A Violent World Nitzan S. Ben-Shaul, 2006 Images are the core of television news particularly in the coverage of terror events and war where pictures often overwhelm the verbal commentary A Violent World analyzes images on three channels global CNN Israeli IBA and Palestinian PATV that contribute heavily to how the current violence in the Middle East is framed Nitzan Ben Shaul uses critical media theory and qualitative and aesthetic approaches drawn from cinema studies to examine how dominant ideologies are embedded in mainstream TV news Specifically he focuses on the American elites global ideology and the conflicting dominant national peripheral ideologies of Israeli Palestinian elites His in depth study of particular interest to scholars of Middle East studies and international communication offers a new model of analysis for contemporary television news Book jacket

1941-1943 Kazimierz Sakowicz, 2008-10-01 About sixty thousand Jews from Wilno Vilnius Jewish Vilna and surrounding townships in present day Lithuania were murdered by the Nazis and their Lithuanian collaborators in huge pits on the outskirts of Ponary. Over a period of several years Kazimierz Sakowicz a Polish journalist who lived in the village of Ponary was an eyewitness to the murder of these Jews as well as to the murders of thousands of non Jews on an almost daily basis. He chronicled these events in a diary that he kept at great personal risk. Written as a simple account of what Sakowicz witnessed the diary is devoid of personal involvement or identification with the victims. It is thus a unique document testimony from a bystander an objective observer without an emotional or a political agenda to the extermination of the Jews of the city known as the Jerusalem of Lithuania. Sakowicz did not survive the war but much of his diary did. Painstakingly pieced together by Rahel Margolis from scraps of paper hidden in various locations the diary was published in Polish in 1999. It is here published in English for the first time extensively annotated by Yitzhak Arad to guide readers through the events at Ponary. Pearson Edexcel A Level Chemistry (Year 1 and Year 2) Andrew Hunt, Graham Curtis, Graham

Transcript The Minute Man Michael Maddox,2013-01-07 The Minute Man is a fictionalized account of the events leading up to and including the Battles of Lexington and Concord which took place in April 1775 This story focuses on three sets of players First there were the scheming Boston Sons of Liberty including Sam Adams Paul Revere and Joseph Warren which drove the authorities to distraction and missteps The second group is the British Army officers and men led by General Gage who became the pointed end of London s stick The last actors for whom the book is named are the townsfolk and farmers who made up the bulk of armed resistance the first day of the fighting Both the agitators and the army brass had their vested interests but the common man both enlisted soldiers and villagers bore the inevitable brunt of the conflict The tale is one of not only of revolution but of a nascent civil war as a brother turns on his brother and a wife betrays her husband It is an emotional portrayal of what did and what might have happened in the character s lives over those days While the book starts with the Boston Tea Party it was unclear to the participants at the time that it would be the opening scene of the Revolutionary War which did not cease till many years later in the South 1848.
