Softwar Matthew Symonds, 2013-04-30 In a business where great risks huge fortunes and even bigger egos are common Larry Ellison stands out as one of the most outspoken driven and daring leaders of the software industry The company he cofounded and runs Oracle is the number one business software company perhaps even more than Microsoft's Oracle's products are essential to today's networked world But Oracle is as controversial as it is influential as feared as it is revered thanks in large part to Larry Ellison Though Oracle is one of the world's most valuable and profitable companies Ellison is not afraid to suddenly change course and reinvent Oracle in the pursuit of new and ever more ambitious goals Softwar examines the results of these shifts in strategy and the forces that drive Ellison relentlessly on In Softwar journalist Matthew Symonds gives readers an exclusive and intimate insight into both Oracle and the man who made it and runs it As well as relating the story of Oracle's often bumpy path to industry dominance Symonds deals with the private side of Ellison's life From Ellison's troubled upbringing by adoptive parents and his lifelong search for emotional security to the challenges and opportunities that have come with unimaginable wealth Softwar gets inside the skin of a fascinating and complicated human being With unlimited insider access granted by Ellison himself Symonds captures the intensity and some would say the recklessness that have made Ellison a legend The result of more than a hundred hours of interviews and many months spent with Ellison

Software is the most complete portrait undertaken of the man and his empire a unique and gripping account of both the way the computing industry really works and an extraordinary life Despite his closeness to Ellison Matthew Symonds is a candid and at times highly critical observer And in perhaps the book's most unusual feature Ellison responds to Symonds's portrayal in the form of a running footnoted commentary The result is one of the most fascinating business stories of all time First In, Last Out John D Howard, 2023-06-14 A Vietnam veteran recounts his experience through two tours of duty early in the conflict and then in its final stages Fresh out of West Point John Howard arrived for his first tour in Vietnam in 1965 the first full year of escalation when U S troop levels increased dramatically from 23 000 to 184 000 When Howard returned for a second tour in 1972 troop strength stood at 24 000 and would dwindle to a mere fifty the following year He thus participated in the very early and very late stages of American military involvement in the Vietnam War Howard's two tours the first as a platoon commander and member of an elite counter guerrilla force and the second as a senior advisor to the South Vietnamese provide a fascinating lens through which to view not only one soldier's experience in Vietnam but also the country's National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 The Japan Daily Mail, 1873 Journal, 1920 Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain), 1920 Journal of the Royal Society of Arts, 1920
