Selected Works Volume I:

Collected Works, Volume I Adolf Grünbaum, 2013-07-16 Adolf Grünbaum is one of the giants of 20th century philosophy of science. This volume is the first of three collecting his most essential and highly influential work. The essays collected in this first volume focus on three related areas. They discuss scientific rationality, the problem of what it takes for a theory to be called scientific, and ask whether it is plausible to draw a clear distinction between science and non-science as was famously proposed by Karl Popper. They delve into the debate between determinism and indeterminism in both science and in the humanities. Grünbaum defends the position of the Humane Determinist, which then leads to a thorough criticism of the current theological approaches to ethics and morality where Grünbaum defends an explicit Secular Humanism as well as of prominent theistic interpretations of twentieth century physical cosmologies. The second volume is devoted to Grünbaum's writings on the Philosophy of Physics and Space Time, and the third to his lectures on the Philosophy of Psychology and Psychoanalysis, including his 1985 Gifford Lectures which are to be published for the first time. Collected Works, Volume 1 V. Lenin, 2017-10-03 Among the most influential political and social forces of the twentieth century, modern communism rests firmly on philosophical, political, and economic underpinnings developed by Vladimir Ilyich Ulyanov, later known as Lenin. For anyone who seeks to understand the twentieth century, capitalism, the Russian Revolution, and the role of Communism in the tumultuous political and social movements that have shaped the modern world, the works of Lenin offer unparalleled insight and understanding. Taken together, they represent a balanced cross-section of his revolutionary theories of history, politics, and economics; his tactics for securing and retaining power; and his vision of a new social and economic order. This first volume contains four works: New Economic Developments in Peasant Life, On the So-Called Market Question, What the Friends of the People Are and How They Fight the Social Democrats, and The Economic Content of Narodism and the Criticism of It in Mr. Struve's Book, written by Lenin in 1893-1894 at the outset of his revolutionary activity during the first years of the struggle to establish a workers' revolutionary party in Russia. Kurt Gödel: Collected Works: Volume IV Kurt Gödel, 2013-10

Kurt Gödel, 1906-1978 was the most outstanding logician of the twentieth century. These collected works form the only comprehensive edition of Gödel's work available and are designed to be useful and accessible to as wide an audience as possible without sacrificing scientific or historical accuracy. Wilhelm Dilthey: Selected Works, Volume VI Wilhelm

Dilthey, 2019-11-12 This book completes a landmark six-volume translation of the major writings of Wilhelm Dilthey (1833-1911), a philosopher and historian of culture who continues to have a significant influence on philosophy, hermeneutics, and the theory of the human sciences. These volumes make available to English readers texts that represent the full range of Dilthey's work. The works in this volume present Dilthey's most deeply held views about philosophy and how it can guide human practices. System of Ethics (1890) argues that Humean sympathy motivates us only externally and must be replaced with the internally motivated fellow-feeling of solidarity that respects others as ends in themselves. The Essence of Philosophy (1907)

demonstrates how philosophy has developed from its traditional metaphysical role to the epistemological and encyclopedic functions that ground and order the natural and human sciences The work also discloses an orientational function of philosophy that is explored further in The Types of World View and Their Development 1911 Philosophical world views are important in that they address the existential needs and riddles that grow out of life experience and are not solved by any of the sciences In addition the book features three other significant essays Present Day Culture and Philosophy 1898 concerns the challenges to philosophy posed by contemporary culture Dream 1903 is about the thinkers portrayed in Raphael's School of Athens and Dilthey's worries about them breaking up into three divergent groups Finally The Problem of Religion 1911 considers how religiosity can still inform lived experience in secular times

Wilhelm Dilthey: Selected Works, Volume III Wilhelm Dilthey, 2021-07-13 This volume provides Dilthey's most mature and best formulation of his Critique of Historical Reason It begins with three Studies Toward the Foundation of the Human Sciences in which Dilthey refashions Husserlian concepts to describe the basic structures of consciousness relevant to historical understanding The volume next presents the major 1910 work The Formation of the Historical World in the Human Sciences Here Dilthey considers the degree to which carriers of history individuals cultures institutions and communities can be articulated as productive systems capable of generating value and meaning and of realizing purposes Hegel's idea of objective spirit is reconceived in a more empirical form to designate the medium of commonality in which historical beings are immersed Any universal claims about history need to be framed within the specific productive systems analyzed by the various human sciences Dilthey's drafts for the Continuation of the Formation contain extensive discussions of the categories most important for our knowledge of historical life meaning value purpose time and development He also examines the contributions of autobiography to historical understanding and of biography to scientific history The finest summary of Dilthey's views on hermeneutics can be found in The Understanding of Other Persons and Their Manifestations of Life Here Dilthey differentiates understanding relative to three kinds of manifestations of life After giving his analysis of elementary understanding he examines the role of induction in higher understanding and interpretation and the relevance of transposition and re-experiencing for grasping individuality

Permanent Revolution: The Documentary Record Richard B. Day,Daniel Gaido,2009-02-23 The theory of Permanent Revolution has been associated with Leon Trotsky for more than a century since the first Russian Revolution in 1905 Trotsky was the most brilliant proponent of Permanent Revolution but by no means its sole author The documents in this volume most of them translated into English for the first time demonstrate that Trotsky was one of several participants in a debate from 1903-7 that involved numerous leading figures of Russian and European Marxism including Karl Kautsky Rosa Luxemburg Franz Mehring Parvus and David Ryazanov This volume reassembles that debate assesses it with reference to Marx and Engels and provides new evidence for interpreting the formative years of Russian revolutionary Marxism A

