Scenes Of Nature Signs Of Man Essays On 19th And 20th Century American Literature:

Scenes of Nature, Signs of Men Tony Tanner, 1989-08-25 This book is about the relationship of the American writer to his land and language to the scene and the sign to the natural landscape and the inscriptions imposed upon it by men Among the questions considered in the first section of the book are how does American Romantic writing differ from European what are the peculiar problems faced by the American artist and what roles does he adopt to tackle them what kind of writing results when authors as different as Henry Adams and Mark Twain lament the vanishing of an earlier America or when Adams and Henry James review their complex relationship to their homeland or when W D Howells and Stephen Crane seek to define their themes in a specifically American setting The second section of the book examines similar concerns in a number of contemporary writers notably Thomas Pynchon John Barth Donald Barthelme John DeLillo and William Gass

Masculinity and Place in American Literature since 1950 Vidya Ravi, 2019-05-15 American literature has long celebrated the figure of the self made man and the idea of establishing selfhood particularly male selfhood in nature However during the crisis of masculinity that swept across America in the middle of the twentieth century a generation of writers started exploring a different kind of a man This was a figure who was concerned not so much with the loss of the West or the desire to recover a wilderness but with how to live in an ordinary domesticated continent Masculinity and Place in American Literature since 1950 explores the role of place in negotiating reinforcing and subverting articulations of hegemonic masculinity in the work of four American writers from the latter part of the 20th century John Cheever John Updike Raymond Carver and Richard Ford The book argues that American fiction by white male writers between the 1950s and the present day is compelled by the troubled and troubling relationship between masculinity and place This relationship is deeply embedded in how ideals of masculinity are predicated upon the experience of the physical world and how the symbolic logic of masculinity is continually subverted by alternative conceptions of dwelling and ecological consciousness The Modern American Urban Novel Arnold L. Goldsmith, 1991 Goldsmith challenges the view that nature is absent in the modern urban novel and interprets the phrase the interweaving of physical description and symbolism metaphor and characterization and theme and imagery that give internal form to external narrative He provides a textual analysis of seven 20th century American novels Manhattan transfer Studs Lonigan Call it sleep The Dollmaker The Assistant The Pawnbroker and Mr Sammler s planet Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Salem Story Bernard Rosenthal, 1993 Salem Story engages the story of the Salem witch trials by contrasting an analysis of the surviving primary documentation with the way events of 1692 have been mythologised by our culture Resisting the temptation to explain the Salem witch trials in the context of an inclusive theoretical framework the book examines a variety of individual motives that converged to precipitate the witch hunt Of the many assumptions about the Salem witch trials the most persistent is that they were instigated by a circle of hysterical girls Through an analysis of what actually happened by perusal of the primary materials with the close reading approach of a literary critic a different picture emerges one where hysteria inappropriately describes the logical rational strategies of accusation and confession followed by the accusers males and females alike T. S. Eliot Ronald Bush,1991-02-22 The centenary of Eliot's birth in 1988 has provided this occasion to review his life and work and reassess him in the light of various critical developments in the new historicism feminism and reader reception theory that have emerged since the New Criticism Dark Eden David Miller,1989 An important though little understood aspect of the response of nineteenth century Americans to nature is the widespread interest in the scenery of swamps jungles and other wastelands Dark Eden focuses on this developing interest in order to redefine cultural values during a transformative period of American history Professor Miller shows how for many Americans in the period around the Civil War nature came to be regarded less as a source of high moral insight and more as a sanctuary from an ever more urbanised and technological environment In the swamps and jungles of the South a whole range of writers and artists found a set of strange and exotic images by which to explore changing social realities of the times and the deep seated personal pressures that accompanied them Literary Geography Lynn M. Houston,2019-08-02 This reference investigates the role of landscape in popular works and in doing so explores the time in which they were written Literary Geography An Encyclopedia of Real and Imagined Settings is an authoritative guide for students teachers and avid readers who seek to understand the importance of setting in interpreting works of literature including poetry By examining how authors and poets shaped their literary landscapes in such works as The Great Gatsby and Nineteen Eighty Four readers will discover historical political and cultural context hidden within the words of their favorite reads The alphabetically arranged entries provide easy access to analysis of some of the most well known and frequently assigned pieces of literature and poetry Entries begin with a brief introduction to the featured piece of literature and then answer the questions How is literary landscape used to shape the story How is the literary landscape imbued with the geographical political cultural and historical context of the author's contemporary world whether purposeful or not Pop up boxes provide quotes about literary landscapes throughout the book and an appendix takes a brief look at the places writers congregated and that inspired them A comprehensive scholarly bibliography of secondary sources pertaining to mapping physical and cultural geography ecocriticism and the role of nature in literature rounds out the work Philip Roth through the Lens of Kepesh Paul McDonald,Samantha Roden,2016-05-31 The Kepesh trilogy spans three decades of Philip Roth's career beginning with The Breast in 1972 and continuing with the Professor of Desire in 1977 and The Dying Animal in 2001 This study demonstrates that the trilogy is not only worthy of critical analysis in its own right but also that an appreciation of its themes and strategies deepens our understanding of his entire fictional enterprise offering an invaluable perspective on one of the world's most important novelists Paul McDonald works at the University of Wolverhampton where he is Senior Lecturer in American Literature and Course Leader for Creative Writing Among his other HEB titles are The Philosophy of Humour 2012 and Reading Beloved 2014 Samantha Roden is a Lead Practitioner for English at North East Wolverhampton Academy She writes educational resources digital pedagogical guides and conducts national webinars for Cambridge University Press Her first full collection of poetry Catch Ourselves in Glass is forthcoming

