School Daze Stickers Bob Censoni,1996-08-01 School Daze Robert J. Wilson,2012-11 While the book is fictional it parallels my ten years serving as Director of Buildings and Grounds for a Woodtic Superintendent in a public school in Hometown U S A School Daze Lucia Jones,2010-11 Warning But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea Matthew 8 6 KJV Take heed all of you unbelieving miscreants in the public school system bent on programming kids for the deceitful New World Order That warning is from the King of kings School Daze is written with a satirical bite and is tempered with comic relief Its author Lucia Jones a teacher in the public school system gives an up close and personal look at the biggest issues plaguing the System today Among these issues are school zoning that forces students to move schools and sometimes neighborhoods often a lax teaching curriculum incompetent school officials sex education starting in kindergarten ditching the basics and the 3 Rs for cuddly feely programs loaded with political correctness and the two faces of multiculturalism Christian values no longer play a role in public schools Some public schools have taken God out of the Pledge of Allegiance and have even gone so far as pledging allegiance to the Earth Prayer is not allowed and the Ten Commandments are no longer displayed Christmas parties are now winter holiday parties Even the treats for these parties are at the mercy of the System no more candy and ice cream but tofu smoothies and yogurt cups Lucia Jones is a devout Christian mother of four grandmother of eleven and a veteran elementary school teacher in the public school system of twenty five plus years She has spent eighteen of those years teaching at a small public elementary school on an Indian reservation Lucia lives in Northern Nevada with her husband Tom School Daze Lindsay Price,2006 Scrapbooking with Lizzie McGuire Susan M. Banker,Meredith Books,2004 Provides ideas for creating a scrapbook and suggests themes for a variety of photograph pages Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1978 The New York City Motorists' Parking Survival Guide Louis Camporeale,2008-04 From decreasing the odds of receiving a parking ticket to dealing with a ticket once issued this handbook outlines the most common violations and situations motorists will encounter when driving and parking throughout the greater New York City metro area Operating on the premise that the best parking defense is knowledge this guide begins with an in depth analysis of the basic parking regulations including those identified by posted signs such as No Parking No Stopping No Standing and street cleaning as well as those monitored via parking meters for the general public as well as commercial vehicles Readers will also learn how to read a parking ticket to identify the specific violation s cited and scan the document to determine if there are any grounds for automatic dismissal A handy chart of code violations and corresponding fines tips on the appeal process and a quick reference guide to tow pounds further enhance the learning experience Branded Nation James B. Twitchell,2004-09-08 Branding says James Twitchell is nothing more than commercial storytelling brands are the stories that are associated with products For example the special taste of Evian says Twitchell is in the brand not the water Branding has become so successful so ubiquitous that even institutions that we thought were above branding antithetical to branding have succumbed Such cultural institutions as religion higher education and the art world have learned to love Madison Avenue or lose market share Of course most ministers university presidents and museum directors will insist that branding has nothing to do with them but as Twitchell brilliantly demonstrates in this witty insightful examination of three of our most important cultural institutions wherever supply exceeds demand branding follows The rise of the megachurch epitomizes branding in religion From its inception the megachurch was designed not to compete with other churches but to bring in the unchurched especially men worshippers who might otherwise be home watching television or strolling through the mall on a Sunday morning The megachurches have been phenomenally popular none more so than Willow Creek Community Church just south of Chicago one of the oldest megachurches which Twitchell analyzes in Branded Nation Colleges and universities have embraced branding as they have grown more alike Especially among the top schools in the country the student bodies the faculties often even the campuses themselves are practically interchangeable What distinguishes each school is the story it tells about itself Now every institution of higher learning has its image organizers its brand managers usually in the admissions or development offices whose job it is to make their institution seem different from all the rest Even museums with their multimillion dollar Monets have seen the advantages of branding The blockbuster exhibitions often put familiar paintings in a new context that is they provide a new narrative branding the art Museums keep expanding their stores placing them not just near the entrance on the ground floor but throughout the museum in the galleries themselves Some museums such as the Guggenheim even franchise themselves turning the institution itself into a brand In short high culture is beginning to look more and more like the rest of our culture In perhaps his most subversive observation Twitchell doesn't condemn the branding of cultural institutions On the contrary he believes that branding may be invigorating our high culture bringing it to new audiences making it a more integral part of our lives Not since Bobos in Paradise has there been such a trenchant provocative analysis of our world
