Edited and Wit H a Memoir by Eiluned Lewis Charles Morgan, Lettres Charles Morgan, Eiluned Lewis, 1969 Briefe, engl. Selected letter of Charles Morgan Charles Morgan, Eiluned Lewis, 1967 The Selected Letters of Charles Whibley Damian Atkinson, 2018-06-11 The scholar Charles Whibley was born in 1859 and died in 1930 straddling the end of the Victorian age the new century and the Great War and its aftermath After completing his studies at Cambridge his early journalistic experiences were with the critic poet and editor William Ernest Henley known for his mentoring of young writers on the Scots later National Observer and Whibley was to a great extent the mainstay of the journal After his grounding with Henley he moved to Paris for a few years as the correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette Here he became friends with Paul Val ry St phane Mallarm and Marcel Schwob and married Whistler s sister in law Ethel Birnie Philip in July 1895 While in Paris he wrote for Blackwood s Magazine and was an advisor for Fisher Unwin s Library of Literary History Returning to England Whibley became friends with Lord Northcliffe Lady Cynthia Asquith and later T S Eliot The friendship with William Blackwood resulted in Whibley s monthly Musings without Method from February 1900 to December 1929 a contribution which Eliot called one of the best sustained pieces of literary journalism that I know in recent times Northcliffe was a close friend as was Sir Frederick Macmillan of the publishing firm From 1906 until October 1920 Whibley contributed a Saturday column in Northcliffe s Daily Mail and for many years was a reader for Macmillans His friendship and infatuation with Cynthia Asquith lives strongly in his letters although there is hardly any mention of his wife Ethel Much of his literary work was with biographical essays of literary and political persons After the death of Ethel in 1920 Whibley visited Brazil sending back reports to Cynthia Asquith Whibley contributed to Eliot s Criterion and also helped Eliot to acquire British citizenship Apart from his continued journalism Whibley worked as a consultant for the Royal Literary Fund later becoming a committee member In 1927 he married his Goddaughter Philippa Raleigh Whibley s death in France in March 1930 robbed the literary world of his biography of W E Henley Many of his letters deal with his literary work with the Macmillans Blackwood s Magazine and his friendship with Cynthia Asquith and in some letters to Northcliffe he parades his Tory views He was a supporter of the Great War though little appears in his letters Selected Letters Charles Morgan, 1967 The Selected Letters of Nikos Kazantzakis Nikos Kazantzakis, 2020-06-09 The life of Nikos Kazantzakis the author of Zorba the Greek and The Last Temptation of Christ was as colorful and eventful as his fiction And nowhere is his life revealed more fully or surprisingly than in his letters Edited and translated by Kazantzakis scholar Peter Bien this is the most comprehensive selection of Kazantzakis s letters in any language One of the most important Greek writers of the twentieth century Kazantzakis 1883 1957 participated in or witnessed some of the most extraordinary events of his times including both world wars and the Spanish and Greek civil wars

As a foreign correspondent an official in several Greek governments and a political and artistic exile he led a relentlessly nomadic existence living in France Czechoslovakia Austria Germany Italy Spain the Soviet Union and England He visited the Versailles Peace Conference attended the tenth anniversary celebration of the Bolshevik Revolution interviewed Mussolini and Franco and briefly served as a Greek cabinet minister all the while producing a stream of novels poems plays travel writing autobiography and translations The letters collected here touch on almost every aspect of Kazantzakis's rich and tumultuous life and show the genius of a man who was deeply attuned to the artistic intellectual and political events of his times

The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan's home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage

Wales in England, 1914-1945 Wendy Ugolini, 2024-05-10 At the beginning of the twentieth century for many English men and women of Welsh origin the idea of being in some part Welsh reaffirmed their own understanding of what it meant to be British Wales in England 1914-1945 is the first cultural history of this English Welsh duality an identification with two constituent nations at once and explores how Welshness was imagined performed and mobilised in England during and between the two world wars In so doing and making use of individual English Welsh case studies from the worlds of politics art literature and soldiering the book provides a wholly new perspective on the social cultural and military history of Britain at war It shows English Welsh duality to have been an important strand of pluralistic Britishness in wartime and that this diasporic construction of Welshness held a wide urban appeal with significant implications for military enlistment cultural production and commemorative practices in England Working at the intersection of war studies British studies and diaspora studies Wales in England makes a significant contribution to four nations history and the history of British society at war

Beware the British Serpent Robert Calder, 2004 During World War II the United States was the target of what Gore Vidal has called the largest most intricate and finally most successful conspiracy directed at it in the twentieth century Great Britain's vast conspiracy to manoeuvre an essentially isolationist country into the war In Beware the British Serpent Robert Calder examines British writers involvement in this propaganda campaign including lecturing and touring in the United States broadcasting on American radio writing screenplays for films such as Mrs Miniver and This Above All and writing articles and books for publication in America

M. H Bell, 2014-09-25 This is the second volume in Philip Bell's study of Franco British relations in the twentieth century It covers the period from the Fall of France in 1940 to the opening of the Channel Tunnel Philip Bell views the half century as a long separation with France committed early on to a new concept of Europe in partnership with Germany whilst Britain stood apart The tensions and resentments it has generated have kept French British relations at the very heart of the burning question of Britain's place in Europe Yet the story has another side to which Philip Bell also does justice Much has been achieved by the two countries together and alongside their European partners For all their divergencies and antagonisms the French and British know and understand each other better today than at any other time in their modern histories and all these developments are fully explored in Philip Bell's engrossing and often amusing account