An Artisan Intellectual Christopher Ferguson, 2016-12-14 In An Artisan Intellectual Christopher Ferguson examines the life and ideas of English tailor and writer James Carter one of countless and largely anonymous citizens whose lives dramatically transformed during Britain's long march to modernity Carter began his working life at age thirteen as an apprentice and continued to work as a tailor throughout the first half of the nineteenth century first in Colchester and then in London As the Industrial Revolution brought innovations to every aspect of British life Carter took advantage of opportunities to push against the boundaries of his working class background He supplemented his income through his writing publishing often unsigned books articles and poems on subjects as diverse as religion death nature aesthetics and theories of civilization Carter's words give us a fascinating window into the revolutionary forces that upended the world of ordinary citizens in this era and demonstrate how the changes in daily life impacted personal experiences and intellectual pursuits as well as labor practices and living and working environments Ferguson deftly explores a forgotten tailor's varied responses to the many transformations that produced the world's first modern society

American Philosophy and the Romantic Tradition Russell B. Goodman, 1990 Russell Goodman expands on the revisionist position developed by Stanley Cavell that the most interesting strain of American thought proceeds from a peculiarly American kind of Romanticism

Cinema of Disorientation Dominic Lash, 2020-07-06 Precisely perhaps because they are so immediately absorbing narrative films can also be profoundly confusing and disorienting This fascinating book neither proposes foolproof methods for avoiding confusion nor does it suggest that disorientation is always a virtue Instead it argues that the best way to come to terms with our confusion is to look closely at exactly what is confusing us and why At the heart of the book are original close readings of four important recent films David Lynch's INLAND EMPIRE 2006 Leos Carax's Holy Motors 2012 Pedro Costa's Colossal Youth 2006 and Jean Luc Godard's Goodbye to Language 2014 Clearly written but critically and theoretically bold The Cinema of Disorientation Inviting Confusions explores both how we get or fail to get our bearings with respect to a film and what we might discover by and while doing so

The American Mystery Tony Tanner, 2000-03-16 A collection of essays by the late Tony Tanner on a wide range of key American authors

Ezra Pound and Italian Fascism Tim Redman, 1991-03-29 This fascinating account of Ezra Pound and Italian Fascism allows the reader to understand the causes and results of Pound's ideology and actions

Jane Austen Tony Tanner, 2017-07-12 Tony Tanner's classic text on Jane Austen addresses the issues that have always occupied the author's most perceptive critics and offers an illuminating and refreshing analysis of Austen's novels Tanner shows how Austen changed from a basically accepting view of society to a more questioning one and considers the problems of authority power and the position of women as well as the relationship between ethics language and behaviour This reissued edition features a new Preface by leading Romantic scholar Marilyn Gaull who examines Tanner's background and places the original work in context Lively and informative the Preface helps to reinforce and explain the continued importance of Tanner s work Accompanied by an insightful Note on the Text by Austen scholar John Wiltshire and an expanded Bibliography and Index this is a timely republication of a study which is now regarded as one of the finest and most accessible introductions to a great novelist Poet's Prose Stephen Fredman,1990-11-30 Poet s Prose is devoted exclusively to American prose poetry and has been recognised as a pioneering study in contemporary American poetry

Nineteenth-century Literature ,1987 Contains articles which focus on a broad spectrum of significant figures in fiction philosophy and criticism such as Austen Carlyle Dickens Thackeray the Brontes Tennyson Browning Arnold Emerson Hawthorne Thoreau Whitman Twain and Henry James Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1990 Early Native American Writing Helen Jaskoski,1996-11-28 A collection of essays discussing early American Indian authors A Grand Army of Black Men Edwin S. Redkey,1992-11-27 The Civil War stands vivid in the collective memory of the American public There has always been a profound interest in the subject and specifically the participation of black Americans in and reactions to the war and the war s outcome Almost 200 000 African American soldiers fought for the Union in the Civil War Although most were illiterate ex slaves several thousand were well educated free black men from the northern states The 176 letters in this collection were written by black soldiers in the Union army during the Civil War to black and abolitionist newspapers They provide a unique expression of the black voice that was meant for a public forum The letters tell of the men s experiences their fears and their hopes They describe in detail their army days the excitement of combat and the drudgery of digging trenches Some letters give vivid descriptions of battle others protest against racism still others call eloquently for civil rights Many describe their conviction that they are fighting not only to free the slaves but to earn equal rights as citizens These letters give an extraordinary picture of the war and also reveal the bright expectations hopes and ultimately the demands that black soldiers had for the future for themselves and for their race As first person documents of the Civil War the letters are strong statements of the American dream of justice and equality and of the human spirit H. D. and Hellenism Eileen Gregory,1997-09-28 H D and Hellenism Classic Lines concerns a prominent aspect of the writing of the modern American poet H D Hilda Doolittle a lifelong engagement with hellenic literature mythology and art H D s hellenic intertextuality is examined in the context of classical fictions operative at the turn of the century the war of words among literary critics establishing a new classicism in reaction to romanticism the fictions of classical transmission and the problem of women within the classical line nineteenth century romantic hellenism represented in the writing of Walter Pater and the renewed interest in ancient religion brought about by anthropological studies represented in the writing of Jane Ellen Harrison Eileen Gregory explores at length H D s intertextual engagement with specific classical writers Sappho Theocritus and the Greek Anthology Homer and Euripides The concluding chapter sketches chronologically H D s career long study and reinvention of Euripidean texts An appendix catalogues classical subtexts in Collected Poems 1912 1944 edited by Louis Martz
