Selected Papers Of J R Firth 1952 1959:

Selected Papers of J. R. Firth, 1952-1959 John Rupert Firth, 1969 On Grammar M.A.K. Halliday, 2005-10-01 For nearly half a century Professor M A K Halliday has been enriching the discipline of linguistics with his keen insights into the social semiotic phenomenon we call language This ten volume series presents the seminal works of Professor Halliday This first volume contains seventeen papers including a new chapter entitled A Personal Perspective in which Halliday offers his own current perspective on language and linguistic theory The first part of the book presents early papers 1957-66 on basic concepts such as system structure class and rank The second part highlights how over the span of two decades the 1960s to mid 1980s Halliday developed systemic theory to account for linguistic phenomena extending upward through the ranks from word to clause to text The last part Construing and Abstracting includes more recent work in which Halliday discusses the issues confronting those who study linguistics using Firth's description of linguistics language turned back on itself

Systemic Functional Insights on Language and Linguistics Christian M.I.M. Matthiessen, Bo Wang, Yuanyi Ma, Isaac N. Mwinlaaru, 2022-04-05 This book features a collection of 10 interviews with Christian M I M Matthiessen who is a key figure in Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL and has collaborated closely with M A K Halliday since the 1980s As noted by Professor Chang Chenguang Editor of the M A K Halliday Library Functional Linguistics Series this collection of interviews serves as an important reference for scholars and students of SFL It provides a unique perspective on the theoretical development and future outlooks of SFL as well as Matthiessen's own interpretations of the theory It also enriches our understanding of SFL and is a very useful addition to the series Written in an engaging dialogic format the book paints a vivid picture of SFL thriving among the landscape of general linguistics and of SFL as an important tool now being applied in various areas

Semantic Theories in Europe, 1830-1930 Brigitte Nerlich, 1992-03-26 It is widely believed by historians of linguistics that the 19th century was largely devoted to historical and comparative studies with the main emphasis on the discovery of soundlaws Syntax is typically portrayed as a mere sideline of these studies while semantics is seldom even mentioned If it comes into view at all it is usually assumed to have been confined to diachronic lexical semantics and the construction of some mostly ill conceived typologies of semantic change This book aims to destroy some of these prejudices and to show that in Europe semantics was an important although controversial area at that time Synchronic mechanisms of semantic change were discovered and increasing attention was paid to the context of the sentence to the speech situation and the users of the language From being a semantics of transformations a child of the biological geological paradigm of historical linguistics with its close links to etymology and lexicography the field matured into a semantics of comprehension and communication set within a general linguistics and closely related to the emerging fields of psychology and sociology

Sociolinguistic Metatheory E. Figueroa, 2014-06-28 Linguistics is a discipline with ever expanding boundaries and interests Despite the narrow definition of linguistics which dominates academia sub fields continue to flourish and ways of doing linguistics continue to expand As ways to do linguistics increase and as approaches to linguistics accumulate over time it becomes increasingly necessary for students of linguistics to have ways of understanding and comparing developments in linguistics Sociolinguistic Metatheory is a book which explains foundational developments in linguistics by taking the past three decades of developments in sociolinguistics and relating them to contemporaneous developments in received linguistics Sociolinguistic Metatheory takes the reader through the basic philosophical questions which drive linguistic research It looks in detail at three models of sociolinguistics Dell Hymes and the Ethnography of Communication William Labov and Sociolinguistic Realism and John Gumperz and Interactional Sociolinguistics and focuses on such questions as Where is language located How is an utterance based approach to linguistics different from a sentence based approach How do metatheoretical paradigm assumptions such as realism or relativism affect the development of linguistic theory What interesting developments in linguistic theory and analysis have sociolinguistics provided

New Literacies and the English Curriculum Len Unsworth, 2011-11-03 In an age where the use of electronic media is expanding and the nature of traditional texts and text based learning is changing new literacies are becoming increasingly important in the school classroom This volume examines how new literacies can be used in the English curriculum and presents a series of research based studies applied to every level of school age education The chapters examine early literacy picture books the internet secondary school English and the problems of assessment in the new literacy age This forward thinking volume will be of interest to teachers and academics researching education literacy applied linguistics and social semiotic theory

