Schickedanz Albert 18461915 Millenial Monuments For The Past And Future:

Motherland and Progress József Sisa, 2016-11-21 In the 19th century Hungary witnessed unprecedented social economic and cultural development. The country became an equal partner within the Dual Monarchy when the Austro Hungarian Compromise of 1867 was concluded. Architecture and all forms of design flourished as never before. A distinctly Central European taste emerged in which the artistic presence of the German speaking lands was augmented by the influence of France and England. As this process unfolded attempts were made to find a uniquely Hungarian form based on motifs borrowed from peasant art as well as real or fictitious historical antecedents. Motherland and Progress the motto of 19th century Hungarian reformers reflected the programme embraced by the country in its drive to define its identity and shape its future.

Cultures of International Exhibitions 1840-1940 Marta Filipová, 2017-07-05 Beyond the great exhibitions expositions universelles and world fairs in London Paris or Chicago numerous smaller yet ambitious exhibitions took place in provincial cities and towns across the world. Focusing on the period between 1840 and 1940 this volume takes a novel look at the exhibitionary cultures of this period and examines the motivations scope and impact of lesser known exhibitions in for example Australia Japan Brazil as well as a number of European countries. The individual case studies included explore the role of these exhibitions in the global exhibitionary network and consider their marginality related to their location and omission by academic research so far. The chapters also highlight a number of important issues from regional or national identities the role of modernisation and tradition to the relationship between capital cities and provincial towns present in these exhibitions. They also address the key topic of colonial exhibitions as well as the displays of arts and design in the context of the so called marginal fairs. Cultures of International Exhibitions 1840-1940 Great Exhibitions in the Margins therefore opens up new angles in the way the global phenomenon of a great exhibition can be examined through the prism of the regional and will make a vital contribution to those interested in exhibition studies and related fields.

The Museum Age in Austria-Hungary Matthew Rampley, Markian Prokopovych, Nóra Veszprémi, 2021-02-15 This important critical study of the history of public art museums in Austria Hungary explores their place in the wider history of European museums and collecting their role as public institutions and their involvement in the complex cultural politics of the Habsburg Empire. Focusing on institutions in Vienna Cracow Prague Zagreb and Budapest The Museum Age in Austria Hungary traces the evolution of museum culture over the long nineteenth century from the 1784 installation of imperial art collections in the Belvedere Palace as a gallery open to the public to the dissolution of Austria Hungary after the First World War Drawing on source materials from across the empire the authors reveal how the rise of museums and display was connected to growing tensions between the efforts of Viennese authorities to promote a cosmopolitan and multinational social political and cultural identity on the one hand and on the other the rights of national groups and cultures to self expression. They demonstrate the ways in which museum collecting policies practices of display and architecture engaged with these political agendas and how museums reflected and enabled shifting forms of civic identity emerging forms of professional practice the production of knowledge and the changing composition of the public sphere Original in its approach and sweeping in scope this fascinating study of the museum age of Austria Hungary will be welcomed by students and scholars interested in the cultural and art history of Central Europe    Millennial monuments for the past and the future Eszter Gábor,Albert Schickedanz,Szépművészeti Múzeum (Hungary),1996
