Wielenberg, 2014-09-25 Erik J Wielenberg draws on recent work in analytic philosophy and empirical moral psychology to defend non theistic robust normative realism and develop an empirically grounded account of human moral knowledge Non theistic robust normative realism has it that there are objective non natural sui generis ethical features of the universe that do not depend on God for their existence The early chapters of the book address various challenges to the intelligibility and plausibility of the claim that irreducible ethical features of things supervene on their non ethical features as well as challenges from defenders of theistic ethics who argue that objective morality requires a theistic foundation Later chapters develop an account of moral knowledge and answer various recent purported debunkings of morality including those based on scientific research into the nature of the proximate causes of human moral beliefs as well as those based on proposed evolutionary explanations of our moral beliefs Creedal Apologetics Nancy A. Almodovar, 2021-03-19 The Apostles Creed was used in two distinct ways by the early Christian church first as a tool to teach new disciples the essentials of the faith and second as a defense for the faith from unbelievers and skeptics alike In the world today many are engaged in apologetics but with their presuppositions and subjective reasoning they offer the world nothing different than their own subjective beliefs Using the Apostles Creed as a guide enables the Christian to give a hope for the faith within using objective truths based on eyewitness testimony This book teaches you how to use the Creed to stay on topic and bring out the essentials of the faith in a concise and graceful manner Dr Almodovar gives a rubber hits the road approach to apologetics offering various scenarios to show how Creedal apologetics is accomplished This simple tool the Apostles Creed once used for defense is dusted off polished up and sharpened so that today's Christians can defend and proclaim the great gospel of Jesus Christ to a world in desperate need of the forgiveness of sins and new life in his name

Widder, Wendy Widder, 2008-03-01 Why do we have to learn this For as long as there have been students teachers have been answering this question but we haven t always answered it very well for our students or for ourselves We sometimes forget that everything we teach whether sacred or secular has value because it is part of God s truth and integrating that truth across the curriculum is what makes an education Christian This book from a father and daughter team of seasoned Christian educators offers a comprehensive biblically based presentation of integration Its goal is to help readers view all aspects of the curriculum within the framework of God s story as told from Genesis to Revelation By organizing subject areas under five broad categories nature people communication beauty and ultimate issues the authors demonstrate that each subject area flows from the biblical story Each chapter concludes with a summary of the truths presented a set of teacher tips and a list of additional resources      On the Origin of Consciousness Scott D. G. Ventureyra, 2018-11-29 Have you ever thought about how self consciousness self awareness originated in the universe Understanding consciousness is one of the toughest nuts to crack In recent years scientists and philosophers have attempted to provide an answer to this mystery The reason for this is simply because it cannot be confined to solely a materialistic interpretation of the world Some scientific materialists have suggested that consciousness is merely an illusion in order to insulate their worldviews Yet consciousness is the most fundamental thing we know even more so than the external world since we require it to perceive or think about anything Without it reasoning would be impossible Dr Scott Ventureyra in this ground breaking book explores the idea of the Christian God and Creation in order to tackle this most difficult question He demonstrates that theology has something significant to offer in reflection of how consciousness originated in the universe He also makes a modest claim that the Christian conception of God and Creation provide a plausible account for the origin of self consciousness He integrates philosophy theology and science in an innovative way to embark on this exploration
