American Africans in Ghana Kevin K. Gaines, 2012-12-30 In 1957 Ghana became one of the first sub Saharan African nations to gain independence from colonial rule Over the next decade hundreds of African Americans including Martin Luther King Jr George Padmore Malcolm X Maya Angelou Richard Wright Pauli Murray and Muhammad Ali visited or settled in Ghana Kevin K Gaines explains what attracted these Americans to Ghana and how their new community was shaped by the convergence of the Cold War the rise of the U S civil rights movement and the decolonization of Africa Kwame Nkrumah Ghana s president posed a direct challenge to U S hegemony by promoting a vision of African liberation continental unity and West Indian federation Although the number of African American expatriates in Ghana was small in espousing a transnational American citizenship defined by solidarities with African peoples these activists along with their allies in the United States waged a fundamental if largely forgotten struggle over the meaning and content of the cornerstone of American citizenship the right to vote conferred on African Americans by civil rights reform legislation Trickster Theatre Jesse Weaver Shipley, 2015-06-22 Trickster Theatre traces the changing social significance of national theatre in Ghana from its rise as an idealistic state project from the time of independence to its reinvention in recent electronic market oriented genres Jesse Weaver Shipley presents portraits of many key figures in Ghanaian theatre and examines how Akan trickster tales were adapted as the basis of a modern national theatre This performance style tied Accra s evolving urban identity to rural origins and to Pan African liberation politics Contradictions emerge however when the ideal Ghanaian citizen is a mythic hustler who stands at the crossroads between personal desires and collective obligations Shipley examines the interplay between on stage action and off stage events to show how trickster theatre shapes an evolving urban world A Dam for Africa Stephan F. Miescher, 2022-07-12 Since its construction in the early 1960s the hydroelectric Akosombo Dam across the Volta River has exemplified the possibilities and challenges of development in Ghana Drawing upon a wealth of sources A Dam for Africa investigates contrasting stories about how this dam has transformed a West African nation while providing a model for other African countries The massive Akosombo Dam is the keystone of the Volta River Project that includes a large manmade lake 250 miles long the VALCO aluminum smelter new cities and towns a deep sea harbor and an electrical grid On the local level Akosombo has meant access to electricity for people in urban and industrial areas across southern Ghana For others Akosombo inflicted tremendous social and environmental costs The dam altered the ecology of the Lower Volta displaced 80 000 people in the Volta Basin and affected the livelihoods of hundreds of thousands of Ghanaians In A Dam for Africa Stephan Miescher explores four intersecting narratives Ghanaian debates and aspirations about modernization in the context of decolonization and Cold War international efforts of the US aluminum industry to benefit from Akosombo through cheap electricity for their VALCO smelter local stories of upheaval and devastation in resettlement towns and a nation wide quest toward electrification and energy justice during times of economic crises droughts and climate change      The History of Ghana Roger S. Gocking, 2005-06-30 Gocking provides a historical overview of Ghana from the emergence of precolonial states through increasing contact with Europeans that led to the establishment of formal colonial rule by Great Britain at the end of the 19th century Colonial rule transformed what was known as the Gold Coast economically socially and politically but it contained the seeds of its own demise After World War II an increasingly more effective nationalist movement challenged British rule and in 1957 Ghana became independent Independence brought its own challenges the most important of which was the inability to maintain political stability Within the space of 24 years there were four military coups and the collapse of three republics Ghana's Fourth Republic established in 1993 has dealt with the legacy of instability inherited from the past as it moves towards a more stable future A timeline photographs maps and an appendix of biographies of notable figures in the history of Ghana are included Students and adults alike will find this book to be highly effective in describing the often turbulent and tumultuous history of this country

Kant and Colonialism Katrin Flikschuh, Lea Ypi, 2014 This is the first book dedicated to a systematic exploration of Kant's position on colonialism Bringing together a team of leading scholars in both the history of political thought and normative theory the chapters in the volume seek to place Kant's thoughts on colonialism in historical context examine the tensions that the assessment of colonialism produces in Kant's work and evaluate the relevance of these reflections for current debates on global justice and the relation of Western political thinking to other parts of the world      Global Garveyism Ronald J. Stephens, Adam Ewing, 2024-10-15 Illuminating the global impact of Marcus Garvey's Black nationalist philosophy Arguing that the accomplishments of Jamaican activist Marcus Garvey and his followers have been marginalized in narratives of the Black freedom struggle this volume builds on decades of overlooked research to reveal the profound impact of Garvey's post World War I Black nationalist philosophy around the globe and across the twentieth century These essays point to the breadth of Garveyism's spread and its reception in communities across the African diaspora examining the influence of Garvey's Universal Negro Improvement Association UNIA in Africa Australia North America and the Caribbean They highlight the underrecognized work of many Garveyite women and show how the UNIA played a key role in shaping labor unions political organizations churches and schools In addition contributors describe the importance of grassroots efforts for expanding the global movement the UNIA trained leaders to organize local centers of power whose political activism outside the movement helped Garvey's message escape its organizational bounds during the 1920s They trace the imprint of the movement on long term developments such as decolonization in Africa and the Caribbean the pan Aboriginal fight for land rights in Australia the civil rights and Black Power movements in the United States and the radical pan African movement Rejecting the idea that Garveyism was a brief and misguided phenomenon this volume exposes its scope significance and endurance Together contributors assert that Garvey initiated the most important mass movement in the history of the African diaspora and they urge readers to rethink the emergence of modern Black politics with Garveyism at the center Contributors

