Selected Poems Of Robert Penn Warren:

The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 1998-10-01 Winner of the C Hugh Holman Award A central figure in twentieth century American literature Robert Penn Warren 1905 1989 was appointed by the Library of Congress as the first Poet Laureate of the United States in 1985 Although better known for his fiction especially his novel All the King's Men it is mainly his poetry spanning sixty years fifteen volumes of verse and a wide range of styles that reveals Warren to be one of America's foremost men of letters In this indispensable volume John Burt Warren's literary executor has assembled every poem Warren ever published with the exception of Brother to Dragons including the many poems he published in The Fugitive and other magazines as well as those that appeared in his small press works and broadsides Burt has also exhaustively collated all of the published versions of Warren's poems which in some cases appeared as many as six different times with substantive revisions in every line as well as his typescripts and proofs And since Warren never seemed to reread any of his books without a pencil in his hand Burt has referred to Warren's personal library copies This comprehensive edition also contains textual notes lists of emendations and explanatory notes Warren was born and raised in Guthrie Kentucky where southern agrarian values and a predilection for storytelling were ingrained in him as a young boy By 1925 when he graduated from Vanderbilt University he was already the most promising of that exceptional set of poets and intellectuals known as the Fugitives Warren devoted most of the 1940s and 1950s to writing prose and literary criticism but from the late 1950s he composed primarily poetry with each successive volume of verse that he penned demonstrating his rigorous and growing commitment to that genre The mature visionary power and technical virtuosity of his work in the 1970s and early 1980s emanated from his strongly held belief that only insofar as the work of art establishes and expresses a self can it engage us Many of Warren's later poems which he deemed some of my best rejoice in the possibilities of old age and the poet's ability for continually expanding in a vital process of definition affirmation revision and growth a process that is the image we may say of the life process

Garrison Tales from Tonquin Robert Penn Warren, 2001-03-01 Selected Poems of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, John Burt, 2001 More than 200 poems from every phase of the celebrated poet's writing are gathered in this collection that features several previously unpublished pieces From Oxford City Wall the only poem written while Warren was a Rhodes Scholar to Evening Hawk this compendium provides a generous survey of Warren's poetry The Braided Dream Randolph Paul Runyon, 2014-07-15 Robert Penn Warren's reputation as a poet though always considerable has soared in the last decade as indicated by his recent selection as America's first poet laureate The Braided Dream is one of the first book length studies of the poetry that has led to Warren's recent rise to eminence and the first to consider his final collection Altitudes and Extensions In a communicable jargon free style that will appeal to the nonacademic reader as well as the serious scholar Randolph Paul Runyon provides a detailed and illuminating guide to a body of poetry that despite its greatness has until now seemed resistant to full understanding Every poem of Warren's last four sequences Now and Then, Being Here, Rumor Verified and Altitudes and Extensions is given a close reading with a precise laying out of words, phrases and recurring images that not only enrich the texture of the poetry but are themselves the texture. Runyon demonstrates the relevance of Freud's concept of the dream work of the unconscious to a reading of this tightly interwoven poetry. He shows how Warren's poems assume additional meanings by the poet's very arrangement of them, deepening his thesis by arguing that poems eat poems as each reuses and reconceptualizes the imagery of its predecessor frequently with ironic or parodic effect.

The Poetic Vision of Robert Penn Warren Victor H. Strandberg, 2014-07-15 Though it has won the Pulitzer Prize, the National Book Award and the Bollingen Prize, the poetry of Robert Penn Warren still is not widely or well understood. In this study, Victor H. Strandberg redresses this imbalance by providing a comprehensive survey of the poetic canon of this gifted, complex and much neglected poet. Warren writes in the tradition of Western poets concerned with the painful experience of a forced one-way passage from innocence into the world's stew of time and loss. This passage, Strandberg explains, results for Warren in bifurcation of the self into warring segments: a clean, idealistic surface ego and a polluted, undiscovered self in the unconscious. Revelation of the dirty part of human personality is tellingly evoked in many of Warren's major works. As the poet's vision expands, however, these conflicting elements are unified in a mystic osmosis of being whereby the world, which once provoked fear and disgust, may now be totally loved. In addition to close analysis of both individual poems and of the poet's overall development, Strandberg reviews critical opinion of Warren's poetry over the last three decades and assesses his place among fellow poets. Both as prophecy and as art, he concludes, Robert Penn Warren's poetry is so significant, versatile and excellent as to rank him among the finest and most fertile talents of his age.

Selected poems, 1923-1975 Robert Penn Warren, 1977 Robert Penn Warren Marshall Walker, 1979 Promises Robert Penn Warren, 1957 This is the first book of lyric poetry by Robert Penn Warren to appear since the publication of his Selected Poems in 1944. In the Heart's Last Kingdom Calvin Bedient, 1984 Bedient captures the forces that energize Warren's major poetry: his craving for experience, action, beauty, magnificence; his love of the natural world; his quest for self-knowledge; his hunger for truth and glory. Singling out the poems that rank as masterpieces, he explores their psychological and metaphysical nuances and probes the sources of their power.

