and Jews for instance was deeply determined by the living conditions within a city By the late Middle Ages nobility and bourgeoisie began to intermingle within the urban space which set the stage for dramatic and far reaching changes in the social and economic make up of society Legal historical aspects also find as much consideration as practical questions concerning water supply and sewer systems Moreover the early modern city within the Ottoman and Middle Eastern world likewise finds consideration Finally as some contributors observe the urban space provided considerable opportunities for women to carve out a niche for themselves in economic terms

Maps and Travel in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Period Ingrid Baumgärtner, Nirit Ben-Aryeh Debby, Katrin Kogman-Appel, 2019-03-04 The volume discusses the world as it was known in the Medieval and Early Modern periods focusing on projects concerned with mapping as a conceptual and artistic practice with visual representations of space and with destinations of real and fictive travel Maps were often taken as straightforward objective configurations However they expose deeply subjective frameworks with social political and economic significance Travel narratives whether illustrated or not can address similar frameworks Whereas travelled space is often adventurous and speaking of hardship strange encounters and danger city portraits tell a tale of civilized life and civic pride The book seeks to address the multiple ways in which maps and travel literature conceive of the world communicate a Weltbild depict space and or define knowledge The volume challenges academic boundaries in the study of cartography by exploring the links between mapmaking and artistic practices The contributions discuss individual mapmakers authors of travelogues mapmaking as an artistic practice the relationship between travel literature and mapmaking illustration in travel literature and imagination in depictions of newly explored worlds mysterious despite much scholarly investigation not least its design and patron Here in the first full length interdisciplinary approach to the subject the authors an art historian and a historian consider these and other issues Rejecting the prevalent view that it was commissioned by Odo the bishop of Bayeux and half brother of William the Conqueror or by some other comparable patron they bring new evidence to bear on the question of its relationship to the abbey of St Augustine s Canterbury From the study of art historical archeological literary historical and documentary materials they conclude that the monks of St Augustine s designed the hanging for display in their abbey church to tell their own story of how England was invaded and conquered in 1066 Elizabeth Carson Pastan is a Professor of Art History at Emory University Stephen D White is Asa G Candler Professor of Medieval History emeritus Emory University and an Honorary Professor of Mediaeval History at the University of St Andrews      Routledge Revivals: Trade, Travel and Exploration in the Middle Ages (2000) John Block Friedman,Kristen Mossler Figg,2017-07-05 First published in 2000 Trade Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia covers the people places technologies and intellectual concepts that contributed to trade travel and exploration during the Middle Ages from the years C E 525 to 1492 This comprehensive reference work contains entries on a large number of subjects including familiar topics such as the voyages of Columbus and Marco Polo and also information that is more difficult to find for example the traditions of travel among Muslim women and the influence of Viking travel on navigation and geographical knowledge Bringing together more than 175 scholars from a variety of disciplines it minimizes Eurocentric bias and offers extensive coverage of such topics as travel within Inner Asia Mongol society and the spread of Buddhism Including an extensive map program and more than 125 illustrations as well as bibliographies a comprehensive index and see also references Medieval Trade Travel and Exploration is a valuable reference guide for undergraduate and graduate students scholars and also the general reader      German Conquistadors in Venezuela Giovanna Montenegro,2022-12-15 This fascinating study traces sixteenth century German colonialism in Venezuela through the lens of racialized capitalism and the subsequent memorialization of the period through to the twentieth century Giovanna Montenegro investigates one of the strangest and often ignored episodes in the conquest and colonization of the Americas the governance of the Province of Venezuela by the Welsers a German banking family from Augsburg in the sixteenth century Using a comparative and interdisciplinary approach the book chronicles the Welsers business expansion beyond banking to colonization and the slave trade in the Spanish Indies and the eventual failure of the colony Montenegro follows the money that financed the Habsburg empire tackling a multifaceted multilingual corpus of primary documents She examines numerous legal documents from contracts granting colonization and slave trade rights capitulaciones asientos to complex financial transactions interests exchange rates She also analyzes maps literary texts and various chronicles and poems of the period The book examines a history of violence perpetrated upon enslaved Indigenous and African people but it is also the story of how different generations across the Atlantic up to Nazi Germany in the twentieth century have remembered and recalled this Welser
