Shaw,2012-04-15 As the body of First World War literature continues to grow women s experiences of this period remain largely obscure particularly those of Canadian and Newfoundland women A Sisterhood of Suffering and Service explores this obscurity and begins to redress it This innovative collection discusses women s activities in the workforce overseas within the domestic realm and in literary representations to show that women were not bystanders who were quietly knitting for the duration rather they actively participated in wartime society served their country in a variety of ways made sacrifices and were deeply affected by the vagaries of war Incorporating the experiences of Newfoundland with those of Canada and looking at girls as well as women the volume enriches our knowledge of an important era in Canadian nation building and takes a step towards writing women into the historical narratives of the First World War Report on the Hosiery, Knitted Goods and Fabric Glove and Mitten Industry Canada. Dominion Bureau of Statistics,1924 Living a Grateful Life Junietta Baker McCall,2024-10-21 In this volume we will focus on being happier healthier and more positive about life through the development of the capacity to become increasingly more grateful And there is little doubt that gratefulness like hope vision and knowledge can be achieved through the development of tools and resources that are commonly available to most of us And let s face it the most commonly available tools used here in this book are those that help us reflect on life while living it Most of us possess this tool that of reflection and all of us could probably better use it to our benefit and the benefit of those around us To aid in this reflection the reader will find many suggestions and guidelines for managing past present and future experiences To this end there are lots of practical examples and exercises to encourage an interactive growth process