Dr. Robinson A. Milwood, 2012-02-03 My thesis is basically intended for theological and philosophical students and at the same time their lecturers in biblical theology systematic theology and philosophy of religion There is no doubt in my mind that these disciplines must surgically forcefully put through the hermeneutical operation of radicalism and liberation black theology and black studies Because liberation black theology and black studies are both pertinent and existential to black people not only in the diaspora but principally within the demography of Africa Why Because Africa is the social economic political scientific spiritual theological and psychological incubation chamber with the legacies of the transatlantic slave trade colonialism and semantic cultural Christianization of Africans The besom merchants traders planters slavers missionaries philosophers historians theologians and scientists with savagery and brutality imposed on African slaves mendaciously that enslavement was good for Africans It is therefore apposite for liberation black theology and black studies particularly in praxis to critique and challenge the systems and endogenous forces that violated and emasculated Africans empowerment and humanity The slaves were brutally transformed physically and psychologically The slaves potentialities endowed with the imprint of the African traditional belief in a supreme being and prime mover of the cosmos was transgressed with falsehood that their belief in a supreme being was primitive and paganistic For Africans the supreme being is within their inner consciousness The enslavement of Africans was without morality and justice The creation of a symbiosis of liberation theology liberation black theology and hermeneutical application and praxis is sempiternal significance to the black experience and the Jesus of the black experience that gives timba to the dis empowered blacks of the streets of Accra and the continent of Africa that were consciously made into the apocalyptic and eschatological symbol of poverty dis possessed impuissant politically and economically in a world that is dominated with nuclear weapons and technological hegemony In the midst of such imbalance and the perversion of justice and equality regardless of ethnicity black people must make the conscious spiritual and psychological connection with the Jesus of the stigmata of the imprisoned African slaves on the Middle Passage and the diabolical plantations There is no another way according to the sociological theological psychological impacting force of the various violations of Africans dignity liberty freedom equality and humanity of black people in all dimensions of struggles to become veridical human beings in the full image of God That is to say theologically and sociologically the derivatives of shalom culminating in the absolute restoration of black humanity With the force of chimerical ism twinned with the black mans epistemological dreams without empiricism and existentialism It is at this juncture that all the mythological aspirations are reduced to the level of stultification because Christianity with the painting of a white plastic Jesus cannot be connected with the black experience When on Good Friday black people sing with effusive passion Jesus keep me near the Cross the Kebuka and Maafa on the plantation sufferings brutalization and de humanization rings with      Public Interest

Communication Jane Johnston, Magda Pieczka, 2018-07-18 Communication has become the technology of public interest demanding a re examination of the key concept of public in both public relations and communication theory This book defines a new concept of public interest communication combining the conflict negotiation and adaptation inherent in public interest with a critical approach to communication management and public relations Combining conceptual discussions about public theories of language with the tension between the public and private interests for public relations professionals the book uses case studies to explore the negotiation of conflicting interests and the construction of the public interest within systems of governance at local national and international levels Public interest communication is identified within social and cultural contexts that resonate globally health community media and the environment each representing interest conflicts within the changing global environment Addressing the forces of fragmentation inequality and individualisation that characterize the modern world this thought provoking volume will be of great interest to researchers and advanced students of

Jeffrey Herbst, 2014-12-21 Theories of international relations assumed to be universally applicable have failed to explain the creation of states in Africa There the interaction of power and space is dramatically different from what occurred in Europe In States and Power in Africa Jeffrey Herbst places the African state building process in a truly comparative perspective Herbst s bold contention that the conditions now facing African state builders existed long before European penetration of the continent is sure to provoke controversy for it runs counter to the prevailing assumption that colonialism changed everything This revised edition includes a new preface in which the author links the enormous changes that have taken place in Africa over the past fifteen years to long term state consolidation The final chapter on policy prescriptions has also been revised to reflect the evolution of African and international responses to state failure
