The Green Gauntlet R. F. Delderfield,2014-07-22 R F Delderfield concludes his bestselling A Horseman Riding By saga of twentieth century England with a novel that follows the Craddock family through the end of World War II and the challenges of a new era Paul Craddock's village in rural Devon has endured despite the heartbreak and sorrows of war The landowner and his family have also known their share of loss But now as England struggles to rebuild in the aftermath of World War II he and his wife Claire and their children confront new perils With his livelihood threatened by emerging property laws and his family divided over the future of his beloved Shallowford estate Craddock struggles to preserve his legacy For his sons and daughter the fifties and sixties will be a time of discovery and change that will resonate in the lives of their own children The final novel in Delderfield's magnificent trilogy pays tribute to the courage and unflagging optimism of British villagers trying to keep step with modern times even as they cling to the traditions of a bygone world The Green Gauntlet is the third novel in R F Delderfield's saga A Horseman Riding By which begins with Long Summer Day and continues with Post of Honour

Image of God in the Person of Jesus Stephen W. Hiemstra,2024-07-25 Our image of God reveals not only God's character but our own Who is Jesus Is Jesus more immanent human or transcendent divine Because we are created in the image of God and Jesus is divine the church struggles to define Jesus This impulse can be a genuine attempt to know God better or it can be an insidious attempt to create God in our own image This struggle is often tinged with a bit of both The Letter to the Church at Thessalonica was likely the first book written in the New Testament In a literary sense the implication is that the Apostle Paul is the father of the New Testament Paul only knew the Risen Christ and for him the divinity of Christ was obvious By contrast the Gospels that record the humanity of Christ were written almost a generation later Thus the transcendence problem facing postmodern people that fixates on the humanity of Christ is relatively new My recent book Image and Illumination 2023 asked the question What does it mean to be created in the image of God focused on Christian anthropology Embedded in this question is the metaphysical question Who is God The New Testament addresses this question with three pictures of God The person of Jesus Jesus teaching about God the Father in the parables and the founding of the church on Pentecost by the Holy Spirit In this book I focus on the Image of God in the Person of Jesus Hear the Words Walk the Steps Experience the Joy

Rivera, 2018-10-31 Enfleshing Theology honors and engages the life work of M Shawn Copeland whose theology is groundbreaking and prophetic traversing the fields of Catholic Theology Black Theology Womanist Thought and Semiotics The book opens with a brief introduction and then moves to an interview with Copeland which connects her theology to her life stories The conversation with Copeland also provides a backdrop to the seventeen essays that follow extending Copeland's theological worldview The contributions are divided according to the following sections embodiment discipleship and politics The essays in the section entitled Engaging Embodiment critically reflect on the importance of embodiment in Christian theology and contemporary culture Following Copeland's lead authors in this section theorize and theologize the body particularly but not limited to Black women's bodies as a locus theologicus that reveals mediates and shapes the splendor and suffering reality of human existence The next section entitled Engaging Discipleship focuses on the concrete challenges of following Jesus in today's world The essays included in this section reflect on Copeland's focus on Jesus particularity in terms of his solidarity with and for others Discipleship is about modeling and mentoring so scholars in this section also comment on Copeland's contribution to teaching and pedagogy The last section entitled Engaging the Political interrogates the political implications of the theological It is noteworthy that there are two trajectories of the political here one is Copeland s development of political theology through the lens of Canadian Jesuit theologian Bernard Lonergan The other trajectory focuses on the work of theology in contemporary art and politics These three sections are fluid and overlap with one another Several of the articles on embodiment speak to questions of solidarity and a few of the essays on discipleship clearly present as political The ways in which each of the contributions in this volume overlap with each other attests to the complex nature of doing constructive theology today and even more how Copeland s work is at the forefront of that multi layered polyvalent intersectional theological work

Kingdom Manifesto Jason N. Yuh, 2021-08-16 Even a cursory read of the Gospel of Matthew makes clear that it is concerned with the identity of Jesus Christ These meditations attempt not to focus on tangential topics that relate to Jesus even though these are important Rather they seek to focus simply on who Jesus is Because 2020 exposed the fragility corruption and misery of humanity such a focus is not only welcome but sorely needed Humanity does not merely require self help books that provide practical steps for improvement or philosophical musings that explain away suffering Humanity is in dire need of something outside of itself a Savior The authors of these chapters are soberly aware of this truth and they resist the temptation to reduce Jesus to a miracle worker who provides temporary relief or a commendable example that is to be imitated Instead in their own distinctive ways they affirm the bold and ever urgent proclamation that Jesus is the exclusive Savior of all people
