Selected Works Of Liu Shaoqi:

Selected Works of Liu Shaoqi Shaoqi Liu, 1984 Selected Works of Liu Shaoqi Shaoqi Liu, 1984 Selected Works of Liu Shaoqi Shao-ch'i Liu, 1984 Selected Works of Liu Shaoqi Liu Shaoqi, 1984 Collected Works of Liu Shaoqi, Before 1944 Shaoqi Liu, 1969 Selected Essays on the History of Contemporary China ZHANG Xingxing, 2015-02-17

The first volume of Historical Studies of Contemporary China offers an examination of some key events developments issues and figures in China since the founding of the People's Republic Drawing on rich primary and secondary sources leading experts in the political economic intellectual military and national defense and diplomatic history of the PRC present insights and analysis on a wide range of topics including emergency measures during the Difficult Three Year Period the relationship between Neo Confucianism and Marxism the evolution of China's international arms control policies the Chinese government's public opinion campaign prior to reestablishing diplomatic relations with Japan the Kashmir Princess incident and others These accounts will help readers form a more nuanced understanding of China's efforts to deal with an array of new problems while trying to recover from the ravages of two wars Liu Shaoqi and the Chinese Cultural Revolution Lowell Dittmer, 2015-02-12 By addressing the issues that decimated China's monolithic elite in the late 1960s this text illuminates not only the life and fate of Liu Shaoqi but also the policy making process of a revolutionary state facing the diverting exigencies of economic modernization and political development The Origins of the Cultural Revolution Roderick MacFarquhar, 1999-11 This is the final volume in a trilogy that examines the politics personalities economics culture and international relations of China from the mid 1950s to the mid 1960s It seeks to answer the central question Why did Chairman Mao Zedong launch the Cultural Revolution 1966-76 which plunged China into chaos and almost destroyed its Communist Party The Coming of the Cataclysm starts with the great famine of the early 1960s which resulted in tens of millions of deaths and set in train a series of emergency measures that increasingly divided Mao from his comrades in arms His anger that they were prepared to adopt capitalist methods to rescue the country was sharpened by his belief that Moscow had actually gone capitalist and sold out to the imperialist West From 1961 to 1966 the period covered by this volume the increasingly urgent question for Mao was how to prevent a similar revolutionary degeneration in China The Cultural Revolution was his answer Drawing upon new evidence from Party documents personal interviews books and journals MacFarquhar details the growing rift between Mao and his colleagues as they attempted to cope with domestic privation and an increasingly hostile international environment until the Chairman finally decided to smash the unity of the Yan'an Round Table by unleashing society against the party state Treaty Ports in Modern China Robert Bickers, Isabella Jackson, 2016-05-20 This book presents a wide range of new research on the Chinese treaty ports the key strategic places on China's coast where in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries various foreign powers controlled through unequal treaties whole cities or parts of cities outside the jurisdiction of the Chinese authorities Topics covered include land and how it was acquired the flow of people good and information specific individuals and families who typify life in the treaty ports and technical advances exploration and innovation in government Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr,2024-05-07 It is well known that the Chinese church and therefore Chinese theology has been divided in the People's Republic of China into registered and unregistered churches and that while the state approved church offers theologies that align with the nation's socialist values the unregistered or house churches have tended toward an evangelical theology that is now diverging with the resurgence of denominations in China What is less well known is that there has been a vibrant third field of Chinese theology Sino Christian theology a contested academic discourse that makes no claims to be a confessional theology This theology fostered by academics in secular Chinese universities developed in the 1990s and has grown and diversified with the increasing number of scholars researching Christianity in China This volume offers essays on the message of Chinese Christian art for example alongside textual and Christological studies The phenomenon of Sino Christian theology along with debates on its right to exist if not authored by professing Christians overlaps with broader debates on the nature of a Chinese theology and its unifying features The second part of the volume draws together nine essays on theological concerns in the Chinese diaspora These range from the nature of diasporic experience itself to studies of individual writers and from fundamentalist beliefs in Singapore to a queer theology academy in Hong Kong Although Hong Kong is part of mainland China given its history and the one country two systems policy still in place several essays on Hong Kong theologians are included here among diasporic writings Three essays focusing on Taiwanese subjects include reflections on the role of Christian philosophy in the legal thought of John C H Wu a reassessment of homeland theology in light of the nationalist resurgence and the creative theology of Yi based on the Book of Changes Yijing Mao's Road to Power Stuart Schram,Timothy Cheek,Roderick MacFarquhar,2015-07-16 This eighth volume covers the period 1942 to 1945 when Mao asserted his status as the incarnation and symbol of the Chinese Revolution and the sinification of Marxism Leninism

