a maverick writing directing editing and even acting in his own films This fully updated revision of the author's 1998 first edition chronicles Sayles' entire career including the story of his inauspicious beginning as a second string actor and his work in fiction theatre music videos and television A chapter is devoted to each of Sayles feature films offering background material on production funding a plot sketch an analysis of important characters and a look at the language setting and politics Each chapter also traces Sayles technical development his camera work editing musical arrangement and mise en scene The book includes a complete filmography and a bibliography cracks of film censorship by going into exhibition without an MPAA rating Finally in chapter 9 the authors study films from several national cinemas to explore the intersection of food gender and ethnicity Four appendices provide insights from a food stylist a selected filmography of fiction films and a filmography of documentaries that feature foodways components and a list of selected works in food and cultural studies Scholars of film studies and food studies will enjoy the thought provoking analysis of Appetites and Anxieties

Late Westerns Lee Clark Mitchell, 2018-12-01 For more than a century the cinematic Western has been America's most familiar genre always teetering on the verge of exhaustion and yet regularly revived in new forms Why does this outmoded vehicle with the most narrowly based historical setting of any popular genre maintain its appeal In Late Westerns Lee Clark Mitchell takes a position against those critics looking to attach post to the all too familiar genre For though the frontier disappeared long ago though men on horseback have become commonplace and though films of all sorts have always necessarily defied generic patterns the Western continues to enthrall audiences It does so by engaging narrative expectations stamped on our collective consciousness so firmly as to integrate materials that might not seem obviously Western at all Through plot cues narrative reminders and even cinematic frameworks recent films shape interpretive understanding by triggering a long standing familiarity audiences have with the genre Mitchell's critical analysis reveals how these films engage a thematic and cinematic border crossing in which their formal innovations and odd plots succeed deconstructively encouraging by allusion implication and citation the evocation of generic meaning from ingredients that otherwise might be interpreted quite differently Applying genre theory with close cinematic readings Mitchell posits that the Western has essentially been post all along Ethics Goes to the Movies Christopher Falzon, 2018-12-07 Movies hold a mirror up to us portraying the complexities of human reality through their characters and stories And they vividly illustrate moral theories that address questions about how we are to live and what sort of people we ought to be In this book Christopher Falzon uses movies to provide a rich survey of moral positions as they have emerged through history These include the ethics of the ancient world medieval ethics Enlightenment and Kantian ethics existentialist ethics and the ethics of the other Each theory is explained in detail using a number of examples from the book's wide selection of movies The discussion draws on a range of recent and not so recent films from Hollywood blockbusters to art house cinema Key Features In addition to covering thinkers one would expect in an introduction to ethics e.g. Plato Aristotle Kant the book discusses less canonical figures in detail as well e.g. Marcuse Foucault Habermas Similarly the book examines both major ethical theories e.g. Kantianism utilitarianism virtue ethics and theories too often glossed over in introductory texts e.g. Stoicism Epicureanism Habermas's discourse ethics and Nietzschean ethics A wide range of movies are discussed from Hollywood blockbusters and classics like The Dark Knight Casablanca and Dirty Harry to lesser known films like Force Majeure and Under the Skin At the end of each chapter a focus on two feature films is included with a plot summary and interpretations of several key scenes with a time marker indicating when in the film the scenes occur A Filmography includes all movies discussed in the book and a Glossary covers key philosophical terms and figures both with corresponding page numbers Film, Art, New Media: Museum Without Walls? Angela Dalle Vacche, 2012-06-12 In the footsteps of Andre Bazin this anthology of 15 original essays argues that the photographic origin of twentieth century cinema is anti anthropocentric Well aware that the twentieth century stands out as the only period in history with its own photographic film record for posterity Angela Dalle Vacche has convened international scholars at The Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute and asked them to rethink the history and theory of the cinema as a new model for the museum of the future By exploring the art historical tropes of face and landscape and key areas of film studies such as early cinema Soviet film theory documentary the avant garde and the newly born genre of the museum film this collection includes detailed discussions of installation art and close analyses of media relations which range from dance to painting to performance art Thanks to the title of Andre