Twilight of the Gods - Götterdämmerung over the "New World Order" Stefan Engel, 2016-03-02 For the title of this book author Stefan Engel employs an allegory from German mythology in the g tterd mmerung the twilight of the gods the end of the world engulfs the worn out gods of an antiquated age and out of the world conflagration grows an admirable new world of peace an full joyous live The parallel with the decline of the present ruling stratum of world society and the preparation of a new future well worth living is intended The book wrests this vision from the realm of mythology and places it on a scientific foundation It conveys a perspective to all those for whom the g tterd mmerung of ruling world finance capital does not signify the end of history but the starting point for a new epoch of the social development of humanity without hunger exploitation and war Collected Works of F.H. Bradley: The principles of logic Francis Herbert Bradley,1922 Marx's Capital, Method and Revolutionary Subjectivity Guido

Starosta,2015-11-24 In Marx's Capital Method and Revolutionary Subjectivity Guido Starosta develops a materialist inquiry into the social and historical determinations of revolutionary subjectivity Through a methodologically minded critical reconstruction of the Marxian critique of political economy from the early writings up to the Grundrisse and Capital this study shows that the outcome of the historical movement of the objectified form of social mediation which has turned into the very alienated subject of social life i.e. capital is to develop as its own immanent determination the constitution of the self abolishing working class as a revolutionary subject A crucial element in this intellectual endeavour is the focus on the intrinsic connection between the specifically dialectical form of social science and its radical transformative content

Marxism and Freedom Raya Dunayevskaya,2024-01-11 In this classic exposition of Marxist thought Raya Dunayevskaya with clarity and great insight traces the development and explains the essential features of Marx's analysis of history Using as her point of departure the Industrial and French Revolutions the European upheavals of 1848 the American Civil War and the Paris Commune of 1871 Dunayevskaya shows how Marx inspired by these events adapted Hegel's philosophy to analyze the course of history as a dialectical process that moves from practice to theory The essence of Marx's philosophy as Dunayevskaya points out is the human struggle for freedom which entails the gradual emergence of a proletarian revolutionary consciousness and the discovery through conflict of the means for realizing complete human freedom But freedom for Marx meant freedom not only from capitalist economic exploitation but also from all political restraints Continuing her historical analysis Dunayevskaya reveals how completely Marx's original conception of freedom was perverted through its adaptations by Stalin in Russia and Mao in China and the subsequent erection of totalitarian states The exploitation of the masses persisted under these regimes in the form of a new state capitalism Yet despite the profound derailment of Marxist political philosophy in the twentieth century Dunayevskaya points to developments such as the Hungarian revolt of 1956 and the Civil Rights struggles in the United States as signs that the indomitable quest for freedom on the part of the downtrodden cannot be forever repressed The Hegelian dialectic of events propelled by the spirit of the masses thus moves on inexorably with the hope for the future achievement of political economic and social freedom and equality for all Localizing Governance in India Bidyut Chakrabarty,2017-02-17 Participatory governance has a long history in India and this book traces historical intellectual trajectories of participatory governance and how older Western discourses have influenced Indian policymakers While colonial rulers devolved power to accommodate dissenting voices for independent India participatory governance was a design for democratizing governance in its true sense Participation also acted as a vehicle for localizing governance The author draws on both Western and non-Western theoretical treatises and the book seeks to conceptualize localizing governance also as a contextual response It also makes the argument that despite being located in different socio economic and political milieu thinkers converge to appreciate localizing governance as perhaps the only reliable means to democratize governance The book aims to confirm this argument by reference to sets of evidence from the Indian experience of localizing governance By attempting a genealogy of participatory governance in the West and in India and an empirical study of participatory governance in India the book sheds light on the exchange of ideas and concepts through space and time thus adding to the growing body of literature in the social sciences on conceptual flow It will be of interest to political scientists and historians in particularly those studying South Asia

On the Alternative Punishment to the Death Penalty in China Gui Huang, 2024-04-17 This book presents a study of alternative penalties to the death penalty in China aiming to promote theoretical exploration of death penalty reform in China as well as long term penal reform Currently China is endeavouring to control the use of the death penalty and is gradually moving towards its abolition The factors influencing the choice of the punishment option to replace the death penalty are complex and varied and include the traditional punishment culture penalty concepts the political system the punishment system public opinion and human rights etc Given the differences between China and developed Western democratic states when we examine these influencing factors we cannot ignore the culture of the punishment and the special political and legislation system in China In this light this work examined and analysed the factors that influence the choice of punishment option to replace the death penalty in this special political system with its clearly Chinese characteristics Criminal policy and public opinion are two significant and typical factors involving obvious political considerations in China The former normally reflects and carries out the will of the Government as expressed to the national management the latter responds to the majority of citizens view on the current legal system and it is to a great extent the basis for national leadership s running of the country Even though life imprisonment without release hereinafter LWOR has been stipulated by the Ninth Amendment for the crime of corruption it should not be the preferable option as the alternative sanction to the death penalty because it is a kind of cruel torture and violates the constitutional principle of human rights protection On the contrary life imprisonment with possibility of release hereinafter LWPR would be an option but the termination mechanisms for inmates should be set out in accordance with the principle of proportional justice aggravated life imprisonment can be chosen to replace the death penalty in China In addition there needs to be improvements made to the relevant criminal systems By examining China s death penalty reform and long term imprisonment reform this book not only explains the methodology of the reform theoretically but also pays attention to the issues of legislation and judicial practice This book is of interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of criminal justice penal reform issues and crime control in China