On Subject and Theme Ruqaiya Hasan, Peter H. Fries, 1995-11-23 The ten papers in this volume focus on Subject and Theme Theme began its life as a semantic notion in the work of Vil m Mathesius while Subject has traditionally been seen as just a syntactic entity More recently two related perspectives on these concepts have attracted linguists attention the formal criteria for their recognition and the relations between the two concepts Using the systemic functional model as their point of departure the papers in the present volume consider the two notions in a wider context by relating them to the interpersonal and textual metafunctions of language By contrast with the current linguistic approaches the primary focus here is neither simply on formal recognition criteria nor on the relation of these elements to each other instead the notions of Subject and Theme are examined from the point of view of their function in the economy of discourse with studies of their significance in English and French as well as in a range of non Indo European languages Definitions of the concepts are offered on the basis of their discourse functions which are also important in selecting the formal recognition criteria and in understanding their mutually supportive role vis vis each other Most of the papers in the volume are a selection from presentations made at the 19th International Systemic Functional Congress at Macquarie University

Text and Technology Mona Baker, Gill Francis, Elena Tognini-Bonelli, 1993-01-01 Text and Technology focuses on three major areas of modern linguistics discourse analysis corpus driven analysis of language and computational linguistics The volume starts off with a description of the various British traditions in text analysis by Michael Stubbs The first section Spoken and Written Discourse contains contributions by Martin Warren Mohd Dahan Hazadiah Amy B M Tsui Anna Mauranen and Susan Hunston The next section on corpus driven analysis Corpus Studies Theory and Practice contains contributions by Gill Francis Bill Louw Allan Partington Elena Tognini Bonelli The contributions in this section by Kirsten Malmkjaer and Mona Baker deal specifically with translated text The final third section Text and Technology Computational Tools has contributions by David Coniam Jeremy Clear Junsaku Nakamura Geoff Barnbrook and Margaret Allen In spite of the specialised nature of the topics discussed and the level of sophistication with which these topics are handled the papers are written in a clear and accessible style and will therefore be of interest to seasoned scholars and students alike An extensive index further enhances the value of this collection as a reference point for many of the issues that currently lie at the heart of modern linguistics enquiry

Introducing Chinese Discourse Bo Wang, Yuanyi Ma, 2025-05-13 Drawing on Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL this book introduces readers to the methods for analysing discourse texts written and spoken in the Chinese language It presents Chinese discourse as a semantic unit adopting a trinocular view in terms of the hierarchy of stratification The texts in this book are based on a comprehensive and rich archive featuring not only text types available in other languages and cultures but also those unique in the Chinese language The book is aimed at students and researchers working on SFL language description translation studies or related areas as well as MA or doctoral students who have some basic knowledge about linguistics or discourse analysis

The Routledge Handbook of Semantics Nick Riemer, 2015-07-30 The Routledge Handbook of Semantics provides a broad and state of the art survey of this field covering semantic research at both word and sentence level It presents a synoptic view of the most important areas of semantic investigation including contemporary methodologies and debates and indicating possible future directions in the field Written by experts from around the world the 29 chapters cover key issues and approaches within the following areas meaning and conceptualisation meaning and context lexical semantics semantics of specific phenomena development change and variation The Routledge Handbook of Semantics is essential reading for researchers and postgraduate students working in this area

Collaborating towards Coherence Sanna-Kaisa Tanskanen, 2006-06-14 This book approaches cohesion and coherence from a perspective of interaction and collaboration After a detailed account of various models of cohesion and coherence the book suggests that it is fruitful to regard cohesion as contributing to coherence as a strategy used by communicators to help their fellow communicators create coherence from a text Throughout the book the context sensitive and discourse specific nature of cohesion is stressed cohesive relations are created and interpreted in particular texts in particular contexts By investigating the use of cohesion in four different types of discourse the study shows that cohesion is not uniform across discourse types The analysis reveals that written dialogue computer mediated discussions and spoken monologue prepared speech make use of similar cohesive strategies as spoken dialogue conversations in these contexts the communicators interaction with their fellow communicators leads to a similar outcome The book suggests that this is an indication of the communicators attempt to collaborate towards successful communication