A Colder Fire Victor H. Strandberg, 1965 Warren's major theme, whether man can live on a purely naturalistic level, is seen as a parallel to the major intellectual currents of American literature in the past 25 years. New and Selected Poems, 1923-1985 Robert Penn Warren, 1985 A selection of poems from the last six decades, including fifty recent poems not previously published. Rumor Verified Robert Penn Warren, 1981 In his latest gathering of poems, Warren continues to work variations on his favorite subjects: examining time, the elements, the gifts of nature, the blessed accident of fate, and what they all mean to a man of advancing years and few illusions. Throughout, a nameless apprehension underlies the speaker's reflections on the mystery of time and happiness and death. Ghostly Parallels Randolph Runyon, 2006 America's most eminent man of letters in his later years and certainly one of the greatest Southern writers Robert Penn Warren has increasingly come to be known for his poetry Ghostly Parallels is a close examination of the heart of his poetic corpus the eight collections published between 1935 and 1976 Thirty Six Poems Eleven Poems on the Same Theme Promises You Emperors and Others Tale of Time Incarnations Or Else and Can I See Arcturus from Where I Stand Ghostly Parallels shows how Warren constructed collections of poems based on common subjects and contexts and also contends that while the poems are distinctive taken together they reveal intricate patterns of theme imagery and diction within explicit sequences Runyon demonstrates that Warren's collections are integrated well crafted wholes and each poem references its predecessor sometimes in intriguingly self referential ways Runyon shows that despite the many changes in diction tone and subject that Warren underwent in his long career his concern for writing his poems in such a way that they could reach out beyond themselves to other poems remained remarkably constant In the arrangement Warren gave them his poems form ghostly parallels an expression that appears in The Return An Elegy where they refer to the railroad tracks that bring the poet home to his dying mother This return to the mother is a persistent leitmotif in the poems and forms the other major theme of this study Warren's personal poetic myth in which such images as golden light and mirror images are signs of the mother's presence as both Danae mother of Perseus and Medusa whom Perseus confronted Through pursuing sequential patterns as well as echoes and myth Ghostly Parallels brings a wealth of insights to the work of this prolific novelist critic and essayist An important guide for undergraduate and graduate students alike Ghostly Parallels will also appeal to anyone with an interest in Robert Penn Warren and southern literature

Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren

Robert Penn Warren, 2013-12-16 In the last decade of his life Robert Penn Warren remained a vibrant force in American literature producing new works of poetry and nonfiction while also dealing courageously with the gradual decline of his health and the diminishment of his poetic powers Toward Sunset at a Great Height 1980 1989 the sixth and final volume of the author's selected letters provides crucial documentation of this period containing Warren's correspondence with friends family fellow writers editors critics and the scholars studying his works Warren published several volumes of poetry including Being Here 1980 Rumor Verified 1981 and Chief Joseph of the Nez Perce 1983 and returned to nonfiction prose with Jefferson Davis Gets His Citizenship Back 1980 and the memoir Portrait of a Father 1988 His letters reveal that he tried to begin writing a novel but was unable to make substantial progress on it and that from 1985 on he became increasingly dissatisfied with his new poems Until his death at age eighty four however Warren maintained an active correspondence filled with news about his writings and travels accounts of the lives of his wife and children and a stoic attitude about his own physical decline as well as a solicitousness regarding the health of others such as his brother Thomas and sister Mary He communicated with rising young scholars and encouraged younger poets he admired Toward Sunset at a Great Height offers rich insights into the closing chapter of Robert Penn Warren's professional and personal life making it an essential resource for understanding the full scope of the author's contribution to American letters      Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 2006-01-01 Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Volume three provides an indispensable glimpse of Warren the writer and the man covering a crucial decade in his life Edited by Randy Hendricks and James A Perkins and introduced by William Bedford Clark this collection of largely previously unpublished letters and newly discovered material documents Warren's time at the University of Minnesota his writing and publication of the Pulitzer Prize winning novel All the King's Men his appointment as Consultant in Poetry at the Library of Congress and his divorce from Emma Cinina Brescia and subsequent marriage to the writer Eleanor Clark The period 1943 1952 also saw the publication of A Poem of Pure Imagination World Enough and Time The Ballad of Billie Potts At Heaven's Gate and Selected Poems 1923 1943 Warren's letters shed new light on those works and on his close relationship with his editors Lambert Davis and Albert Erskine Included too is correspondence concerning Warren's collaboration with Robert Rossen on the movie production of All the King's Men which received the Academy Award for best picture in 1949 The list of friends and colleagues with whom Warren communicated reads like a roll call of major twentieth century literary figures and clearly shows his ever widening influence on the world of letters Spanning a remarkable range in both style and tone the letters disclose Warren's attitudes toward his work as a teacher and his thoughts on the events of World War II the Korean War and the political conflicts in postwar Europe Thoroughly annotated and scrupulously researched Volume Three captures Warren in an extraordinary phase in his life and career reaching his maturity and making many commitments at once yet pursuing them all with a seemingly boundless energy      Pure and Impure Poetry Alma Joyce McDonald, 1962      Robert Penn Warren Charles H. Bohner, 1964 This study emphasizes the shaping influence of the Southern heritage on Warren and the stimulus of his career afforded by his early association with the famous coterie of Southern writers The Fugitives This is the first book length study to discuss systematically both the range of Warren's talents and the growth of his artistic development The author argues that despite the variety of forms Warren has employed his work is concerned with several underlying themes the problem of evil the meaning of history the human penchant for violence the search for self knowledge and the need for self fulfillment These themes Warren has returned to again and again exploring them with a depth of perception and a richness of illustration that have placed him among the major literary figures of his time      Robert Penn Warren After Audubon Joseph R. Millichap, 2009-12 Robert Penn Warren after Audubon embraces research on developmental psychology gerontology and end of life studies to offer provocative new readings of Warren's later poems seeing in them an autobiographical epic focused on the process of aging the inevitability of death and the possibility of transcendence Among the autobiographical elements the author identifies are Warren's loneliness during his later years his alternating feelings of personal satisfaction and emptiness toward his literary achievements and at times the impotence of memory The author concludes that the finest of all of Warren's literary efforts can be found in his later works after Audubon A Vision      Homage to Robert Penn Warren Frank