Malraux's famous project Film Art New Media Museum Without Walls invites readers to reflect on the museum of the future where twentieth century cinema will play a pivotal role by interrogating the relation between art and science technology and nature from the side of photography in dialogue with digitalization ReFocus: The Films of Preston Sturges Jeff Jaeckle, 2015-10-08 This first collection of critical essays on Preston Sturges director screenwriter comic genius of Hollywood reawakens interest in the filmmaker's life and works and reminds readers why his movies continue to be culturally significant and immensely enjoyable Cognitive Film and Media Ethics Wyatt Moss-Wellington, 2021 Cognitive Film and Media Ethics provides a grounding in the use of cognitive science to address key questions in film television and screen media ethics This book extends past works in cognitive media studies to answer normative and ethically prescriptive questions what could make media morally good or bad and what then are the respective responsibilities of media producers and consumers Moss Wellington makes a primary claim that normative propositions are a kind of rigour in that they force media theorists to draw more active ought conclusions from descriptive arguments Cognitive Film and Media Ethics presents the rigours of normative reasoning cognitive science and consequentialist ethics as complementary arguing that each seeks progressive elaboration on their own models of causality and causal projections are crucial for any reflection on our moral responsibilities in the world A hermeneutics of ethical cognitivism is applied in the latter half of the book with essays each addressing a different case study in film television news and social media cinema that sets out to inspire moral dissonance in the viewer satirical and humorous depictions of family drama in film and television the politics of the romantic comedy formal aspects of screen media bullying in an era dubbed the television renaissance and contemporary problems in the conflation of news and social media Cognitive Film and Media Ethics synthesises current research in social psychology anthropology memory studies emotion and cognition personality and media selection and evolutionary biology integrating wide ranging concepts from the various disciplines that make up cognitive theory to provide new vantages on the applied ethics of film and screen media Philosophy Goes to the Movies Christopher Falzon, 2014-07-31 Now emulated in several competing publications but still unsurpassed in clarity and insight Philosophy Goes to the Movies An Introduction to Philosophy Third Edition builds on the approach that made the two earlier editions so successful Drawing on many popular and some lesser known films from around the world Christopher Falzon introduces students to key areas in philosophy like Ethics Social and Political Philosophy The Theory of Knowledge The Self and Personal Identity Critical Thinking Perfect for beginners this book guides the reader through philosophy using illuminating cinematic works like Avatar Inception Fight Club Wings of Desire Run Lola Run A Clockwork Orange Blade Runner Dirty Harry and many other films The fully revised and updated Third Edition features an expanded introduction that provides a new discussion of the relationship between film and philosophy new material on notable philosophers such as Aristotle Merleau Ponty and Rawls and coverage of new topics like virtue ethics and what Socrates offers for critical thinking An updated glossary references and bibliography and a filmography are also included in the Third Edition Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction Cinema Marianne Kac-Vergne,2017-12-14 If science fiction stages the battle between humans and non humans whether alien or machine who is elected to fight for us In the classics of science fiction cinema humanity is nearly always represented by a male and until recently a white male Spanning landmark American films from Blade Runner to Avatar this major new study offers the first ever analysis of masculinity in science fiction cinema It uncovers the evolution of masculine heroes from the 1980s until the present day and the roles played by their feminine counterparts Considering gender alongside racial and class politics Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction Cinema also situates filmic examples within the broader culture It is indispensable for understanding science fiction and its role in contemporary cultural politics

Creative Activism Rachel Lee Rubin,2018-05-17 This collection brings together interviews with a compelling range of musicians artists and activists from around the globe What does it mean for an artist to be political Moving away from a narrow idea about politics that is organized around elections advocacy groups or concrete manifestos the subjects of Creative Activism do their work through song poetry painting and other arts The interviews take us from Oakland to London to Johannesburg and from the Occupy movement to the coal mines of Appalachia to the fantasy worlds created by some of our most fascinating writers of spectacular fiction Listening to the important cultural workers of our time challenges any idea that some other time was the golden age of political art Creative Activism gives us a front row seat to the thrilling artistic activism of our own moment