North China at War Chongyi Feng,David S. G. Goodman,2000 This groundbreaking volume draws on newly available documentary sources to explore key facets of the move to power of the Chinese Communist Party CCP during the War of Resistance to Japan from 1937 to 1945 Leading scholars from China and the West compare the varied experiences of the CCP and its interactions with local society in all the border regions and base areas of resistance to the Japanese invasion on the North China battlefield Eschewing grand theory the authors develop a social ecology of revolution that traces the relationship between local conditions and patterns of social and political change China's War in Korea Xiaobing Li,2019-11-05 This book revisits the history of the Korean War of 1950-1953 from a Chinese perspective examining Chinese strategy and exploring why China sent three million troops to Korea in Mao's words to defend the homeland and safeguard the country giving rise to what became the war's common name in China It also looks into the relatively neglected historical factors which have redefined China's security concerns and strategic culture Using newly available sources from China and the former Soviet Union the book considers how interactive the parameters of defense changes were in a foreign war against Western powers how flexible Chinese strategy was in the context of its intervention and how expansive its strategic cultural repertoire was at the crucial moment to defend the country Providing a re examination of China s military decisions and strategy evolution this text narrates the story of successive generations of Chinese leaders and provides a key insight into security issues in China and Northeast Asia today Mao Jung Chang, Jon Halliday, 2011-10-05 The most authoritative life of the Chinese leader ever written Mao The Unknown Story is based on a decade of research and on interviews with many of Mao s close circle in China who have never talked before and with virtually everyone outside China who had significant dealings with him It is full of startling revelations exploding the myth of the Long March and showing a completely unknown Mao he was not driven by idealism or ideology his intimate and intricate relationship with Stalin went back to the 1920s ultimately bringing him to power he welcomed Japanese occupation of much of China and he schemed poisoned and blackmailed to get his way After Mao conquered China in 1949 his secret goal was to dominate the world In chasing this dream he caused the deaths of 38 million people in the greatest famine in history In all well over 70 million Chinese perished under Mao s rule in peacetime Making Urban Revolution in China Joseph K. S. Yick, 1995 An attempt to rethink the traditional interpretation of the victory of Mao Zedong s Chinese Communist Party CCP in 1949 The focus is on the activities of the student intellectual based communist underground which played a crucial role Making Urban Revolution in China: The CCP-GMD Struggle for Beiping-Tianjin, 1945-49 Joseph K.S. Yick, 2015-05-20 The end of the Sino Japanese War in 1945 brought not peace but renewed confrontation between Mao Zedong s Chinese Communist Party and Chiang Kaishek s Guomindang The ensuing Civil War at the threshold of the Cold War held enormous significance for international strategic alliances and in particular the interests of the United States in East Asia and has been the subject of intense research and debate ever since Joseph Yick s Making Urban Revolution in China The CCP GMD Struggle for Beiping Tianjin 1945 1949 based partly on the rich new sources available in the PRC since 1978 rethinks the traditional interpretations of the Chinese Communist Party s victory in 1949 and makes a major contribution to the historiography of this period

Future In Retrospect: China's Diplomatic History Revisited Zhirui Chen, Yaqing Qin, 2016-07-08 What were the new People s Republic of China s policies to the Universal Postal Union in its early years How did they help China promote its national interests in the world stage Why did China train Albanian interns in the Cold War Was it out of communist fraternity or was it part of China s concerted public diplomacy efforts And what role has China s medical assistance to developing countries especially those in Africa played in its foreign affairs Penned by well known international relations scholars from China the eight essays in this volume attempt to answer those questions and more Based on rich literature including some newly declassified files from the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs this volume introduces some of the most interesting and significant but lesser known episodes in the diplomatic history of the People s Republic of China and tries to shed light on their implications and impact on China's diplomacy Marxism, History, and Intellectuals Suman Gupta, 2000 This study focuses on that area of revolutionary socialist philosophy which is devoted to conceiving the intellectual and allocating or refusing to do so a role to the intellectual in the revolutionary process and state Through an examination of the intellectual's role the author tries to reach an understanding of the connotations and pragmatics of transformative socialism in our time Primarily this study is a survey and reexamination of the constructions of and attitudes toward intellectuals in different revolutionary socialist philosophies with particular reference to the corresponding theories of history that are implicit therein The actual process of reconceptualizing transformative socialism in our context and in the light of the above reexamination is taken up toward the end of the book in a more or less polemical fashion BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Political Leaders of Modern China Edwin Leung, 2002-10-30 Through the individual characteristics of China's political leaders a nation building process began Chinese leaders fell into two categories of reformers conservative and liberal Conservative reformers saw a corruption of the moral order of society that needed to be eliminated in order to restore the country's moral integrity while liberal reformers attempted to embrace the flaws and lead China toward Socialism One hundred Chinese leaders from the Opium War to 2001 are profiled in this comprehensive biographical dictionary This book provides the most up to date coverage of modern Chinese political leadership during the Imperial Republican and Communist periods Political leaders throughout each period had a common desire for reform within the country while maintaining China's political and cultural legacy Leung invokes the uniqueness of those leaders in their struggle for personal gain and national improvement as they fought to preserve traditional values Written by 30 international scholars and experts in the field using both Western and Chinese sources this is the most authoritative dictionary on the subject Hong Kong History Man-Kong Wong, Chi-Man Kwong, 2021-11-10 This book aims at providing an accessible introduction to and summary of the major themes of Hong Kong history that has been studied in the past decades Each chapter also suggests a number of key historical figures and works that are essential for the understanding of a particular theme However the book is by no means merely a general survey of the recent studies of Hong Kong history it tries to suggest that the best way to approach Hong Kong history is to put it firmly in its international context
