Selected Poems New California Poetry:

I Love Artists Mei-mei Berssenbrugge, 2006-03-11 A selection from Berssenbrugge's work from the late 60s to the present. Nine different books and several completely new works are represented here. It's go in horizontal Leslie Scalapino, 2008-04-08 Internationally recognized as one of the most innovative writers in America today, Leslie Scalapino persistently challenges the boundaries of many forms in which she works: poetry, prose, plays, and more. This outstanding volume includes work from sequential and serial poems written over thirty-two years. The poems demonstrate ideas and inventions in writing and how one writing invention leads to the next. Three series are selected from the long poem way about which Philip Whalen said: "She makes everything take place in real time in the light and air and night where all of us live everything happening at once." Recent poems such as those from DeLay and Rose appear to leave the page itself as a single infinite line in which the actions of individuals and occurrences in the outside world are synonymous, mysterious, and simultaneous. It's go in horizontal is a dazzling entryway into the oeuvre of a daring and powerful writer. Full Circle Mitsuye Yamada, 2019-08-24 Poetry at the Edge Joseph Stroud, Kay Ryan, Gary Young, Martha Ronk, Michael Hannon, 2014-11-07 Publication 233 from The Book Club of California. A poetry anthology edited and designed by Carolee Campbell of Ninja Press letterpress, printed by Norman Clayton of Classic Letterpress and featuring the poetry of Joseph Stroud, Kay Ryan, Gary Young, Martha Ronk, and Michael Hannon. California Poetry Dana Gioia, Chrissy Yost, Jack Hicks, 2004 The first historical anthology to provide a comprehensive survey of California poetry, this ground-breaking new book presents the work of 101 authors across two centuries. California Poetry includes poets as diverse as Ambrose Bierce, Yone Noguchi, Robinson Jeffers, Josephine Miles, Charles Bukowski, Ishmael Reed, Francisco X Alarcón, and Marilyn Chin. With ample biographical and critical notes for each author, California Poetry goes beyond the limits of the ordinary anthology and provides a detailed and often intimate account of the Golden State's rich but often neglected cultural history. Pacific Standard Time Kevin Opstedal, Noel Black, 2016 Poetry This collection of new and selected poems by Santa Cruz-based poet Kevin Opstedal will be many people's first introduction to this legendary Bay Area poet and small press publisher. Full of West Coast surf vernacular and the dark hypnotic pull of waves, Opstedal's poems manage to float from Donne to the Romantics and Rimbaud, then wash up on the shores of the New York School in Bolinas. At 200-plus pages, this book will give a thorough introduction/reintroduction to Opstedal's enormous output of chapbooks and two full-length collections, as well as new poems from a lone reclusive voice that might otherwise find itself lost to its own time. Selected Poems of Fanny Howe Fanny Howe, 2000-04-11 But zero uses it. The Elements of San Joaquin Gary Soto, 2018-04-03 A timely new edition of a pioneering work in Latino literature, National Book Award nominee Gary Soto's first collection, originally published in 1977, draws on California's fertile San Joaquin Valley: the people, the place, and the hard agricultural work done there by immigrants. In these poems, joy and anger, violence and hope are placed in both the metaphorical and very real circumstances of the Valley Rooted in personal experiences of the poet as a young man his friends family and neighbors the poems are spare but expansive with Soto's voice as important as ever This welcome new edition has been expanded with a crucial selection of complementary poems some previously unpublished and a new introduction by the author The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki, 2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post World War II American poetry Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2009 An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School including John Ashbery who is often considered America's greatest living poet Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years North of California St George Stanley, 2014 Poetry California St is one of the major thoroughfares in downtown San Francisco the city where George Stanley was born in 1934 and left at age 37 to move to Vancouver NORTH OF CALIFORNIA ST collects 53 poems all written between 1975 and 1999 originally published in four collections all now out of print Opening Day 1983 Temporarily a chapbook 1986 Gentle Northern Summer 1995 and At Andy's 2000 Pick Up the House Anselm Hollo, 1986 Hollo's poetry continually confounds as well as exceeds the reader's expectations Small Press The Elements of San Joaquin Gary Soto, 1977 Gone Fanny Howe, 2003-04-30 This collection of new poems by one of the most respected poets in the United States uses motifs of advance and recovery doubt and conviction in an emotional relation to the known world Heralded as one of our most vital unclassifiable writers by the Voice Literary Supplement Fanny Howe has published more than twenty books and is the recipient of the Gold Medal for Poetry from the Commonwealth Club of California In addition her Selected Poems received the 2001 Lenore Marshall Poetry Prize for the Most Outstanding Book of Poetry Published in 2000 from the Academy of American Poets The poems in Gone describe the transit of a psyche driven by uncertainty and by love through various stations and experiences This volume of short poems and one lyrical essay all written in the last five years is broken into five parts and the longest of these The Passion consecrates the contradictions between these two emotions The New York Times Book Review said Howe has made a long term project of trying to determine how we fit into God's world and her aim is both true and marvelously free of sentimental piety With Gone readers will have the opportunity to experience firsthand Howe's continuation of that elusive and fascinating endeavor The Collected Poems of Barbara Guest Barbara Guest, 2013-09-01 Winner of the SFSU Poetry Center Book Award 2010 One of the most notable members of the New York School and its best known woman Barbara Guest began writing poetry in the 1950s in company that included John Ashbery Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler And from the beginning her practice placed her at the vanguard of American writing Guest's poetry saturated in the visual arts extended the formal experiments of modernism and played the abstract qualities of language against its sensuousness and materiality Now for the first time all of her published poems have been brought together in one volume offering readers and scholars unprecedented access to Guest's remarkable visionary work This Collected Poems moves from her early New York School years through her more abstract later work including some final poems never before published Switching effortlessly from the real to the dreamlike the observed to the imagined this is poetry both gentle and piercing seemingly simple but truly and beautifully dislocating
